1998 PHILADELPHIA EAGLES MEDIA GUIDE

JEFFREY LURIE

OWNER/CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

On May 6, 1994, NFL owners voted to approve the sale of the Philadelphia Eagles from Norman Braman to Jeffrey Lurie. The approval came exactly one month after Lurie had reached an agreement to purchase the club for what was then the highest sum ever paid for a professional sports franchise. "It has been a life-long dream to own a professional football team," Lurie said following the owners' approval. "To own one in one of the greatest sports cities in America - Philadelphia - is the culmination of that dream."

Just one-and-a-half years later, Lurie was named NFL Owner of the Year by The Sporting News. Wrote TSN's Bill Plaschke, "The most decorated [owner] should be Lurie, who in his first full season has led with his heart as much as with his head. And the results are impressive: a playoff team, happy fans, and even the dreaded 'S' word, 'stability'.... Not that Lurie is afraid of breaking down barriers. In making inexperienced Ray Rhodes only the third African-American head coach in NFL history, Lurie risked criticism that he was making either a token hire or an ill-advised one. As it turned out, Rhodes [became] Coach of the Year.... Lurie is friendly and accessible. Before one game, you might spot him walking around the field, talking to fans in box seats. Before another, you might find him in the parking lot [joining in with fans at] tailgate parties."

Added Leigh Steinberg, an influential agent for more than 60 NFL players, "[Jeffrey Lurie] is plenty smart and plenty ambitious. Jeff is going to be a major player in the NFL for a number of years."

Owner of the Year honors, however, were not - and are not - Lurie's goal. His goal remains winning championships. As such, a pair of 10-6 seasons capped by playoff appearances in '95 and '96, as well as the NFL's eighth best record over the last three years was of little consolation to Lurie when the Eagles suffered a disappointing 6-9-1 campaign in '97. In an effort to put the Birds back on the right track this year, Lurie and Eagles executive vice president, Joe Banner, aggressively pursued the highly-respected Tom Modrak and brought him on board as the Eagles' director of football operations. Modrak, who enjoyed remarkable success over a 20-year span with the Pittsburgh Steelers, had turned down similar offers from other franchises before accepting the Eagles post.

Lurie's aggressive pursuit of Modrak is mirrored by his philosophy regarding the club's pursuit of player personnel. By the start of the '97 season, Lurie's Eagles had inked five of the NFL's most sought-after free agents in successive offseasons: RB Ricky Watters from the 49ers and FB Kevin Turner from the Patriots in '95, CB Troy Vincent from the Dolphins in '96, and C Steve Everitt from the Ravens and K Chris Boniol from the Cowboys in '97. In fact, the signing of Watters and Vincent enabled Philadelphia to become the only team to sign a transition player away from another club in successive seasons.

This winter, the Birds continued to implement a strategic approach to free agency while also bolstering the roster by aggressively pursuing trades. In the process, the club continues to target young talent like DE Hugh Douglas and WR Jeff Graham, both of whom joined the Birds in separate trades with the NY Jets - trades that drew rave reviews from NFL circles. By trading for Douglas, one of the NFL's premier pass rushers, and by subsequently signing the 26-year old to a six-year deal, the Eagles essentially beat the rest of the NFL to a player who surely would have been a marquee name in the 1999 free agent crop.

Long before his purchase of the Eagles was final, Lurie had begun analyzing how best to turn the Birds into a Super Bowl winner. During that process, he tapped into the knowledge and experience of prominent persons in various professional sports leagues, each of whom had pieced together highly successful franchises and won numerous championships.

Once the 1994 season was complete, Lurie made swift and bold changes, clearly putting his stamp on the Eagles organization and pointing the franchise in a new direction. From the start, Lurie clearly defined the mission of the organization: to win the Super Bowl. While he noted that the Eagles had experienced a degree of success in the years prior to his purchase of the club, reaching the early rounds of the playoffs as the Eagles did in the late '80s and early '90s wasn't the type of success in which he was interested. In fact, Lurie wanted to see the pieces put into place that would lead to a number of championships.

In keeping with this stated goal, the youthful, energetic Lurie personally began laying the groundwork for his club's future. In the process, Lurie took a number of major steps.

On February 2, 1995, Lurie hired San Francisco's dynamic defensive coordinator, Ray Rhodes, as the 19th head coach in Eagles' history, replacing Rich Kotite. In Rhodes he found a man who was no stranger to a winning tradition. In his 12 seasons as a 49ers assistant, the Niners earned postseason berths 10 times, advanced to the NFC Championship Game seven times, and won an unprecedented five Super Bowls.

Said Lurie of Rhodes, who earned numerous Coach of the Year honors in 1995 and became the first Eagles head coach in history to lead the Birds into the playoffs in each of his first two years at the helm, "If you want to measure a coach's heart, I'd go with Ray's. He's obsessed with winning championships. He won five in San Francisco and he expects to win them here."

More significant moves came when the Eagles' front office put into practice the type of aggressive moves Lurie had vowed his organization would make when he purchased the club. First, in March of 1995, Philadelphia signed the NFL's premier free agent catch of that offseason, Pro Bowl running back Ricky Watters, who went on to log three 1,000-yard seasons for the Eagles.

In the years since, the Birds have continued that approach, acquiring highly regarded players such as CB Troy Vincent (then a Dolphins' transition player) and C Steve Everitt through free agency as well as DE Hugh Douglas via trade. A similar theme has permeated the Eagles' drafts. Draft day trades - like the one this spring that brought WR Jeff Graham into the Eagles nest - are the norm, as are quality picks. Since 1995, the club has drafted three players (CB Bobby Taylor, FS Brian Dawkins and TE Jason Dunn) who went on to earn all-rookie honors and a quarterback, Bobby Hoying, who has shown great promise. The '98 draft saw the Eagles claim the top-rated offensive tackle in the country, Tra Thomas. Similarly, Lurie's staff has meticulously combed the waiver wire and wisely signed undrafted free agents such as DT Hollis Thomas and P Tom Hutton, both of whom also went on to earn NFL all-rookie team honors as Eagles.

Lurie's efforts have not gone unnoticed.

"It's very evident," said current Miami Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson, "that Jeffrey Lurie is going to do whatever it takes to get Philadelphia to a Super Bowl - he emphasized that when he hired Ray Rhodes, because Ray has the same type of attitude. Looking around the NFL, I think they are a couple of individuals who are not just satisfied with winning games and getting to the playoffs. They're going to be relentless, as far as getting to the Super Bowl, and that's a credit for Philadelphia."

Lurie's desire for the Eagles to be aggressive and committed to success is something deep seated. "Growing up," said Lurie, "I admired the Celtics franchise of Red Auerbach. Players were proud to be playing for the organization. He was a model for me.... I admire the coaches that have bold dreams, that are not afraid to reach out and look for alternatives. I like owners and managers that don't necessarily make the easy choices, the safe choices, the ones the media would approve of."

Since purchasing the team, Lurie also has overseen the restructuring of the player personnel department, a process he began on May 17, 1994, his first official day as owner, when he said, "The top priority is for us to become the best organization in terms of information gathering and talent evaluation. Toward that end we will certainly increase the scouting capacity on both the college and pro levels."

To help facilitate this information gathering process Lurie expanded the Birds' scouting staff and modernized the club's computer systems. Evidence of such is the new opponent/player analysis software programs now used by both the coaching and scouting staffs, as well as the new editing capabilities installed in the club's video operation.

Shortly after taking over the reins of the Eagles, Lurie described his philosophy of ownership as "a partnership - a partnership between the city, the fans, and the team."

Toward that end, Lurie and his wife, Christina, saw to it that the Eagles would make a difference in the Philadelphia community. Together, they oversaw the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership, the charitable wing of the Eagles. Now in its fourth year of operation, EYP has developed into one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in the Philadelphia region and the NFL.

Founded in 1995, EYP is focused on enriching the health and education of "at risk" youth in the Philadelphia region. As such, EYP along with the Eagles organization and its players unite with corporate and community partners to develop and administer programs that positively influence children's lives.

In addition to launching the highly successful Eagles Eye Mobile program and the well-received Eagles Read literacy project, EYP has made grant commitments totalling more than $750,000 to local community organizations, primarily in the area of after-school and literacy programs. The largest such grant is a $465,000 commitment to Philadelphia Reads as its founding partner. Moreover, with EYP as a driving force, the entire Eagles staff and well over 25 players have twice worked side-by-side with community members in order to build playgrounds in inner-city Philadelphia (in the Nicetown section in 1997 as part of the Presidents' Summit on Volunteerism, and in South Philadelphia's Mifflin Square Park this past June when they contributed manpower plus $75,000 to build a structure now known as Eagles Unity Playground).

"You can really be a catalyst for change," said Lurie. "People look to the sports team owners as leaders in the city. We can try to make a better life for more people. Philadelphia is a great example of a city with a lot to offer, but there's an underclass that has fewer and fewer opportunities. So, we really can make a difference, especially with children."

Indeed, Eagles Youth Partnership already has been recognized as an organization that does make a difference. In just its first three years, Eagles Youth Partnership was presented with the Great Friend to Kids award and the Louis Braille award for its efforts on behalf of the youth of Philadelphia.

In addition to their work with Eagles Youth Partnership, the Lurie's interest in social issues is well known as both are extremely active in the local Philadelphia charitable community. Lurie himself was the 1995 recipient of the Small Miracles Award from the Center for Autistic Children. He also received the Torch of Liberty Award conferred by the Anti-Defamation League of Philadelphia in 1996. One year later he was honored by Philadelphia's Operation Understanding, a renowned group that fosters interracial harmony among future leaders of the African-American and Jewish communities. Together, Mr. & Mrs. Lurie were presented with the aforementioned 1996 "Great Friends to Kids" award by Philadelphia's Please Touch Museum in recognition of their contributions toward enriching the lives of young children.

When Lurie purchased the Eagles he said, "I understand that NFL football is a form of entertainment, but I am also aware that nothing is more entertaining than winning."

The Birds' owner is certainly familiar with entertainment, having served as the president and chief executive officer of Chestnut Hill Productions, a Los Angeles-based film company, since forming it in 1985. Chestnut Hill has produced several movies, including the HBO hit, Blindside, and the widely acclaimed State of Emergency. Among the other films produced by the company are Sweet Hearts Dance (1988) starring Susan Sarandon and Don Johnson, I Love You to Death (1990) with Kevin Kline, Tracey Ullman, and William Hurt, and V.I. Warshawski (1991) featuring Kathleen Turner. (Lurie himself had a cameo role in a made-for-TV Disney movie this past winter, playing a friend of sanitation worker Barney Gorman [Tony Danza], who signs a kicking contract with the Eagles in The Garbage Picking, Field Goal Kicking, Philadelphia Phenom.)

In addition to his film work, Lurie's other business interests include, among others, international publishing, specialty retailing, and movie exhibition through his investment in Harcourt General and its majority ownership of the Neiman Marcus Group and GC Companies. Today, Lurie is a member of Harcourt General's board of directors.

Lurie currently serves as a member of the NFL's Finance and Expansion committees and was recently appointed to the League's Special Committee on Opportunities/Challenges. He also serves on the Board of Directors of NFL Charities and is a key figure locally as a member of the Executive Committee of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is a director of the Autism Research Foundation in Boston, director of the National Alliance for Autism Research in Princeton, NJ, and has served as a trustee of Clark University.

Prior to entering business, Lurie was an educator, serving as an adjunct assistant professor of social policy at Boston University, and before that as a teacher at Westford (MA) Academy where he founded that school's alternative education program. As a student, he earned a B.A. from Clark University, a Master's in psychology from Boston University, and a Ph.D in social policy from Brandeis University. In his doctoral thesis, Lurie examined the depiction of women in contemporary film.

Born September 8, 1951, in Boston, MA, Lurie grew up in nearby West Newton. He now resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife and their two children.

JOE BANNER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

In July of 1997, the Eagles announced the promotion of Joe Banner from Senior Vice President to Executive Vice President. In this role, the native of Chestnut Hill, MA, serves as the top executive beneath team owner Jeffrey Lurie and will continue to supervise the day-to-day operations of the franchise while also helping shape the Eagles organization of tomorrow.

"While the fans may primarily see Joe's function as that of an expert 'capologist,' that is very much an understated view of his role with the Eagles," said Lurie. "Joe's role is much larger in scope than that. He is, in fact, one who helped shape - and will continue to shape - the direction of this organization, both on and off the field, on a day-to-day basis."

The 45-year old Banner (2/13/53) has played a vital role in the operation of the Eagles since Lurie became owner of the club on May 17, 1994. Said Lurie at the time, "Joe will provide this club with a great deal of vision. He has an extremely diverse and successful background that he brings to the Eagles."

Today, Lurie repeatedly says of his first hire as Eagles' owner, "Joe has been invaluable in terms of helping oversee the operation of the Eagles. He has been a major contributor in numerous ways."

Among his many responsibilities are serving as the club's salary cap management expert, contract negotiator, and as a point-person on the development of a new stadium. Banner has also aided in the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership, the club's critically acclaimed non-profit, charitable wing. Moreover, Banner has played a vital role in the restructuring of the club's football operations and front office - helping to make it one of the most progressive and dynamic organizations in professional sports.

During his first year with the club, one of Banner's most significant contributions was aiding Lurie in the hiring of head coach Ray Rhodes, who later became the 1995 NFL coach of the year and the first Eagles coach to lead the club to the playoffs in each of his first two seasons at the helm. Banner also modernized the club's computer systems and entire business operation.

In subsequent years he also oversaw the hiring of a corporate sales & marketing force well on its way to being recognized as one of the finest such departments in professional sports, and orchestrated the well-received move of the club's summer training camp to Lehigh University.

Most recently, Banner helped secure one of the largest corporate partnership deals in modern professional sports history, a 25-year, $60 million deal with NovaCare, a nationally recognized leader in the field of physical therapy and rehabilitation services. Under the terms of this unique agreement the team will construct, own, and operate the state-of-the-art NovaCare Complex. The Complex will house the Eagles' corporate headquarters, practice facility (including locker rooms, meeting rooms, practice fields, etc.). In addition, the Nova Care Complex also will house the new, technologically advanced NovaCare Center for Rehabilitation Excellence which will be open to the public. He also assisted Lurie in the recruitment of then Steelers' Director of College Scouting, Tom Modrak. Together, Banner and Lurie persuaded the highly-respected Modrak, who had turned down similar offers from other franchises, to leave the Steelers after 20 years in order to become the Eagles' Director of Football Operations.

Said Lurie when discussing Banner's promotion to Executive Vice President, "Joe has done an extraordinary job. In fact, Joe's shrewd cap management and creative deal structuring enabled us to be the only club to sign a top quality, free agent 'transition' player away from another team in 1995 and 1996 (Ricky Watters from the 49ers in '95 and Troy Vincent from the Dolphins in '96)....Joe's work in this area has earned him recognition around the League and in the media as one of the top cap management experts in the NFL."

That sentiment was echoed by a USA Today poll of team general managers and NFL executives which listed Banner as one of the league's most creative and innovative salary cap management experts and contract negotiators.

Added Lurie, "Joe has developed a very unique and fair approach to contract negotiations that has put this organization on new footing with agents and the players they represent. That was a key goal of mine when I purchased the club and Joe has helped see that to fruition. Again, however, Joe's role, his contributions to the organization, are much broader than just his work in the area of the cap and contract negotiations. He also has been our prime liaison to the Governor's Stadium Task Force, has played a significant role in the hiring of our front office executives, and has been invaluable in his efforts to help the Philadelphia community.... In general, Joe is one who has greatly helped shape the Eagles organization of today and one who will continue to help point us in the right direction."

After graduating from Denison University in 1975, Banner became a sports producer and reporter at Philadelphia radio station WCAU-AM 1210, and a national sports correspondent for the CBS Radio Network. After several years, he left the broadcasting industry and started his own business, Designers Clothing, Ltd. The company prospered and grew under Banner's guidance and in 1992 he sold the business.

In January, 1993, Banner began working with Lurie in the latter's quest to purchase the New England Patriots. When that transaction did not materialize, Lurie - again with the aid of Banner - successfully pursued the Eagles.

At the same time, Banner, who has a long history of community service, particularly through his devotion of time and effort to non-profit organizations, was extremely involved with groups such as Big Brothers, Children's Hospital of Boston and City Year, a youth-based organization that functions like an urban Peace Corps. City Year, in fact, is the program on which President Clinton is basing his National Service Program. Locally, Banner was instrumental in bringing City Year to Philadelphia and currently serves as co-chair of the City Year Philadelphia board.

Since returning to Philadelphia in 1994, Banner's commitment to the community has only grown. First and foremost, Banner was involved in the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership, the charitable wing of the Eagles focused on enriching the health and education of "at-risk" youth in the Philadelphia region. In 1995, Banner, a longtime advocate of public service, was appointed by President Bill Clinton to a panel of ten judges nationwide who in turn selected the 15 recipients of the prestigious President's Service Award. Today, he also serves on the board of directors of the Maxwell Football Club and the Philadelphia Convention and Visitors Bureau, and is actively involved with numerous other civic and charitable endeavors.

Banner and his wife, Helaine, reside in the Philadelphia area with their daughter, Jill (9) and their two sons, Jason (3) and Jonathan (1).

TOM MODRAK DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

On May 15, the Philadelphia Eagles named Tom Modrak as director of football operations. In that role he will oversee the team's pro and college scouting departments as well as the club's video, training, and equipment staffs.

"As an organization, we are thrilled to add someone with a track record as impressive as Tom Modrak's," said Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie. "Joe Banner and I have treated this as a crucial hiring in our effort to reach our long-term goals. We identified Tom as the best candidate - a hard worker and a great talent evaluator - and we were then able to bring him on board."

Added Eagles' head coach Ray Rhodes, "Tom has been an outstanding personnel guy and football man for a number of years. I have a great deal of respect for him. He has an impeccable track record with drafts and other football matters. Any time you can add a man like Tom to your football organization, you have to be very excited."

Modrak joins the Eagles after 20 seasons with the Steelers. He began his stint with Pittsburgh as a part-time scout in 1973 and then spent six years with the BLESTO scouting combine before joining the Steelers on a full-time basis in 1979. From 1979-86, Modrak served as the Steelers' pro talent scout before being elevated to the position of director of pro scouting for two seasons. Modrak next assumed the role of Steelers' college scouting director, a job he held for nine years until joining the Eagles this spring.

With Modrak at the helm of the Pittsburgh's college personnel department, the Steelers ranked among the league's best at mining talent from the NFL draft. Since 1989, the Steelers' drafts produced no less than eight Pro Bowl players, including the following members of the '98 AFC Pro Bowl squad: LB Levon Kirkland, DB Carnell Lake, and NT Joel Steed.

The Steelers' drafts also have produced some of the most sought after players in the era of veteran free agency. Among the players drafted and developed by the Steelers who have since moved on to other clubs were QB Neil O'Donnell (Jets), LB Chad Brown (Seahawks), CB Willie Williams (Seahawks), OT Leon Searcy (Jaguars), and WR Jeff Graham (Bears, Jets, Eagles). Graham, was recently acquired by the Eagles in a '98 draft day trade with the New York Jets.

During Modrak's 20-year stint in Pittsburgh, the Steelers reached the playoffs 11 times and joined the 49ers as the only clubs to reach postseason play in each of the last six seasons. The Steelers, who put together a string of four consecutive division titles from '94-'97, won the '95 AFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XXX vs. Dallas.

A graduate of Indiana (PA) University, Modrak received his bachelor's degree in geology in 1965. In 1972, he earned a master's degree in physical education from the University of West Virginia.

Tom and his wife, Sandy, have two grown daughters, Stephanie and Erin.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT TOM MODRAK

"I think Tom's an invaluable person to have in an organization because he's very knowledgeable in terms of both the pro and college end of player personnel. He's a tireless worker and, on top of that, a super person. The Eagles should be very pleased to have Tom come on board. We started at BLESTO together 20 years ago and this is a great thing for both he and the Eagles. Tom probably never got the credit, publicly, that he deserved in Pittsburgh but he really helped lay the foundation for the success the Steelers enjoyed in recent years."

• Jack Bushofsky, Carolina Panthers' director of player personnel

"Tom has handled all phases of scouting both on the college and professional level and has a complete knowledge of the game. He's a tremendous worker and an even better person. He's a winner. I think he's an excellent choice. He's what you'd call, 'a football guy, through and through.'"

• Jets' director of player personnel Dick Haley (served same capacity for Steelers, 1971-90)

MIMI BOX

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT-CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Mimi Box first joined the Eagles in 1983 as Business Manager. Then in July, 1986, one year after Norman Braman had purchased the Eagles from Leonard Tose, Box was promoted to Vice-President/Chief Financial Officer.

Today, Box serves as the club's Senior Vice President/CFO, having been promoted in June, 1996 by current Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie. Said Lurie at the time, "Mimi is among the top people in her field. There are none better. When I purchased the Eagles from Norman Braman in 1994, she did a fantastic job in terms of helping usher us through the transition period in as smooth and seamless a manner as possible. Since then, she has continued to be a key figure in the day-to-day operation of this team."

Proof of her ability is the fact that Box is one of the few financial officers in the NFL who has served under three ownerships.

In her role with the Eagles, Box oversees the club's daily cash management functions, budgeting, all aspects of financial reporting, and is periodically called on to assist in the structuring of player contracts involving deferred compensation issues.

Additionally, Box has served as the Eagles' game day coordinator since 1983. Responsibilities of this position include serving as the club's main liaison with the game day security contractor, the first-aid and ambulance support teams, working with the city on stadium readiness, policies, and issues of fan involvement.

Since its inception in 1995, Mimi also has served as treasurer of The Eagles Charitable Foundation, Inc. (Eagles Youth Partnership), the club's highly acclaimed non-profit, charitable wing focused on enriching the health and education of "at-risk" youth in the Philadelphia region.

Box also serves on the board of The Corporate Alliance for Drug Education ("CADE"), a not-for-profit corporation reaching out to young children while still in elementary school helping them to build the skills needed to make decisions to resist drug use.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Box, 47, worked for the Internal Revenue Service for 11 years.

SENIOR EXECUTIVES

From 1972-79, she was a special agent in the Criminal Investigation Division in the Philadelphia District Office. During this time she was selected for the position of Federal Women's Program Coordinator, an Equal Employment Opportunity advisory position. During the next three years, she served in two managerial roles in the IRS Mid-Atlantic Regional Office and the Wilmington District Office.

Born in Philadelphia (12/21/50), Box attended the Academy of Notre Dame de Namur in Villanova, Pennsylvania before enrolling at Drexel University, where she earned a business administration degree in 1972 and where she played four years of varsity basketball.

Mimi and her husband, Bob, reside in West Chester, PA, with their two children Lauren, 17, and Daniel, 14.

LEN KOMOROSKI

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING AND ADMINISTRATION

On April 15, 1996, the Eagles made a significant addition to the club's front office with the hiring of Len Komoroski as Vice President-Sales and Marketing. Fifteen months later, with the Eagles sales and marketing efforts earning national acclaim, Komoroski was elevated to his current position of Senior Vice President.

"Under Len's guidance, we have developed one of the most aggressive and visionary sales teams in all of professional sports," said Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie. "Sales and marketing is an enormously important aspect of professional sports in the '90s and the Eagles will be at the forefront where those areas are concerned. We have made no secret of the fact that we want to be as aggressive in marketing our club as our players and coaches are on the field."

"When Len came on board, he was charged with overseeing - and, basically, reinventing - our sales and marketing efforts. In the process he brought with him a level of skill and wide-ranging vision rarely seen."

"With the type of track record Len has, and with his knowledge of the marketplace, we anticipate him having a very positive effect on the Philadelphia Eagles," added Joe Banner, the Eagles' Executive Vice President. "His experience is so vast in terms of sponsorship, marketing, the leasing of luxury suites and club seats, facility development and management, and the maximization of revenue streams."

With the Eagles, Komoroski oversees all sales and marketing aspects of the organization, including corporate sales, broadcasting, Penthouse Suites, ticketing, advertising and promotions, merchandising, and event presentation, while assisting in the team's facility development and administrative efforts.

Over the past two years, Komoroski has enhanced the organization's sales and marketing capabilities by recruiting some of the top marketing executives within their areas of concentration in the sports field. During that span, he also spearheaded the creation of the Eagles Television Network, developed one of the largest local television packages in the NFL, and brought in-house other properties such as publications. In addition, the franchise has dramatically grown its event capabilities through the Allegheny University Hospital/Eagles Training Camp, and the advent of "Eagles Fridays" and the "Eagles Fan Fair in FDR Park," as well as created a merchandising division. In 1997, he was a key figure in securing a 25-year, multi-million dollar partnership with NovaCare that will lead to a new state-of-the-art corporate headquarters/practice facility for the Eagles.

Komoroski came to the Eagles from the Cleveland Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League, with whom he served as the club's Senior Vice President-Chief Operating Officer. In that role, Komoroski oversaw all business operations for the franchise, including sales and marketing and financial and administrative functions while also serving as an alternate governor for the team. He also was a minority shareholder of the club.

During his first season with the Lumberjacks, the franchise realized a 60% increase in attendance - the largest such year-to-year increase in professional hockey, as well as a 300% gain in corporate sales revenue. The over 350,000 fans who attended 1995 'Jacks games helped the club set a Cleveland pro hockey single season total attendance record, which spans 45 years of pro hockey in the market. While with the 'Jacks, Komoroski was a member of the IHL's Marketing Advisory Committee, and was also runner-up in the League's executive of the year vote.

Prior to his tenure in Cleveland, Komoroski spent six and one-half seasons with the NBA's Minnesota Timberwolves and their facility, Target Center, serving in a senior management role during the startup of both entities and later as the senior sales and marketing official for both groups. It was with considerable input and guidance from Komoroski that the Target Center became one of the first facilities in professional sports to bear a corporate name from its inception. During his tenure there, the Timberwolves set an NBA all-time attendance record with an average of 26,000 fans per game during their 1989-90 inaugural season and annually ranked among the NBA leaders in both attendance and corporate revenues.

Under his direction, the Wolves were also highly acclaimed for their broadcast, game presentation, and advertising and promotional efforts. He also oversaw the organization's efforts for the 1994 NBA All-Star Weekend at Target Center. During the last two years of his tenure there, the Target Center was tabbed as one of the top six facilities in the nation for gross revenues and event activity by Pollstar.

Komoroski also oversaw an eight-state region as a regional manager for the Miller Sports Group in 1987-88, developing and supervising Miller's relationships with the NBA, NFL, NHL, Major League Baseball, NASCAR, National Hot Rod Association, and minor league baseball properties. Prior to his stint with Miller, Komoroski was an assistant general manager of the Minnesota Strikers of the Major Indoor Soccer League from 1986-87. From 1982-86, Komoroski performed in various sales and marketing management positions with the Pittsburgh Civic Arena Corporations, the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins, and the MISL's Pittsburgh Spirits.

Komoroski serves on the board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. A graduate of Duquesne University, Len and his wife Denise have three daughters, Kristin, Kelly, and Jamie.

"There is no question that Len is among the very best in his field," said Banner. "He came to us with an extensive and highly successful background in marketing and sales, not the least of which included his work on opening the Target Center in Minneapolis and the integration of a franchise into the Gund Arena in Cleveland. We feel Len's extremely creative and imaginative style and, in particular, his wealth of experience with new facilities will help us achieve our long term goals. It's also somewhat flattering to think that, in Len, here is someone who set aside an ownership interest in a sports franchise to be a part of our vision for the future of the Eagles."

SARAH HELFMAN

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR - EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP

When Eagles owner Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, established Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP) as the team's non-profit charitable wing in 1995, they named Sarah Helfman as its Executive Director. Now in her fourth year, Helfman has already shaped and molded Eagles Youth Partnership into a powerful vehicle through which the Eagles, their players, and the program's corporate partners have made -- and will continue to make -- a meaningful difference in children's lives. Focused on enriching the health and education of youth in the Philadelphia region, EYP develops and administers programs that address hardship at its core.

"Sarah's energy, her commitment, and her drive," said Jeffrey Lurie, "have helped make Eagles Youth Partnership one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in Philadelphia and the NFL. Sarah has been with EYP since its inception. She hit the ground running and her pace has not slowed since. Her commitment to EYP extends beyond a professional level. With Sarah, EYP and its direction is an intensely personal commitment. That is why she has been, and will continue to be, such a driving force behind EYP's focus – helping improve the health and well being of Philadelphia-area youngsters."

Helfman has devoted much of her career to working with young people. She has helped develop two National Service AmeriCorps Programs, has served as Chief Clinician of a residential treatment center for adolescent males in the juvenile justice system and as the lead advocate of a Rape Crisis Center.

On the corporate end, Helfman spent three years in Europe, advising corporations, groups, and individuals on their charitable giving in England, Ireland, and Russia.

Today, in addition to her work with Eagles Youth Partnership, Helfman sits on the advisory boards of the Philadelphia Reads program and the Books Not Guns campaign.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Helfman earned her B.A. in English Literature and her master's degree in Counseling Psychology. She also holds certificates as a trainer of diversity, conflict resolution and perceptual processing. Having lived in four countries, she now is happily settled with her family in Haverford, PA.

EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP

Established in 1995 by Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP) is the charitable wing of the club. Now in its fourth year of operation, EYP has developed into one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in the Philadelphia region and the National Football League.

The Lurie's initial step was hiring Sarah Helfman as EYP's executive director to shape and mold the vision of EYP.

Focused on enriching the health and education of youth in the greater Philadelphia area, EYP develops and administers programs that address hardship at its core. The priority is health and education because children need both to develop into involved, caring and successful citizens. Why involve the players? The reason is simple: it is with wide eyes and undivided attention that children respond to Eagles players. Eagles Youth Partnership maximizes and capitalizes upon such admiration. As such, the Eagles organization and its players team with our corporate and community partners to deliver services and messages to children that positively influence their lives.

In addition to launching the highly successful Eagles Eye Mobile program and the well-received Eagles Read literacy project, EYP has made grant commitments totalling more than $750,000 to local community organizations, primarily in the area of after-school and literacy programs. The largest such grant is a $465,000 commitment to Philadelphia Reads as its founding partner.

Below is a list of some of the most important projects undertaken by Eagles Youth Partnership.

The Annual Eagles Carnival

EYP's yearly Carnival extravaganza involves all of the players and coaches in a public celebration on the field at Veterans Stadium. It includes autographs, photographs, games, prizes, auctions, entertainment, and a live radio broadcast. Proceeds fund the activities of Eagles Youth Partnership including its numerous programs and grants.

Eagles Eye Mobile

Conceived in 1996, the program was the brainchild of Helfman and Jermaine Mayberry, the Eagles' 1996 first round draft pick. While growing up in Texas, Mayberry was unable to obtain the quality eye care that could have detected, at an early age, his underdeveloped optic nerve (amblyopia). As a result of that ailment, Mayberry is legally blind in his left eye.

EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP (CONTINUED)

Now, thanks to Mayberry (who initially contributed $100,000 to help fund the project), as well as to the ophthalmologists at Wills Eye Hospital, opticians from The Optical Shop at Wills, and the people at Independence Blue Cross and Pennsylvania Blue Shield, EYP has provided free eye exams to more than 2,000 children in Philadelphia and Chester, PA. As a result of those exams, approximately 1,000 youngsters have been provided with free prescription glasses and nearly 100 have been referred for treatment of serious eye ailments.

The Eye Mobile, a 34-foot, mobile eye clinic travels to public schools in the region each weekday during the fall. In addition to providing the substantial monetary contribution, Mayberry regularly accompanies the Eye Mobile during school visits on his one day off each week.

Eagles Read

It is one thing to see your books and quite another to know how to read them. Most children who cannot read at first grade level by the end of the first grade never overcome that problem. In fact, only one out of eight ever catch up to their classmates. As such, EYP has begun the Eagles Read program, a major literacy initiative targeting first through third graders. The goal of Eagles Read, which will involve over 100,000 youngsters, is to ensure that children can read at grade level by the time they enter the fourth grade. EYP's corporate partners have joined the Eagles as "reading coaches" in public schools where "Fourth Down Reading Clubs" will match the "coaches" with public school children.

EYP also has committed $465,000 to establish Philadelphia Reads and another $50,000 to the First Book program which provides new books to children who have never owned a book.

Eagles Top Achiever Awards

EYP created the Eagles Top Achiever Awards to recognize academic excellence among area high school football players. Those athletes who perform at a high level in the classroom are named "Top Achievers." They and their families are subsequently invited to an awards reception at Veterans Stadium where Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie and a key player address and congratulate them. This past spring the honorees from Philadelphia, Chester, Allentown and Camden met personally with Eagles Pro Bowl wide receiver Irving Fryar.

Eagles Unity Playground

In April of 1997, the entire Eagles staff and over 25 veteran players joined former General Colin Powell and Vice President Al Gore during the Presidents' Summit on Volunteerism and built a playground in the Nicetown section of North Philadelphia. That day, the entire Eagles organization, including over 25 veteran players, worked side-by-side with community members in a highly successful project.

Inspired by that effort, the team undertook a similar endeavor in June of 1998, helping renovate Mifflin Square Park at 5th & Ritner Sts. in South Philadelphia. On that site was built a structure now known as Eagles Unity Playground. Toward that effort EYP donated $75,000 in order that the playground structures and safety matting could be purchased. In addition, the entire Eagles' organization shut down for the day in order to work with community members and corporate partners at the park.

After-School Programs

As of June, 1998, EYP has invested well over $300,000 in support of the creation and expansion of after-school programs for children in the Greater Philadelphia region. These programs ensure that young children have a safe and enriching place to be in the after-school hours.

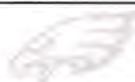

For more information about EYP, contact Sarah Helfman, executive director, 215-463-2500.

RAY RHODES

HEAD COACH

On February 2nd, 1995, Eagles owner Jeffrey Lurie named Ray Rhodes as the 19th head coach in the team's history. Eleven months and a playoff victory later, Rhodes was presented with numerous NFL coach of the year honors. By the end of the following campaign, Rhodes' Eagles had earned a second consecutive 10-6 mark and made him the only head coach in Eagles history to lead the club to the playoffs in each of his first two years at the helm.

A key factor in Rhodes' success to date is, simply put, his own expectation of success. Lurie touched upon that when he said, "Ray is not satisfied with anything that doesn't have to do with winning championships. And he brings that type of expectation and a winning attitude into the locker room. With Ray, it's all about winning championships, nothing else."

Explains Rhodes, "I just want to be remembered as a guy who came in here and won a world championship and got the job done. All the fanfare and accolades I can do without. It's not about being a black man or being egotistical. I have been winning my whole life. It hurts, it hurts badly when I lose. I dread that feeling after a loss. It burns me up inside. Failure is not an option. If you kick my butt, you kick my butt. But the next time I see you, I'm going to get you. It's not about black or white. In this league, it's about winning."

As such, Rhodes, whose ultimate goal is a Super Bowl title, was less than satisfied with the Eagles' one playoff win in 1995, saying, "Winning one game in the playoffs and then being sent home to watch the rest of the post-season on TV ... you know what that is? That's being teased. And I hate being teased. This whole game is about winning the Super Bowl. That's why what we did [in 1995] only served to whet my appetite."

After a second consecutive 10-6 regular season record in '96 was marred by a loss to San Francisco in the Wild Card round of the playoffs, Rhodes referred to his club's regular season as being "no better than if we had gone 3-13. It's all about what you do in the post-season; it's about getting that big prize ... and we didn't get there."

It is not, however, the accolades and the trappings that accompany success that fuel Rhodes' passionate drive to succeed, his obsessive need to win. In fact, in a March '96 interview with Philadelphia Inquirer columnist Bill Lyon, Rhodes said, "You know what drives me? Not money, not ego. Fear of failure. You've got to have that fear."

That fear, that sense of urgency is something ingrained in Rhodes, who grew up in the small Texas town of Mexia (pronounced Muh-HAY-uh). "Nobody gave me anything my whole life," Rhodes recalled. "I've had to scratch, claw, and fight for everything I ever got. I'm still that way and I don't want to ever lose that feeling."

It is little wonder then that Rhodes' often colorful speeches to the Eagles are liberally sprinkled with the word "fight." Said quarterback Rodney Peete, "I think Ray's favorite word is 'fight.' Whether it's dog fight, street fight, or alley fight [he just applies it to football]....Fight them for 60 minutes and there's no telling what's going to happen."

In all, however it was Lyon who best summed up Rhodes' "Super Bowl-or-bust" mentality when he wrote: "Over the years, I've heard a lot of other coaches and a lot of players offer variations on the same theme. But only a very few of them actually meant it. Ray Rhodes means it more than anyone I have ever heard.... His tone is not one of defiance or petulance. No, his tone is that of a man who not only doesn't shy away from pressure but invites it in and says: 'No, don't sit over there. Come 'round here, behind my desk. Right here, right over my shoulder.'"

Rhodes demands from his players that very same will to succeed. "I want to find out which guys are going to pay the price for us to be champions. I'm going to identify the people who are b.s.-ing and those who are not. If a player's commitment is not the same as mine, they won't be here...."

At the same time, Rhodes possesses an uncanny ability to relate to his players. That ability is part intuitive, part experience, and part learned. It is an ability culled from his experiences as an NFL player and coach, and from the classroom lectures he absorbed as a college psychology student.

Indeed, Rhodes prides himself on being able to read a player and understand how much a player can give him. "He can tell if a player has heart, or if a player has jive," said former 49er all-pro defensive back Ronnie Lott, now a football analyst for the FOX television network. "He can really look at a player and say, 'That guy can play.' Not so much because of the player's physical ability, but because of what's inside."

"All people will respond to Ray," explained former 49ers' head coach Bill Walsh, who gave Rhodes his first coaching job. "They'll appreciate his honesty, his directness, his passion, and his feel for the game.... What I liked about Ray was that he was completely committed. He demanded of himself and his men. He would have made a great general. Men respect him, because he's a no-nonsense guy who cuts right to the issue."

The 45-year old Rhodes, who served as San Francisco's defensive coordinator in 1994, joined the Eagles one week after helping coach the 49ers to that franchise's unprecedented fifth World Championship.

In 1995, the Eagles' rookie head coach battled through major roster turnover, a slew of injuries to key personnel, an early season quarterback change, and a sluggish 1-3 start to put the Eagles back on the winning track. Following that 1-3 start, Rhodes replaced quarterback Randall Cunningham with Rodney Peete, inserted rookie CB Bobby Taylor into the lineup, and rallied the Birds who rode the legs of running backs Ricky Watters and Charlie Garner to nine wins in their final twelve games. The Rhodes-led turnaround resulted in a 10-6 record, a berth in the playoffs as the NFC's top wild card team, and a record-setting 58-37 postseason defeat of the Detroit Lions at Veterans Stadium.

For all of his accomplishments and for those of the Eagles, Rhodes was named the NFL's coach of the year by the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News, Football Digest, The Maxwell Club, Visa, and NFL Films. He was also honored by the UPI, Football News, and the prestigious Kansas City 101 Club as the NFC coach of the year.

When Rhodes ended his 7-year NFL playing career with the Niners after the 1980 season, he joined Bill Walsh's 49er staff as an assistant secondary coach and went on to become one of only four men to serve on the staff of all five of the 49ers' Super Bowl winning teams (George Seifert, Bobb McKittrick, and Bill McPherson were the others).

In Rhodes' 12 seasons as a Niners assistant, the team earned postseason berths 10 times and advanced to the NFC Championship Game on seven occasions.

In 1981, his first season as an assistant, Rhodes helped the Niners win Super Bowl XVI with three rookies starting in the defensive backfield - cornerbacks Ronnie Lott and Eric Wright, and safety Carlton Williamson. As the 49ers secondary coach through 1991, he also saw those same three players plus safety Dwight Hicks reach the Pro Bowl.

Altogether, Rhodes, a former wide receiver and defensive back with the New York Giants and 49ers of the 1970s, would spend 14 years as an NFL assistant, including 12 with the 49ers. In that time, he meticulously prepared for the day he would become a head coach. It was then, with the Niners, that Rhodes learned not to simply strive for success, but to expect it.

In 1994, his final season with the 49ers, San Francisco's explosive offense received an enormous amount of attention. But it was Rhodes, who - after re-joining the Niners on February 9th of that year following a two-year stint as Green Bay's defensive coordinator - quietly orchestrated a stellar defense filled with new faces. In fact, of that unit's 11 starters, six were new to the team in '94. That reshaped unit went on to log 35 takeaways and five defensive touchdowns. San Francisco's Rhodes-led defense thoroughly shut down the potent San Diego Chargers offense in Super Bowl XXIX.

Prior to his 1994 stint with San Francisco, Rhodes spent two seasons as the Packers' defensive coordinator under fellow ex-49er assistant Mike Holmgren. In 1993, Rhodes' second year in Green Bay, the Packers defense flourished, helping lead the team to its first playoff appearance since 1982, and sending a pair of Packer defensive players to the Pro Bowl for the first time in 15 years. In all, Rhodes took a unit that had ranked 10th in the NFL in '91 and elevated it to the #2 overall ranking in just two seasons.

Born 10/20/50 in Mexia, TX, Rhodes attended that town's Dunbar High before becoming one of the first minorities to integrate Mexia High at the start of his junior year. Recalled Rhodes some 25 years later, "There was a lot of unrest going on around the country. Being one of the first, it was important to me to encourage everyone to get along. I knew there would be some hard times, but with the upbringing I had, I felt I could get along with anybody.... My parents would tell me, 'Ray, you're no better than anybody else, but nobody is better than you either.'"

As a collegian, he spent two years as a running back at Texas Christian University before transferring to the University of Tulsa, where he was converted to a wide receiver and defensive back. Selected by the New York Giants in the 10th round of the 1974 NFL draft, he played wide receiver in his first three NFL seasons, including 1975 when he led all NFC receivers with a 20.7 yards-per-catch average. Two years later, however, Rhodes was switched to defensive back by the Giants and won a starting job at cornerback. In 1979, he was sent to San Francisco as part of a four-player trade that also saw Tony Dungy, presently the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, sent from the 49ers to the Giants.

Now, 18 years later, Rhodes and Dungy are again linked, this time as the third and fourth African-American head coaches in modern NFL history, following the Raiders' Art Shell (1989-94) and Vikings' Dennis Green (1992-present). In addition, Rhodes is one of seven former San Francisco assistants now serving as an NFL head coach. The others, with years as a 49er assistant listed in parenthesis, are the Patriots' Pete Carroll (1995-96), Cincinnati's Bruce Coslet (1980), Minnesota's Green (1979, 1986-88), Green Bay's Mike Holmgren (1986-91), Denver's Mike Shanahan (1992-94), and Tennessee's Jeff Fisher (1978-79).

Rhodes and his wife Carmen reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ. They have four daughters: Detra (11/4/70), Candra (5/25/76), Tynesha (9/10/79), and Raven (5/23/85).

DANA BIBLE OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Dana Bible joined the Eagles as offensive coordinator on January 27, 1998, replacing Jon Gruden, who left the club to become head coach of the Oakland Raiders.

"Dana is a bright, young, energetic coach," said Eagles' head coach Ray Rhodes. "As I said shortly after the season, if Jon were to leave the Eagles, I wanted to make sure we kept the same philosophies of the West Coast offense and Dana is certainly a student of it. He successfully implemented his version of that system at Stanford and helped turn that program around over the past few seasons."

"The Eagles have really got themselves a fine coach," said Sam Wyche, who served as head coach for both Cincinnati and Tampa Bay before becoming a broadcaster. "He's not only a disciplined teacher and communicator, Dana is an imaginative yet sound coach with experience at every level of development. I also think he's got such a solid background in and a solid understanding of the West Coast offense that he'll add a lot to the development of what is already a good Eagles offense."

The 44-year old Bible spent the last three seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Stanford under head coach Tyrone Willingham. While with the Cardinal, Bible orchestrated one of the NCAA's most productive offenses and helped lead Stanford to consecutive bowl appearances. Under his leadership in 1995, Stanford scored 30.1 points per game, to rank first in the Pac-10, 22nd in the nation, and fourth in school history.

Bible also has been an integral part of successful offenses at NC State and San Diego State. As passing game coordinator at NC State, he engineered an explosive attack led by future NFL stars, QB Erik Kramer and WR Haywood Jeffires. During his stint at SDSU, Bible helped the Aztecs earn their first (and only) Western Athletic Conference title and an appearance in the Holiday Bowl.

Born (10/30/53) and raised in Cincinnati, Bible grew up as a fan of the legendary coach Paul Brown and his Cincinnati Bengals. Years later when he became an assistant on that very club's coaching staff, he helped the Bengals win the 1990 AFC Central Division title.

ASSISTANT COACHES

After attending Cincinnati's St. Xavier High, Bible earned a bachelor's degree in economics and an MBA from the University of Cincinnati where he played defensive back and later began his coaching career. Dana and his wife, Nancy, reside in suburban Philadelphia with their two children, Adele, 10, and Logan, 6.

JIM BOLLMAN TIGHT ENDS

Jim Bollman officially joined the Eagles staff on February 18, 1998 as tight ends coach, filling the vacancy created when Juan Castillo, who tutored the Birds' tight ends a year ago, was named offensive line coach.

The 43-year old Bollman spent the past three years as the offensive line coach at Michigan State. In 1997, Bollman produced two first-team All-America picks, tackles Flozell Adams (a 2nd round pick of the Cowboys this spring) and Scott Shaw (5th round, Dolphins). Bollman's '97 unit also allowed the fewest sacks in the Big 10 (16) and anchored an excellent ground attack that rolled up 200 yards six different times, including a record 452-yard effort vs. Penn State.

After beginning his coaching career with stints at Miami (OH), NC State, and Youngstown State, Bollman moved to the University of Virginia, where he produced offensive linemen Ray Roberts (the 10th overall pick in the '92 draft and now a starter for Detroit), and Jim Reid (a fifth round pick of the Oilers in '94).

"Jim Bollman has a diverse background having coached on both sides of the ball on the college level," said head coach Ray Rhodes. "That diversity can make us better. I've said it often, it's important for coaches to coach as many positions as possible and to know what players at other positions are responsible for, not just the guys they're coaching."

Bollman (born 12/1/54) attended Ashtabula (OH) Harbor High before becoming a standout lineman at Ohio University where he earned a bachelor of science degree in education.

Jim and his wife, Terri, reside in Philadelphia with their daughters Courtney, 17, and Stephanie, 14.

GERALD CARR

WIDE RECEIVERS

Gerald Carr, 39, joined the Eagles' staff after spending the previous 11 seasons coaching in the collegiate ranks.

In 1996, Carr's second season with the Eagles, he successfully oversaw a revamped receiving corps that included two new starters in veteran free agent acquisition Irving Fryar and second-year pro Chris T. Jones. Fryar went on to earn a trip to the Pro Bowl after setting personal career highs in TDs (11) and receptions (88, an Eagles' single-season record). Jones meanwhile became, in the words of TNT football analyst Pat Haden, "one of the emerging stars in the NFL." Last year, with Jones on the shelf for most of the season due to a knee injury, Fryar continued to put up big numbers (86-1,316-6TDs) and earned another trip to the Pro Bowl despite having three different starting quarterbacks. At the same time, Carr helped second-year pro Freddie Solomon, a former practice squad player, emerge as a big-play receiver who led the club with a 15.7-yards-per-catch average.

A native of Davidson, NC, Carr (born 6/28/59) starred at North Mecklenburg High before moving on to Southern Illinois where he played quarterback and earned a degree in administrative science. He then began his coaching career at Southern Illinois in 1981 and enjoyed stints at Davidson, Akron, Washington State, Arizona, and North Carolina before joining the Eagles.

Carr and his wife Vanessa reside in Sicklerville, NJ, with their two daughters, Ashonti and Miteya. He is a cousin of Mel Hoover, a wide receiver with the Eagles from 1982-84.

JUAN CASTILLO

OFFENSIVE LINE

Juan Castillo joined the Eagles' coaching staff on March 1, 1995, as an offensive assistant. After working closely with then-coordinator Jon Gruden and the offensive position coaches for two seasons, he was promoted to tight ends coach in '97. Under his guidance, nine-year veteran Jimmie Johnson had perhaps his most productive season and Chad Lewis, a rookie free agent, ranked second on the club in touchdown receptions behind only Irving Fryar.

Now, in 1998, Castillo begins his first season overseeing the club's offensive linemen. It was, in fact, Castillo's work as an offensive line coach at Texas A&M-Kingsville (formerly Texas A&I University), that caught the eye of new Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes in 1995. During his five seasons there, Castillo aided in the development of five Division II All-America linemen, including tackles Jermaine Mayberry, the Eagles' 1996 first round pick, and Earl Dotson, a third round pick of the Green Bay Packers in 1993. In that same span, Castillo gained valuable experience as a summer coaching intern for the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1994), Seattle Seahawks (1993), and Buffalo Bills (1992).

A former linebacker with Texas A&M-Kingsville and the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers, Castillo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater before spending 1986-89 on the staff at Kingsville (TX) High School.

The 38-year old Castillo (born 10/8/59) is a native of Port Isabel, TX. He and his wife, Zaida, reside in Moorestown, NJ, with their three sons, Gregory, John, and Andres.

JOHN HARBAUGH

SPECIAL TEAMS

On February 18, John Harbaugh joined Ray Rhodes' Eagles staff as special teams coach. A veteran of 14 seasons as an assistant coach, the 36-year old Harbaugh has a wealth of experience having served as both an offensive and defensive aide and as a special teams coach.

Harbaugh began his coaching career in 1984 at Western Michigan and three years later joined the staff at the University of Pittsburgh, serving under his uncle, head coach Mike Gottfried, a current analyst on ESPN's college football broadcasts.

The product of a football family, Harbaugh has been in and around the game his entire life. His father, Jack, is the head football coach at Western Kentucky. His younger brother, Jim, is a quarterback for the Baltimore Ravens. Other relatives in the sports spotlight include his cousin, Mark Gottfried, the head basketball coach at Alabama and his brother-in-law, Tom Crean, the associate head basketball coach at Michigan State.

Harbaugh (born 9/23/62) attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer High before earning a degree in political science from Miami (OH) where he also played defensive back.

CHUCK KNOX, JR.

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/QUALITY CONTROL

Now in his fourth season as a defensive assistant with the Eagles, Chuck Knox, Jr. works closely with coordinator Emmitt Thomas and the defensive coaches, assisting in game-planning, the studying of game tapes, and with various on-field responsibilities.

The 33-year old Knox (2/19/65) began his coaching career with the Los Angeles Rams where his father, Chuck, Sr., was head coach from 1992-94. In 1994, the younger Knox served as the Rams running backs coach and, in that role, worked closely with Pro Bowl RB Jerome Bettis.

As a junior at Orchard Park (NY) High School, Knox was a teammate of current Anaheim Angel, Dave Hollins. Knox was the club's leading rusher while Hollins was an all-league quarterback. When his father became the coach of the Seattle Seahawks the next season, Knox transferred to Bellevue (WA) High School for his senior year and earned all-state honors before going on to play at the University of Arizona.

SEAN PAYTON

QUARTERBACKS

Sean Payton joined Ray Rhodes' Eagles staff as quarterbacks coach on March 17, 1997. As such, Payton became the Birds' first full-time QB mentor since Doug Scovil served in a similar capacity with the club from 1986 until his death in December, 1989.

Under Payton's tutelage in '97, second-year QB Bobby Hoying shed his "quarterback of the future" label in favor of a "quarterback of the present" tag while starting the final six games. In the process, Hoying posted better passing numbers in his first six Eagles starts than did any other quarterback in club history, including Ron Jaworski, Randall Cunningham and Norm Snead.

After one year as a professional quarterback himself, the Naperville, IL, native sandwiched two coaching stints at San Diego State around a stop at Indiana State. It was in his second tenure at SDSU, however, that Payton served as the Aztecs' running backs coach, working closely with Heisman Trophy runner-up Marshall Faulk (Indianapolis Colts) before becoming the Aztecs' quarterback coach. In that latter role, Payton helped Tim Gutierrez earn All-WAC honors in 1993.

Payton earned a degree in communications at Eastern Illinois, where as a quarterback he threw for 10,655 yards, then seventh best on the all-time NCAA Div. I-AA list. After leading all Div. I-AA quarterbacks in passing in 1986, the three-time Associated Press All-America selection had brief stints in the Arena, Canadian, and the National Football leagues.

The 34-year old Payton (12/29/63) resides in Marlton, NJ, with his wife, Beth, and daughter, Meghan (1).

DANNY SMITH

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Now in his fourth year with the Eagles, Danny Smith will once again tutor the club's defensive backs for the second consecutive season.

Under his tutelage last year, the Birds' secondary helped the club rank 7th in the NFL in pass defense, an accomplishment made all the more impressive by the fact that the secondary lost one of the league's top young cornerbacks, Bobby Taylor, to a season-ending knee injury in game 6.

Prior to becoming the club's defensive backs coach, Smith oversaw the Birds' special teams in 1995-96. As such, it was under his watch in 1996 that Derrick Witherspoon returned two kickoffs for touchdowns and set a club record for kickoff return yards in a single season. That same year, Witherspoon etched his name in the NFL record books with 253 kickoff return yards in a game vs. Arizona, the third highest total in league history.

Smith originally joined the Philadelphia staff after spending the previous eight years as an assistant at Georgia Tech. In 1990, Smith's fourth season as an assistant with the Yellow Jackets, Bobby Ross' Tech squad went 12-0 to earn the national championship (UPI) as the nation's only undefeated major college team.

Before joining the staff at Georgia Tech, Smith coached at The Citadel, William & Mary, and Clemson.

Now 41 (11/7/56), Smith began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Edinboro (PA) State, where he received his bachelor of science degree in elementary and special education in 1977. He then spent two years at his former high school, Central Catholic, in Pittsburgh, PA, where he tutored current Miami Dolphin quarterback Dan Marino.

Smith and his wife, Elaine, reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ, with their two daughters, Erin, 18, and Courtney, 14, and son, Jason, 8.

EMMITT THOMAS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

On February 7, 1995, just four days after becoming the Eagles' head coach, Ray Rhodes named Emmitt Thomas as his defensive coordinator. In Thomas, Rhodes found a man much like himself – a Texas native and former NFL defensive back who went on to earn multiple Super Bowl rings as an assistant coach.

Born June 3, 1943, in Angleton, TX, Thomas, now 55, has brought a much more aggressive approach to the Birds' defense. In Thomas' first year at the helm, that approach enabled Philadelphia to rank second in the league in sacks (48) and third in takeaways (38). As such, the 1995 Birds' defense also ranked second in the NFL vs. the pass, allowing just 176 yards per game, and fourth overall in terms of total yards allowed (289.9 yds./game).

In '96, Thomas' defensive unit helped the Eagles to another 10-6 record and a playoff berth while ranking third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL, allowing just 285.1 yards per game.

While injuries to key starters like LBs William Thomas and Darrin Smith, and CB Bobby Taylor depleted the Eagles '97 defense, Thomas was still able to work some magic. Evidence of such was the fact that in four games against the previous three Super Bowl winners (San Francisco, Dallas, and Green Bay), the Birds' defensive unit surrendered just one TD.

Under Thomas' guidance two Eagles defenders have gone to the Pro Bowl - LB William Thomas (twice) and former DE William Fuller - while these defensive players have earned All-Rookie Team honors: CB Bobby Taylor, FS Brian Dawkins, and DT Hollis Thomas.

No stranger to Philadelphia and the NFC East when he joined the Eagles in 1995, Thomas had spent the previous 14 seasons as an assistant in the division, first with the Cardinals and then the Redskins.

After spending his first season with the Redskins tutoring wide receivers, Thomas spent the next eight years as Washington's secondary coach (the first six of those under head coach Joe Gibbs, the last two under Richie Petitbon and Norv Turner, respectively). During Thomas' tenure with the 'Skins, the team made five playoff appearances, won two NFC titles, and captured victories in Super Bowls XXII and XXVI.

Before joining the Washington staff, Thomas coached the Cardinals' receivers from 1981-85. In 1984, his pass catchers, led by Pro Bowler Roy Green, ranked first in the NFC in receptions.

A quarterback and receiver at Bishop (TX) College (1963-65), he signed with the Kansas City Chiefs as a free agent and made a successful transition to defensive back. In his 13-year playing career with the Chiefs (1966-78), Thomas played in five Pro Bowls and in Super Bowls I and IV. He twice led the NFL in interceptions and finished his career with 58 INTs, including one in KC's Super Bowl IV victory over Minnesota. In fact, Thomas holds the distinction of being the last AFL player to record an interception with his INT in the closing moments of that Super Bowl (the AFL and NFL merged the following year).

The father of two children, Derek and Debra, Thomas resides in Voorhees, NJ, with his wife, Jacqui. His son Derek is an assistant basketball coach at St. Louis University.

MIKE TRGOVAC

DEFENSIVE LINE

Thirty nine-year old Mike Trgovac (pronounced TER-guh-vak) enters his fourth season as the Birds' defensive line coach after spending the 1992-94 seasons as an assistant on Lou Holtz's staff at Notre Dame.

In Trgovac's first NFL campaign, the Birds' defensive line ranked among the league's best. In fact, the Eagles, whose 48 total sacks led the NFC and ranked 2nd in the NFL, got an NFL-best 42.5 from their defensive linemen, including 13 from William Fuller, who was subsequently voted to the Pro Bowl.

One year later, with Andy Harmon - a tackle on the verge of stardom - sidelined by a knee injury for all but two games, Trgovac's unit still ranked fifth in the NFC with 40 sacks. Last season, Trgovac helped tackle Rhett Hall emerge and lead the Birds with a career-high 8.5 sacks before a knee injury prematurely ended his campaign.

During his tenure with Notre Dame, Trgovac vastly improved the Fighting Irish's defensive line and sent three players on to the NFL. In 1994, he saw a pair of his players selected early in the NFL draft as San Francisco took tackle Bryant Young with the seventh pick in the first round and Chicago grabbed tackle Jim Flanigan in the 3rd round.

Trgovac, who began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Michigan, later served on staffs at Colorado State, Navy, and Ball State.

A 1982 graduate of Michigan with a degree in education, Trgovac was a three-year starter at middle guard for Bo Schembechler's defense. He twice earned All-Big 10 honors, was a second team All-America selection as a senior, and was a member of three Big 10 championship teams.

Today, he and his wife, Angela, reside in Marlton, NJ, with their daughter, Jordan (4).

JOE VITT

LINEBACKERS

Entering his fourth season on Ray Rhodes' Eagles staff is linebackers coach Joe Vitt. A native of nearby Blackwood, NJ, Vitt returned to the Delaware Valley four years ago with 16 seasons of NFL experience under his belt.

In 1995, his first season with the Eagles, Vitt guided linebacker William Thomas to his first Pro Bowl berth and also was instrumental in helping the Eagles' defense rank 4th in the NFL in total yards allowed and 2nd in the entire league in pass defense.

Now 43, Vitt broke into the NFL as the weight training coordinator for the Baltimore Colts before joining the Seattle Seahawks in a similar capacity three years later. When Chuck Knox, Sr. was made the Seahawks' head coach in '83, however, he named Vitt the club's special assignments coach. Vitt subsequently became Seattle's secondary coach for the next eight seasons and followed Knox to the then LA Rams as that club's assistant head coach in '92.

TED WILLIAMS RUNNING BACKS

Ted Williams begins his fourth season with the Eagles and his second in the role of running backs coach. Williams' first two years with the Birds were spent overseeing the club's tight ends.

Under Williams' tutelage in '97, RB Charlie Garner had his most productive season, Ricky Watters put together his third straight 1,000-yard rushing year, and Kevin Turner proved to be one of the NFL's best all-around fullbacks. Those same three players combined to make 120 catches for 1,108 yards and 3 TDs.

Prior to joining Ray Rhodes' Eagles staff, Williams coached at the University of Arizona, Washington State, and on Terry Donahue's UCLA staff, where he developed All-America linebackers Ken Norton, Jr., and Carnell Lake, and a number of heralded running backs as well.

A basketball and baseball star himself at Centennial High in Compton, Williams earned a place in the Cal Poly Pomona University baseball Hall of Fame. A 1966 graduate of CPP with a degree in biological sciences and physical education, Williams went on to earn a Master's degree, a second undergraduate degree in zoological science, and his teaching-administration credentials from Cal State L.A. in 1968.

After serving more than a decade as a coach, teacher, and athletic director at Compton (CA) High, Williams was named head coach at L.A. City College in 1980 but a short time later joined the UCLA staff.

Born in Lyons, TX, (11/17/43) the 54-year old Williams and his wife, Theresa, have three sons, Darryl (28), Donald (11), and Daniel (2), and a daughter, Terri (26).

ASSISTANT COACHES

MIKE WOLF

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Mike Wolf, 33, joined Ray Rhodes' staff as the Eagles' strength and conditioning coordinator in 1995 after spending the previous three seasons as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Minnesota Vikings.

Wolf began his career as a strength coach at Vanderbilt before moving on to Lehigh University and Penn State.

A native of Allentown, PA, (5/15/65) Wolf was an all-state center at William Allen High before playing for the Nittany Lions. Wolf earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from Penn State and a master's degree in health promotion and exercise science from Vanderbilt. His brother, Joe, a standout offensive lineman for Boston College, spent the past nine seasons as a player with the Arizona Cardinals.

Mike and his wife, Jennifer, have a son, Jackson (3) and a daughter, Michaela (1). They reside in Medford, NJ.

KEN ZAMPESE

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

On March 1, Ken Zampese became one of four new assistants to join Ray Rhodes' Eagles staff this year. With the Birds, Zampese will work with new offensive coordinator, Dana Bible, and the offensive coaches on game-planning, the studying of game tapes of the Eagles and their opponents, and with various on-field responsibilities.

Zampese joins the Eagles after nine seasons as a collegiate coach. A former wide receiver and special teams star at the University of San Diego, he began coaching for his alma mater upon graduating in 1989. With his father, Ernie, having coached football in the collegiate and professional ranks for the past 35 years, Ken is no stranger to the game. Now the offensive coordinator for the New England Patriots, Ernie spent the last 22 years as an NFL assistant and, as offensive coordinator of the Cowboys, helped Dallas win Super Bowl XXX.

The younger Zampese (born 7/19/67) attended the University of San Diego HS. He then went on to earn a degree in business at USD and a Master's degree in adult education at USC. Ken and his wife, Christine, reside in Marlton, NJ, with their children Marina Kathleen, 2, and Anthony Ernest, 1.

BARON BAPTISTE

PEAK PERFORMANCE SPECIALIST

Baron Baptiste was named to the position of peak performance specialist by Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie on April 26, 1995.

In this position, Baptiste, one of the leading specialists in dynamic stretching and injury prevention, oversees the team's stretching regimen and nutritional intake.

The son of Walt Baptiste, a former Mr. America and Mr. Universe, Baron has taught classes on high performance nutrition and peak training specialties. A native of Beverly Hills, CA, Baptiste has designed a "power stretching conditioning workout" - a rigorous, super flexibility and strength-building series of poses designed to transform and increase joint mobility, agility, muscle flexibility, coordination and mental focus.

Baron has worked with entertainers like Raquel Welch, Ali McGraw, Helen Hunt, and athletes such as John McEnroe and Kareem Abdul Jabbar.

He and his wife, D'Ana, reside in Gladwyne, PA, with their two sons, Luke (5), and Jacob (3).

HAROLD CARMICHAEL

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER AND COMMUNITY RELATIONS

On April 28, 1998, the Eagles announced that, Harold Carmichael, the greatest receiver in club history, was rejoining the organization as director of player and community relations. In this role, Carmichael will coordinate all player programs, including financial education, family assistance, career internships, and continuing education, all in an effort to help players succeed when their football careers have concluded. The 48-year old Carmichael also will serve as a direct link to the community and alumni on behalf of the Eagles' organization.

Said Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie, "Players come here, just like Harold did many years ago, from other parts of the country - from small schools, rural and urban areas, very different environments. We will benefit from having Harold devote 100% of his time to easing the transition for players, allowing them to understand what they are facing, and trying to solve whatever problems they may have. He will find ways for them to be integrated into the community and into the team alongside their teammates. It's absolutely crucial in today's sports environment, where you have free agency and a lot of transiency, to devote as much attention and effort as you can to the players while they are with the organization. Hopefully we can encourage both a long-term relationship with these players and, at the same time, enhance their life after football.

"There have been a lot of people in our organization involved in this effort without having any one person, in-house, devoted solely to this area. To really do this right we need to have someone like Harold in place, in-house, every day of the year. Harold has been a role model both on and off the field throughout his life."

The 6-foot, 8-inch Carmichael was not only one of the tallest receivers ever to play the game, he was one of the best in NFL history. The Birds' seventh round pick out of Southern University in 1971, Carmichael played 13 seasons with the Eagles before finishing his career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1984. Upon retirement, he ranked sixth on the NFL's all-time reception list with 590 catches, including 589 as an Eagle, the most in team history. Today he also remains the Birds' career receiving leader in terms of yards (8,978) and touchdowns (79).

"The main focus of Harold's job is going to be his relationship with the team and the players," said Joe Banner, the Eagles' executive vice president. "Where it relates to the player programs that the league and individual clubs have put in place, Harold will be responsible for implementing those things here. We want the players to realize that the organization cares about them overall, that's it's not just about what goes on on the field. He also will work with people in the Philadelphia area to see how the organization can better serve the community with help from the front office, the coaches, and the players."

During his tenure with the Eagles, Carmichael led the club in receptions eight times. His outstanding play earned him trips to the Pro Bowl following the '74, '79, '80, and '81 seasons. Moreover, he was a key figure on the Eagles' 1980 squad that defeated Dallas in the NFC Championship Game and earned a berth in Super Bowl XV vs. the Raiders.

"In terms of working with the players," said Carmichael, "it's going to be important for me to instill in them the pride that comes with representing this franchise. It'll be important to make sure that we help these players in every way possible so that when they come through these doors, they'll do so with a winning attitude and they'll be ready to focus on doing whatever it takes to win. I'll be out there on the field observing them and working with them, all in an effort to see that they're focused and possessing that winning attitude."

Carmichael (9/22/49), a native of Jacksonville, FL, resides in Glassboro, NJ, with his wife, Beatrice, and their son Lee (19).

JOHN GOELLER DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

On May 26, 1998, John Goeller was named the Eagles director of college scouting. The 43-year old Goeller (pronounced GOAL-er) will schedule scouting visits, coordinate various organizational scouting meetings, evaluate the top collegiate players, and play an instrumental role in the development of the draft.

"John is a key signing to our college scouting department," said Eagles director of football operations Tom Modrak. "He's a hard worker who loves the game of football and he'll bring that kind of enthusiasm here. He always seemed to be working to get as much information as possible during his visits. I've seen the degree of effort he puts into his work and, with that, I knew he'd be a guy I'd want working with the Eagles."

Goeller joins the Birds after spending the past 13 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts as an area scout. He began his scouting career in 1983, working for a nationwide scouting service, BLESTO, before joining the Colts two years later.

Prior to beginning his scouting career, Goeller worked for eight years as a coach on the high school and collegiate levels. He served as an assistant coach at Austin Peay from 1976-78, a graduate assistant at Florida State (1978), and as a head coach at Monroe (NC) HS (1979-83).

A three-year starter as a defensive end at North Carolina State, Goeller earned defensive MVP honors following the Wolfpack's 1973 Liberty Bowl victory over Kansas. He earned a master's degree in administration and supervision from Austin Peay in 1978.

A native of Pittsburgh, PA, John and his wife, Caryl Schratz, have one son, Jon Micah.

MIKE McCARTNEY

PRO PERSONNEL COORDINATOR

Mike McCartney was named pro personnel coordinator by the Eagles on June 3, 1998. In this capacity, the 33-year old McCartney will be responsible for evaluating talent on the professional level. As such, McCartney will play a big role in the club's player acquisitions through free agency and the waiver system.

"Mike's a very knowledgeable and hard-working guy who will add a lot to our pro scouting department," said Eagles' director of football operations Tom Modrak. "He has thorough knowledge of the league and is well versed in the evaluation of players and in the organization of information."

McCartney joins the Birds after having served the past six years as a pro scout for the Chicago Bears. While with the Bears, he did advance-scouting of the Bears' upcoming opponents, assisted in evaluating pro and college players, maintained computer databases for the player personnel department, and organized off-season coaching clinics.

Prior to his stint in Chicago, McCartney was a quarterback coach at North Carolina for two seasons while earning a degree in sports administration. He received his undergraduate degree at Colorado, where he also worked as an assistant recruiting director and quarterbacks coach (1989). His father, Bill, was the head coach at Colorado from 1982-94.

Mike and his wife, Jenni, have two sons, Nickolas (2), and Justin (1). He was born on 9/8/64 in Joplin, MO.

DAVE BOLLER

COLLEGE SCOUT

Dave Boller joined the Eagles' player personnel department this spring after serving with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college scout since 1995.

The 36-year old Boller originally joined the Bucs after spending 10 years in various capacities at Arizona State. From 1988-95 he served as the Sun Devils' administrative assistant for football operations. In that capacity, Boller worked with ASU head coach Bruce Snyder in the day-to-day operations of the football program as well as assisting in recruiting and team travel and with the coordination of ASU's football camps. From 1985-87, he was ASU's assistant equipment manager. Prior to his stint at ASU, Boller worked in an administrative capacity for the USFL's Arizona Outlaws.

As a student, Boller attended Arizona State and was the head manager for the football team. A native of Davenport, IA, he was raised in Plymouth, IN.

Dave and his wife, Jill, reside in Cicero, IN.

JAKE HALLUM COLLEGE SCOUT

After serving as a regional scout for National Football Scouting from 1992-94, Hallum became a member of the Eagles' player personnel department in June, 1995. In this role, he serves as the club's Southeast regional scout.

Prior to joining National, with whom he scouted the states of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Mississippi, Hallum, now 59, had been a coach on the college level for 24 years. After serving as head coach at Morehead State (KY) from 1968-71, he went on to Maryland and served as the Terrapins' offensive line coach from 1972-81. He then served as an assistant at Kentucky (1982-89) before spending 1990-91 at Arizona State as an offensive line/tight ends coach.

Born 11/2/38 in Liberty, SC, Hallum played guard and linebacker at Newberry (SC) College (1957-60) and later earned his master's degree from Murray State in 1965. He first coached high school football at his alma mater, Pickens (SC) High (1960-62), before making stops at Hopkinsville (KY) HS (1962-66) and Paul Blazer HS in Ashland, KY (1966-67).

Jake and his wife, Mable reside in Cypress, TX. They have two children, Todd (33) and Bart (29).

MARC ROSS COLLEGE SCOUT

Now in his second year as a member of the Eagles' player personnel staff, Ross serves as one of the club's college scouts.

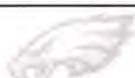

After a standout playing career at Princeton where he was an All-Ivy League wide receiver in both 1993 and 1994, Ross began his professional career working as a training camp intern in the New York Giants' public relations department in 1995. He then became an administrative intern with the athletic department at Columbia University, and then with the player personnel department of the Eagles during the club's 1996 training camp.

The 25-year old Ross graduated with a B.A. in sociology from Princeton in 1995. This past May he earned a master's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. While a student at Princeton, Ross served as a mentor to inner-city and learning disabled children in nearby Trenton. He also worked as a sideline reporter for Princeton football games on a local cable network in 1995.

Ross is single and resides in Sharon Hill, PA.

DAN SHONKA COLLEGE SCOUT

Dan Shonka is in his fifth year with the Eagles after joining the club as a regional college scout in 1994. The 45-year-old (9/19/52) native of Cedar Rapids, IA, first came to the Eagles with a wide range of football experience, having spent 1987-93 as an area scout for National Football Scouting, a service to which 9 NFL teams, including the Eagles, subscribe. He also spent a year covering the midwest region for the USFL's Philadelphia Stars (1983).

Shonka's coaching resume includes stints as a highly successful head coach at New Mexico Highlands (1984-86), Independence (KS) Community College (1981-82), and Highland (KS) Community College (1980). The University of Iowa grad helped turn around the football program at all three of those schools, each of whom had experienced a 1-8 campaign the year before his arrival. In fact, his New Mexico Highlands squads set over 50 team, conference, and NAIA records. Prior to that, Shonka was an assistant at Kansas (1979), Purdue (1977-78), Rice (1976), and Iowa State (1973-76).

Dan and his wife, Peggy, are co-publishers of College Football Preview, an annual national sports magazine focusing on small college football. Shonka is also a charter member of the National Selection Committee of the Gagliardi Trophy which is awarded annually to Division III's outstanding football player.

Shonka has also been active in Homeless Children's Trust, Fibrodysplasia Ossificans Progressiva Foundation, Salvation Army, Red Cross, YMCA, Cedar Valley Humane Society, Theatre Cedar Rapids, Greyhound Hall of Fame, and Greyhound Adoption of Iowa.

Dan and Peggy reside in Cedar Rapids, IA, with their children, Sarah (13) and Teddy (9).

BOBBY DEPAUL PRO SCOUT

Although he is entering just his second season with the Eagles' player personnel department, the 35-year old DePaul is no stranger to the NFL after serving the previous eight seasons as an assistant coach in the league.

Prior to joining the Eagles, DePaul was an assistant coach for the Cincinnati Bengals, serving as a defensive assistant in 1994, defensive line coach in 1995, and as a staff assistant in 1996. In his one season tutoring the club's defensive linemen, DE John Copeland notched 9 sacks and DT Dan Wilkinson registered 8.

DePaul also spent the 1989-93 seasons with the Washington Redskins as a member of Joe Gibbs' coaching staff and earned an NFL championship ring when the 'Skins defeated Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVI.

DePaul played four seasons (1981-84) as a linebacker at Maryland before a knee injury during his senior season ended his career. He then spent the '85 campaign as an undergraduate assistant coach under Bobby Ross, who currently serves as the head coach of the NFL's Detroit Lions. As a player at Maryland, DePaul helped the Terps capture three ACC championships.

Born 1/24/63 in Bowie, MD, DePaul attended John Carroll HS in Washington, D.C., where he played fullback and linebacker on a team that lost only once during his three-year varsity career.

Bobby and his wife, Lisa, have two daughters, Ariel (4) and Ashley (2).

JAMES COLLINS, ATC HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

James Collins enters his third season as the Eagles' head trainer. The 41-year old Collins joined the Eagles in 1996 after having spent five years as an assistant trainer with the Denver Broncos and the summer of '95 with the World League's London Monarchs as head athletic trainer.

After receiving his degree in physical education from San Diego State in 1986, Collins first gained NFL experience with the San Diego Chargers, with whom he started as an athletic training intern during the 1986 season. In 1987, Collins was then promoted to assistant trainer, a position he held until 1989.

During his tenure with the Chargers, Collins also served as an orthopedic technician and surgical assistant for three years with OASIS Medical Group, a sports medicine clinic in San Diego. While at that facility, Collins worked under the guidance of Dr. Gary Losse, the team physician with the Chargers.

MEDICAL STAFF

From 1980-82, Collins was an aviation physiology technician in the U.S. Navy. Prior to joining the Navy, he attended Morris Brown College in Atlanta, where he played basketball.

Collins is a member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association. He also serves on the NFL injury and safety panel. During his tenure in Denver, Collins was a member of the AFC squad's training staff for the 1992 Pro Bowl.

A native of Lothian, MD, Collins resides in Mt. Laurel, NJ, with his wife Patricia and their son, James T. III. His interests include basketball, running, and lifting weights.

SCOTTIE PATTON, ATC ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

A veteran of five NFL seasons as a member of the San Francisco 49ers' athletic training staff, Patton now begins his third campaign in Philadelphia as an assistant athletic trainer. During his stint with San Francisco, the 49ers defeated the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX and Patton twice served as an athletic trainer for the NFC squad at the Pro Bowl.

Patton earned his B.S. degree in Sports Medicine/Exercise Science from Appalachian State in 1990. After enrolling in graduate school at the University of South Carolina, Patton completed his M.A. in Sports Medicine at San Jose State in 1996. A certified athletic trainer, he is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

Patton also has experience as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at South Carolina (1990-91), as a student athletic trainer at Appalachian State (1986-90), and as a summer training camp and assistant athletic trainer with the Niners in 1988 and '89.

Born 8/10/68 in Gastonia, NC, Patton now resides in Sicklerville, NJ, with his wife, Lisa, their son Cameron (8), and their daughter Alexis (2). This past offseason, Patton founded The Patton Football/Athletic Training Clinic in Gastonia, a non-profit venture that provides instruction in the basics of athletic training.

SCOTT TRULOCK, ATC ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Scott Trulock enters his third year as an Eagles' assistant athletic trainer. The Orlando, FL, native joined the Birds from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he completed his M.A. in Athletic Training, while also serving as a graduate athletic assistant trainer. Trulock, who earned a B.S. in Sports Medicine from Valdosta (GA) State University in 1994 also gained valuable experience working as a summer intern for the Denver Broncos from 1993-95. During those stints with the Broncos, he worked closely with current Eagles' head athletic trainer James Collins, who was then an assistant with Denver.

As a certified athletic trainer, Trulock is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

The 26-year old Trulock is single and resides in Brookhaven, PA.

PRO CAREER

After only four seasons in the NFL, Boniol has proven himself to be one of the most accurate and consistent kickers in the league. In those four seasons, the Louisiana Tech product has made 83.1% of his field goal attempts (103 of 124) and authored streaks of 26 and 28 straight field goals ... over that same span, Boniol earned a reputation as one of the NFL's best big-game kickers, making 13 of his 15 postseason FG tries, including his last nine in a row ... enters 1998 looking to extend two streaks – one that has seen him score in all of his 64 regular season games as a pro, and another that has seen him make his last 61 FG atts. from 35 yds.-and-under ... originally began his career with the Cowboys in 1994 when he became the sixth Dallas kicker since 1989 ... went on to become the first player to kick for the Cowboys for three straight years since Rafael Septien (1978-86) ... officially became an Eagle on March 14, 1997, when Dallas opted not to match the Birds' offer sheet signed by the restricted free agent kicker seven days earlier. As such, Boniol became the league's first 1997 restricted free agent to ink a pact with a new club and the second "restricted" player to join the Birds in the first three years of free agency (Kevin Turner from New England in 1995 was the other) ...

1997: Ranked seventh in the NFC in scoring with 99 points and tied for eighth in FGs made (22) ... had big efforts in consecutive wins over the Steelers and Bengals – was a perfect 3-3 on FGs and 2-2 on PATs vs. Pit.; scored 14 points vs. Cin. including the game-winning, 31-yard FG as time expired giving the Eagles a 44-42 victory ... at Atl., knotted the game at

17-17 on a 39-yard FG with 1:55 remaining ... his streak of 28 consecutive FGs (3 shy of Fuad Reveiz's NFL mark of 31) halted in game 2 vs. GB when he missed a 48-yd. try ... returned to Dallas in week 3 to face his ex-Cowboy teammates in a Monday Night Football game and was ready to boot a game-winning 21-yard FG with :04 remaining. A bobbled hold, however, resulted in no kick and the Cowboys escaped with a 21-20 win ... did not kickoff at Min. or at Arz. when kickoff specialist Lonny Calicchio handled that duty ... 1996: In his third pro season and his final campaign with the Cowboys, made 32 of 36 FG atts., including a 7-7 effort vs. Green Bay on 11/18 that tied an NFL record for most FGs in a game. He also drilled his last 27 regular-season FG atts. (the third longest such streak in NFL history) ... ranked 3rd in the NFC/tied for fifth in the NFL in kick-scoring with 120 points and became the first player in Cowboys history to record three consecutive 100-point seasons ... with an 88.9% success rate on FGs, tied for 1st in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL while posting the second highest single-season mark in Cowboys history, second only to the 96.4% rate he recorded in 1995 ... also set a Dallas record by making 32 FGs ... was named the NFC special teams player of the month in November when he hit all 13 of his FG atts., including his 7-7 effort vs. GB and a game-winner in overtime that beat San Francisco ... the 4 FGs he missed on the year were from an average of 44.0 yards out, including one that was blocked, one that hit the upright and one that bounced off the crossbar ... after closing the '95 season with 25 straight FGs, made his first att. of the year before missing a 43-yd. try ... made a career-long 52-yd. FG vs. Indy (9/15) when he also had a 57-ydr. hit the crossbar on the final play ... had a FG att. at Buf. (9/22) blocked by Bruce Smith ... at SF (11/10) he twice tied the game in the 4th qtr. (once with a FG, then with a PAT) before kicking a 29-yd. game-winning FG in overtime ... on 11/18 vs. GB tied NFL records for most FGs made in a game (7) and in one half (5). His seven FG atts. were from 45, 37, 42, 45, 35, 39 and 28 yards out (38.7 avg.). His success on all 7 tries enabled Boniol to tie the mark set by Jim Bakken (STL, 9/24/67) and Rich Karlis (Min., 11/5/89) while his average attempt was longer than either's. The 21 points were a career-high and accounted for all of the Cowboys' scoring. Boniol's effort in the first half of that game also tied the NFL mark of 5 FGs in a half (Tom Dempsey – Phil., 1972; Karlis and Bakken) ... went on to set a Dal. single-game postseason record with 4 FGs vs. Minn. (12/28) ... one week later in a Divisional Playoff at Car. (1/5/97), hit all 3 of his FG tries to push his postseason consecutive FG streak to nine ... finished his three-year Cowboys career ranked sixth in team history with 361 career points, third among kickers behind Rafael Septien (874) and Mike Clark (386) ... also left Dallas as that club's postseason record holder for FG percentage (86.7%) ... 1995: There was no sophomore slump for Boniol as he established the second highest field goal percentage in NFL history and a Cowboys record by hitting 27 of 28 FGs for a 96.43% success rate (Tony Zendejas holds the league record at 100.0%) ... earned 2nd-team All-NFC honors after connecting on 25 straight FGs at one point ... in addition, racked up 127 points to rank 2nd in the NFC/4th in the NFL while establishing a Cowboys' record for scoring by a kicker ... drilled a game-winning FG as time expired vs. NYG (12/17) when, having already hit 4 FGs on the day, he booted a 35-ydr. on the final play for a 21-20 win. That kick and his then-career-high figures of 5 FGs and 15 points earned him NFC special teams player of the week honors ... opened the postseason by connecting on what was then a career-long, 51-yard FG against Phila. (the longest postseason FG in Cowboys history) and added 5 PATs against GB (1/14/96) in the NFC Championship Game ... Boniol opened the scoring in the Cowboys' 27-17 Super Bowl XXX win over Pittsburgh (1/28/96) with a 42-yard FG on Dallas' first drive, and finished the day with nine points ... experienced two unwanted firsts at Minn. (9/17) when he missed both a PAT and a FG att. -- the missed PAT was the first of his career after making 57 straight; the missed FG (a 20-yd. att.) was his only misfire on a FG all year ... relieved injured punter John Jett (back spasms) vs. KC (11/23) on Thanksgiving Day and went 2-38.5-2In20 in that role ... 1994: An undrafted rookie free agent, Boniol joined the defending Super Bowl champion Cowboys and replaced veteran Eddie Murray who had jumped to the Eagles via free agency ... in his first NFL game, the opener at Pit. (9/4), hit a season-high 4 FGs and 2 PATs in a 26-9 win ... went on to make his first nine FG atts. and finished sixth in the NFC in field goal percentage at 75.8% (22-of-29) ... on 10/30 at Cin., Boniol was called upon to hit his first game-winning FG and drilled a 38-yd ... with 5:00 left for a 23-20 win ... for the season, amassed 114 points to rank third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL in scoring among kickers ... opened his first postseason campaign by hitting 5 PATs in Dallas' 35-9 win over GB (1/8/95).

COLLEGE

The holder of virtually every kicking record at Louisiana Tech, Boniol ended his career third on the school's all-time scoring list with 255 points ... led the team in scoring three of his four years at Tech and was 50-of-81 on field goals (.617), including five from over 50 yards ... as a senior, led the team in scoring with 57 points and provided the only scoring in three of 11 games ... during his four years at Louisiana Tech, won or tied five games in the final seconds ... hit a career-long 55-yd FG in his second collegiate game.

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Christine, reside in both suburban Philadelphia and Alexandria, LA ... this fall the couple will co-host a celebrity-filled fundraiser benefitting Cystic Fibrosis ... started a kicking camp in his hometown during the '98 spring that he intends to hold annually ... hit 10 of 18 career field goals and 113-121 extra points at Alexandria High ... as a senior, nailed 34 of 35 PATs and a 47-yard FG while averaging 41.8 yards per punt ... his father, Don, coached the state baseball champions with Chris as the catcher ... majored in civil engineering ... owns a license to pilot single-engine aircraft after catching the flying bug in the fall of '94.

PRO CAREER

In his first three pro campaigns, the talented Brooks has proven to be a battler who can overcome obstacles ... prior to each of his first two seasons, entered training camp ranked second on the depth chart - both times, however, he emerged as the starting left tackle on opening day ... in the process, Brooks became the first Eagle to start at left tackle in consecutive seasons since Matt Darwin did so in 1989-90 ... overall, this Kansas State product has started 45 of 48 regular season games and all three of the Birds' playoff contests since being a second-round pick in '95 ... enters '98 having played in 48 straight regular season games for the Eagles - tied for the longest current streak on the club with Tom Hutton and Jimmie Johnson ... 1997: Started the preseason opener at left tackle before giving way to Jermaine Mayberry ... went on, however, to become the starter at right tackle in week two after Troy Drake struggled in place of the injured incumbent, Richard Cooper (on IR with torn tricep) ... remained the #1 RT for the rest of the season but missed a start in the season finale at Wash. due to a sore right ankle ... overall played in all 16 games, starting 14 ... 1996: Fought off challenges from veteran newcomer Steve Wallace and rookie 1st round pick Jermaine Mayberry to retain the #1 LT role he owned in '95 ... actually began the pre-season as the #2 LT behind Wallace, a former starter on two of the 49ers' Super Bowl title clubs ... moved over to RT and started the third preseason game at NE in that spot when a knee injury sidelined Richard Cooper ... but when Wallace's preseason struggles led to his release after that third preseason game, Brooks returned to the starting LT spot ... went on to open the first 14 games at LT until giving way to Mayberry for game 15 at NYJ. Brooks, however, spelled Mayberry in the 2nd half and helped the Birds on two late TD drives in a comeback win ... returned to the starting lineup vs. Arz. and held DE Simeon Rice, the NFC defensive rookie of the year, without a sack ... 1995: Started all 16 games and both playoff contests as a rookie ... originally moved into the #1 LT spot on 7/24, when incumbent starter Bernard Williams was suspended by the NFL for games 1-6 due to a violation of the league's substance abuse policy ... held the Rams' Sean Gilbert at bay in game 8 and, a week later at Dal., limited all-pro Charles Haley to one sack ... continued his solid play vs. Den.'s Simon Fletcher (0 tackles) and NYG's Michael Strahan (0 sacks).

VETERANS

COLLEGE

A mainstay of a Kansas State offense that led the Big Eight Conference in passing offense in '94, Brooks started his last 33 games at left tackle for the Wildcats ... his blocking paved the way for the outstanding careers of honorable mention All-America QB Chad May (a 4th round selection by Minnesota in '95) and RB J.J. Smith, the school's all-time leading rusher ... earned first-team all-conference status from Football News.

PRO CAREER

A very solid, dependable tackle, Cooper was acquired by the Eagles as an unrestricted veteran free agent from the New Orleans Saints on 2/29/96 ... went on to start every game at right tackle in his first year as an Eagle but was shelved for the entire '97 campaign ... from 1991-95, Cooper helped lead a Saints unit that allowed fewer sacks (126) than any NFL team ... originally entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with the Seattle Seahawks in 1988 but was released during the preseason ... was then signed by NO as a free agent in 1989 and spent that season on the Saints' practice squad while making the difficult switch from the defensive line, where he played as a collegian at Tennessee, to left tackle ... subsequently made the transition from LT to RT in 1994, helping the Saints accommodate young Pro Bowl tackle William Roaf who was more comfortable on the left side ... helped the Saints reach the playoffs in each of his first three seasons in New Orleans ... 1997: Started at right tackle in the preseason opener despite having been slowed in practice by an injured knee ... one week later, however, suffered a torn left triceps in pre-game warmups at Pitt. on 8/11 ... had surgery performed by Dr. Arthur Bartolozzi on 8/13 and was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 8/19 ... remained in Philadelphia attending team meetings and practices all season ... 1996: After joining the Eagles in the spring as a veteran free agent, Cooper was slowed early on by knee and ankle injuries but still managed to start every game at right tackle ... once healthy, provided solid run and pass blocking for an Eagles' offense that would finish the year ranked 1st in the NFC in terms of average yards per game ... also helped RB Ricky Watters earn his second straight 1,000-yd. rushing season and his second consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl ... Cooper's return to health coincided with a strong stretch by the Birds' offensive line which allowed just 4 sacks in games 6-9 ... in that game 9 win at Dal., Cooper helped Watters rush for 116 yards as the O-line also held Dallas without a sack ... 1995: In his final season with New Orleans, continued to be a workhorse on the offensive line, manning the #1 right tackle spot in his second full season at that position ... was inactive for games 8-9 at SF and vs. StL after suffering an elbow injury that required surgery on 11/1 ... 1994: Started the first 14 games at his new RT spot after moving over from LT ... sustained a dislocated elbow in the first quarter at Atl. in game 9 and was inactive the following week vs. Dal., snapping a string of 49 consecutive starts ... was placed on the Injured Reserve list prior to the season finale at Den. due to elbow injury ... 1993: Started all 16 games at LT and did not miss an offensive snap ... was awarded a game ball for his efforts in a 14-3 win vs. Det. (9/19) ... 1992: Claimed the #1 left tackle spot in training camp and never relinquished that role as he started all 16 contests ... was a vital cog in an offensive line that yielded an NFL-low 15 sacks ... 1991: Stepped in and started 11 games on the OL ... subbed for an injured Kevin Haverdink in each of the first four games before moving into the starting role for game 5 at Atl. (9/29) ... was bothered by nagging injuries during the latter portion of the season ... did, however, go on to start the NFC Wild Card game vs. Atl. at LT ... 1990: Made tremendous strides in his first full season as an offensive lineman (had spent the previous year on the Saints' practice squad, learning to play offense after spending his entire career as a defensive lineman) ... saw brief action at LT vs. Det. ... started at Rams (12/9).

PRO CAREER

Now enjoying what he refers to as the "second chance" portion of his career, Crafts originally was an 11th round draft choice of the Indianapolis Colts in '91 ... after not making the Colts' roster that year Crafts moved on to the Bills in '92 and went on to play in 38 games for Buffalo (1992-94), including Super Bowl XXVIII ... subsequently attended the Packers' '95 camp but it was that summer when reality struck hard - was released by Packers coach Mike Holmgren who told Crafts, "You don't have a football problem, you have a life problem" ... it was then, after 13 years of abusing drugs and alcohol, that Crafts took control of his life ... said Crafts in '97 about his second chance at the NFL, "Staying clean and sober is a full-time job for me now...It's kind of like a freedom I've never known before. In a way it's tougher because I really care about what I'm doing and how I'm playing and how I look to the coaches. Before, I just went out and did what I did." ... 1997: Joined the Eagles as a free agent on 7/8 and played in 15 games ... was inactive for the opener but went on to start the final six contests at right guard when a right foot injury ended Ian Beckles' season after 10 games ... moved into the #1 RG slot at Balt. on 11/16 (as such, made his first NFL start since 12/4/95 when he started at LG for the Bills at Miami) ... prior to game 11, saw his most extensive action vs. SF, alternating series at right tackle with Barrett Brooks ... also saw RT action at Dal. when Brooks was slowed by leg cramps ... played on FG and PAT units ... 1996: Played his second season for the Amsterdam Admirals of the World League ... 1995: Spent pre-season with Green Bay but was released before the regular season ... earlier in the calendar year played for Amsterdam ... 1994: In his 3rd and final season with the NFL's Bills, played in all 16 games including 7 starts (5 at right tackle, 2 at left guard) ... 1993: Played in all 16 games as a backup at OG and OT positions ... was used mostly in short-yardage situations and kicking teams ... saw action in 3 playoff games including Super Bowl XXVIII vs. Dallas (30-13 loss) ... 1992: Signed with the Buffalo Bills as a free agent on 6/22 ... played as a backup in the first 6 games before being placed on injured reserve (10/26) for the rest of the season due to a knee injury ... 1991: Was drafted by the Colts in the 11th round but was released on 8/16.

57

PRO CAREER

A rookie second round draft pick (the 57th selection overall), Darling battled incumbent middle linebacker James Willis in camp but, by season's end, had become the Birds' starting left linebacker and a very promising one at that ... said coach Ray Rhodes, "I think he's found a home as an outside 'backer. He's a fly-around guy, a guy with a great motor who's always active, always moving around and getting to the ball." ... after Willis met the challenge in camp with an inspired, improved performance, Darling bided his time until taking over the LLB spot when injuries sidelined veterans Darrin Smith and Ray Farmer ... first played LLB when Smith re-injured his ankle in game 10 vs. the 49ers ... made his first start the following week at Bal. (11/19) and held down the #1 LLB spot for the remainder of the year ... played almost exclusively on special teams through the first nine games, seeing only occasional action at MLB when Willis was hobbled ... was, however, thrust into the MLB spot for the final 3.5 quarters of the opener at NYG after Willis strained his left thigh.

COLLEGE

A two-year starter at middle linebacker for Washington State, Darling was a first-team All-Pac 10 Conference selection in 1996 after registering 136 tackles ... in 43 games (20 starts) for the Cougars, Darling recorded 258 tackles, 2.5 sacks, 4 forced fumbles, and 1 interception ... garnered second-team All-Pac 10 honors following his junior season.

PERSONAL

PRO CAREER

The latter of the Eagles' two 2nd-round picks in 1996 (the 61st selection overall), Dawkins capped his first pro campaign by earning NFL All-Rookie Team honors from Pro Football Weekly, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, and Football News ... cracked the starting line-up early on as a rookie and has turned a question mark - the Eagles' free safety position - into an area of strength with his speed and aggressive play ... "He's a young guy with a lot of talent," said head coach Ray Rhodes. "I mean just raw athletic ability. I'm not too sure he couldn't play cornerback ... He loves to play the game and he plays with a lot of emotion. He brings a lot of life to our football team." ... 1996: Started 13 games en route to numerous NFL all-rookie team honors ... saw reserve duty in the opener, started game 2 at Green Bay when the Birds opened with five DBs, and took over the starting free safety spot from Eric Zomalt the following week ... notched his first career INT vs. the Falcons' Bobby Hebert on 9/22 and later added thefts off Miami's Craig Erickson and Buffalo's Jim Kelly ... registered a big play in a Monday night contest vs. Dal. (9/30) when, on the first sack of his career, he forced a fumble by QB Troy Aikman that DT Rhett Hall returned 32 yds. for a TD ... halted a Panthers' drive by recovering a Kerry Collins fumble deep in Eagles territory in a win over Car. ... missed the 2nd half at Ind. with a strained groin that subsequently sidelined him for the final two regular season contests ... returned to the lineup for the Birds' Wild Card Playoff Game at SF ... 1997: His 3 INTs tied CB Troy Vincent for the team lead in that department ... foremost among those thefts was one off NYG QB Danny Kanell on 12/7 that he returned 64 yards for his first TD as a pro ... started all 15 games in which he played ... was deactivated and replaced by Charles Emanuel vs. Arz. (10/19) after suffering a bruised left fibula when tackling Jags' TE Pete Mitchell at Jax. ... led the club in tackles at Min. and vs. Wash. ... made TD-saving tackles on two kickoff returns, chasing down the Giants' Thomas Lewis (8/31) and Redskins' Brian Mitchell (10/5).

COLLEGE

A three-year starter at strong safety for Clemson, Dawkins finished his Tigers' career with 234 tackles and 11 interceptions ... was an All-ACC selection as a senior when his team-high 6 interceptions tied him for the conference lead ... was an outstanding special teams player throughout his career, making 35 stops on those units ... was a college and high school teammate of LB Patrick Sapp (Arizona Cardinals).

PRO CAREER

The first of three seventh round picks by the Eagles in 1997 (the 207th selection overall), Detmer injured his right knee in training camp on 8/19 and, beginning on 8/24, spent the remainder of the season on the Injured Reserve list ... had previously undergone season-ending surgery to the same knee in '95 while at the Univ. of Colorado ... completed 2 of 3 passes for 9 yards and marched the Birds to a TD in a preseason scrimmage vs. Ravens but did not see any action in the four preseason games that followed.

COLLEGE

One of the most prolific passers in Colorado history, Detmer holds the school record for most touchdown passes with 40 ... by throwing for 3,156 yards and 22 touchdowns on 208-for-363 passing in 1996, Detmer became the first quarterback in Buffaloes history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season ... capped his college career with a 45-25-371-0-3TD passing effort in the Buffs' 33-21 win over Washington in the Holiday Bowl ... earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors and was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award given to the nation's top senior passer ... amassed career passing totals of 594 attempts, 350 completions, 5,390 yards, 25 interceptions, and 40 touchdowns.

PRO CAREER

A former first round draft pick of the NY Jets and the 1995 NFL defensive rookie of the year, Douglas was acquired by the Eagles in a trade with the Jets on 3/13/98 ... in exchange for Douglas the Eagles' gave their 2nd and 5th round selections in the '98 draft to NY ... over his first three seasons, Douglas became recognized as one of the premier young pass rushers in the NFL, collecting six multiple sack games along the way ... 1995: Was the Jets' second selection in the first round of the '95 draft (the 4th defensive end selected and the 16th pick overall) ... went on to become the consensus NFL defensive rookie of the year after recording 10 sacks (8th best in the AFC) ... that number was just 2.5 shy of the NFL rookie record held by Leslie O'Neal and broke the Jets' rookie record of 8 set by Joe Klecko in 1977 ... was hampered late in the season due to an ankle sprain suffered in game 12 (was second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in sacks at the time of his injury) ... played in 15 games, including three starts at right defensive end ... made his first NFL start at RDE vs. NE on 11/5 ... recorded three sacks vs. Jacks. (9/17) ... 1996: Led the Jets for the second straight year with 8 sacks ... also tied for the team lead in forced fumbles (2) and fumble recoveries (3) ... recorded a career-high 7 tackles, including 3 sacks and a fumble recovery vs. Phila. QB Ty Detmer on 12/14 ... the following week he recorded his first touchdown at any level of play when he returned a fumble 62 yards for a score vs. Mia. (12/22) ... 1997: Started and played in 15 games at RDE (missed game 3 vs. Buff. with a groin injury) ... forced QB Warren Moon into two intentional grounding penalties in the season-opening rout of Sea. ... prior to week two, however, coach Bill Parcells changed the Jets' base defense from a 4-3 to a 3-4 ... that switch put Douglas over the offensive tackle and guard, an uncomfortable role change that resulted in far more double-teams and fewer sacks for Douglas ... finished the season with four sacks and a career-high three forced fumbles.

COLLEGE

A two-time NAIA Division I All-America, Douglas would line up against Erik Williams, the Cowboys all-pro tackle, in practice each day ... that experience, Douglas insists, made him a better player ... collected 42 sacks in just 32 games over his three-year college career and had 13 multiple-sack games ... as a senior was named defensive player of the year by the Washington D.C. Pigskin Club and had four sacks in the Hula Bowl ... helped lead the Marauders to the national championship as a sophomore.

PERSONAL

PRO CAREER

The first of the Birds' two second-round draft picks in 1996, the massive Dunn emerged as one of the league's most explosive tight ends and was selected to numerous NFL All-Rookie teams ... has the size and strength to be a dominating blocker and the speed to split seams in the defensive secondary ... enters '98 with an avg. of 19.3 yards per catch ... 1996: Burst onto the scene as a rookie with a knack for making big plays ... made the most of his 15 catches as six covered 24 yards or more (58, 54, 34, 32, 25, 24) ... parlayed his solid early-season play as a reserve into a starting role in game 3 and went on to start 12 of the final 14 games ... finished the year 15-332-22.1-2TDs receiving ... in the season opener at Wash., set up a TD with a 54-yd. reception from Rodney Peete ... then, in game 4 at Atl., topped that effort by hauling in a 58-yd. pass that set up another TD ... added 34 and 25-yd. grabs vs. Dal. and Mia., respectively ... scored his first TD as a pro in game 8 vs. Car. when he hauled in a 9-yd. strike from Ty Detmer ... went on to set up TDs with a 21-yd. highlight-film catch vs. Wash. and a 32-yd. reception at Ariz. ... hauled in his 2nd TD catch, a 14-yd. Detmer aerial, vs. NYG on 12/1 ... capped his fine season by earning NFL All-Rookie team honors from Pro Football Weekly, Football News, and College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... 1997: Was slowed in preseason by a knee injury suffered during spring mini-camp but went on to play in 15 games ... started four of the first six contests before seeing his role altered in an offense that eventually opened many games in multiple-WR formations ... at mid-season when veteran Jimmie Johnson became the starter, Dunn moved into a reserve role but saw frequent action as the offense often rotated all three TEs (Dunn, Johnson and Chad Lewis) ... turned a short pass into a 31-yard TD vs. Pitt. after running over three would-be tacklers ... added another 31-yd. TD grab in the season finale at Wash. and finished the year 7-93-2TDs receiving.

COLLEGE

Besides being one of the nation's most highly regarded tight ends, Dunn also was a part-time pass rusher at Eastern Kentucky, a highly successful Division I-AA program ... despite playing in a run-oriented offense, completed his career with 41 receipts for 615 yards (15.0 avg.) and 3 TDs ... also had 19 rushes for 199 yards, including TD runs of 68 and 55 yards ... during his senior campaign, went 20-221-2TDs receiving and 3-42-1TD rushing ... on defense, he registered 4 sacks, forced one fumble and recovered two others ... helped EKU

PRO CAREER

After establishing himself as one of the league's best young centers during his first four pro seasons with the Browns/Ravens, Everitt became the top priority of Philadelphia when the free agent signing period commenced in the winter of 1997 ... when the Birds landed the 26-year old, 6-5, 290-pounder, it marked the third consecutive year in which the Eagles targeted and signed a young, ascending star who was the top player available at a particular position ... indeed, Everitt's move to Philadelphia followed that of free agent transition players Ricky Watters and Troy Vincent, whom the Eagles lured away from the 49ers and Dolphins, respectively, in '95 and '96 ... began his NFL career as a first round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1993 ... 1993: Was named to the NFL's All-Rookie squad by Pro Football Weekly, PFWA, Football Digest, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, and Football News after being the 14th selection overall in the draft and the first offensive lineman taken by the Browns in round one since Pete Adams in 1973 ... saw action at center and guard in the preseason before taking over the starting center job on opening day ... went on to start all 16 games as a rookie and banged heads with Michael Dean Perry in practice every day ... Cleveland obtained the pick they used on Everitt (along with the 83rd selection overall) from Denver in exchange for the Browns' first round pick (the 11th choice overall which the Broncos subsequently used to select Toledo DE Dan Williams) ... 1994: Earned second team all-pro honors from Tom Jackson's Pro Football Update after starting 15 of 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at center for the Browns ... anchored a line that permitted the league's fewest sacks, a team-record 14 ... also helped the offense ring up 340 points (Cleveland's highest total since '87) and propelled Pro Bowl back Leroy Hoard to 890 yards on 209 carries ... handled the long-snapping duties on placekicks as well ... was deactivated vs. the Jets due to a pinched nerve ... 1995: Started 14 of the 15 games in which he played for Cleveland, once again holding down the Brown's #1 center role ... was deactivated at Minn. on 12/9, one week after suffering a hamstring injury that sidelined him during the second half at SD ... helped the Browns hold Pitt. and Cin. without a sack on 11/26 and 12/17, respectively ... handled deep-snapping duty in place of the injured Brian Kinchen in games vs. KC (9/24) and vs. Buf. (10/2) ... 1996: Moved to Maryland along with his teammates when the franchise known as the Cleveland Browns became the Baltimore Ravens ... went on to suffer through an injury-plagued campaign ... played in just one of the Ravens' last nine games after suffering a torn pectoral muscle in a game at Den. (10/20) ... was deact. for the next four games and dressed but DNP vs. Jax. on 11/24 ... returned to action in game 13 vs. Pit., seeing reserve duty at center ... was, however, deact. for the final three games ... 1997: A highly sought after free agent, Everitt - "the best young center in the NFL" according to Philadelphia head coach Ray Rhodes - left the Ravens to sign with the Eagles in March ... started all 16 games at center (only Everitt and left tackle Jerome Mayberry started all 16 games on the offensive line and only Mayberry played more snaps than Everitt) ... suffered various nagging injuries, the most serious of which occurred during a preseason scrimmage when the Ravens' Tony Siragusa and then-Eagle Joe Panos tumbled on Everitt, severely spraining his knee and ankle ... subsequently missed the first two preseason games and was slowed at the start of the regular season ... did, however, go on to help pave the way for Ricky Watters' third straight 1,000-yard rushing season.

EVERITT (CONTINUED)

COLLEGE

A four-year starter for the Wolverines, Everitt left the Michigan program as the top-rated center in the 1993 NFL draft ... helped UM post a 29-3-3 record in the 35 games he started ... acquired a well-earned reputation for toughness when he missed only four games due to a broken left foot and just one game with a broken jaw ... added to that reputation as a freshman and a senior when - after breaking his right thumb - he snapped flawlessly with his left hand ... earned 1st-team All-Big Ten honors as a senior when Michigan beat Washington in the Rose Bowl ... as a junior, suffered a broken jaw vs. Notre Dame that required a steel plate and several screws ... missed only one game and went on to earn 2nd-team All-Big Ten honors ... originally took over the starting center job as a freshman (after redshirting in 1988) and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors that year.

PERSONAL

At 6-feet, 5-inches and 290 pounds, with long blond hair and a skull & dagger tattoo across his back, Everitt's imposing physical characteristics belie the softer side of this gentle giant. In fact, Everitt is an accomplished artist and a quiet humanitarian who devotes much of his time to community service with little regard for fanfare ... earned a degree in fine arts from the Univ. of Michigan ... originally began building his art portfolio while in junior high school and today specializes in painting (abstract and surreal) ... has been a featured artist at Cleveland events that benefitted the art education programs of NOVA (New Organization for the Visual Arts) ... while with the Browns, frequently contributed time and effort to the Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital of Cleveland; helped fund the hospital's art therapy program and, in addition, donated to the hospital a percentage of the proceeds generated from the sale of his prints ... today Everitt sponsors two college scholarships at his alma mater, Miami's Southridge HS – one for a promising senior artist and another for scholar-athletes ... it was at Southridge that Everitt twice earned all-state honors in football and was named the Dade County offensive player of the year as a senior in 1987 ... his father, Michael, is an accomplished graphic artist and sculptor ... his mother, Barbara, is an elementary school teacher ... missed the 1993 Senior Bowl because he returned to his parents' home in Cutler Ridge, FL, six miles north of Homestead, which was devastated by Hurricane Andrew - the family's home had been leveled by the storm ... said Everitt of his biggest disappointment in football, "I was cut when I went out for 65-pound pee-wee football when I was around seven years old. They said I had no talent. My dad was one of the coaches." ... a regular at heavy metal rock concerts, he lists Metallica among his favorite groups. In fact, during his rookie year with the Browns, when it came time for the training camp ritual that calls for rookies to stand and sing at the dinner table, Steve's choice was Black Sabbath's "Iron Man": "There wasn't a real big sing-along," understated Everitt ... full name: Steven Michael Everitt ... born 8/21/70 in Miami, FL.

PRO CAREER

A former college safety at Duke, this fourth-round pick of the Birds in 1996 (the 121st selection overall) made a successful transition to outside linebacker in his first pro season ... has since gone on to become a quality reserve and part-time starter as well as an accomplished special teams player ... 1996: After serving on special teams and as a backup LLB behind Marc Woodard in games 1-5, earned his first start at NYG and held down that role for the remainder of the year ... just six weeks after cracking the lineup, he would be named NFC defensive player of the week when he led the Eagles to a 24-0 shutout over the Giants on 12/1 by creating four turnovers – in the opening qtr. he intercepted a Dave Brown pass and forced a fumble with a sack of Brown; he later forced another fumble by Brown and recovered a fumble by Giants RB Tyrone Wheatley ... in game 16 vs. Ariz., suffered a sprained MCL in the first half and did not return ... was subsequently deactivated for the Eagles' Wild Card Playoff Game at SF ... 1997: Entered the season as the top reserve at both outside linebacker spots after the Birds added veteran free agent Darrin Smith to fill the LLB spot ... played on special teams in 14 games and started five on defense when injuries shelved Darrin Smith and William Thomas ... started at LLB in place of Smith (ankle) in games 1-2 & 5 and at RLB in place of Thomas (knee) in games 15-16 ... also saw spot duty in passing situations throughout the year ... was deactivated for consecutive games vs. SF and at Bal. due to a hamstring injury ... unfortunately for Farmer, those two games coincided with the deterioration of Smith's ankle to the point where the latter was sidelined for the season (with Farmer also idled, rookie James Darling slid into the LLB spot) ... led or shared the team lead in tackles at NYG, vs. Wash. and at Atl.

COLLEGE

Was a two-time, first team All-ACC selection as a free safety at Duke ... logged 271 tackles, 7 interceptions, 3 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries during his career ... also blocked 11 kicks, including an NCAA record 8 blocked PATs ... posted a team-high 111 stops and 2 INTs as a senior when he also earned national defensive player of the week honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly for his 7-tackle, 2-blocked PAT performance vs. Florida State ... also an outfielder on the Blue Devils' baseball team, Farmer batted .261 with 13 home runs and 54 RBIs during the 1993 and '94 campaigns.

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Verné, reside in Voorhees, NJ ... was an all-conference selection as a wide receiver at Glenn HS in Kernersville, NC ... also played basketball and led his high school baseball team to a state title ... was selected by the Seattle Mariners in the 1992 and 1994 Major League Baseball drafts ... enjoys playing EA Sports video games ... graduated with a degree in sociology ... born 7/1/74 in White Plains, NY.

PRO CAREER

"After so many years of being worked over by clotheslining linebackers, blackjacking safeties and brass-knuckled corners," wrote the Phila. Inquirer's Bill Lyon in 1997, "he is more productive than ever. At a time when he could be forgiven for hiding out in rocking chair routes, he continues to run the slant pattern – the most dangerous and punishing route in the game – fearlessly and repeatedly. And with a sort of perverse joy." Or, as Eagles trainer James Collins more succinctly put it, "He's a freak of nature." Indeed, after being allowed to test the free agent waters by Miami in the winter of '96, Fryar has become the Eagles' go-to receiver and a full-fledged star while putting up some of the best numbers of his career ... when Eagles coach Ray Rhodes lured Fryar to Philadelphia, he said he liked not only the receiver's production, but his attitude and leadership as well. For his part, Fryar explains his motivation much in the same way Rhodes describes his own obsessive drive to succeed - "People who doubt me motivate me," said Fryar. "I'm motivated by the negatives. Most people don't think I can [still] do it, and as long as they think that way, that's what's going to keep me going strong." ... as for his leadership qualities, all you need to know is that Rhodes and the Eagles players fondly refer to Fryar, a Pentecostal minister, as "The Rev." ... now, 15 years after New England made him the first pick in the '84 draft, Fryar's 736 catches rank him 9th in NFL history and 5th among active pass catchers ... likewise his 11,427 receiving yards also rank 9th all-time ... also enters '98 ranked 11th on the NFL's career list with 32 100-yard receiving games (12 for New England, 10 for Miami, 10 for Philadelphia) ... is the only player to catch 50-or-more passes in each of the last eight seasons (Jerry Rice entered the '97 season with 11 straight such seasons, but injuries limited him to 2 games and prevented him from reaching that milestone again) ... with

ENTERING 1998, IRVING FRYAR ...

- Ranks 9th on the all-time reception list and 5th among active receivers with 736.
- Ranks 9th on the all-time receiving yardage list with 11,457 ... 4th among active players behind only Jerry Rice, Henry Ellard, and Andre Reed
- Ranks 11th on the all-time 100-yd receiving games list with 32 ... 5th among active players behind only Jerry Rice, Michael Irvin, Henry Ellard, and Andre Reed
- Has topped the 1,000-yd. mark four times in the last five seasons and five times in the last seven years.
- Ranks third all-time for number of receptions made past the age of 30 with 428. Only Jerry Rice (508) and Art Monk (474) have made more.
- Is the only player to have logged over 50 catches in each of the past eight seasons.

BIRD SEED

As the first pick overall in the 1984 draft (chosen by New England) Fryar is one of only two wide receivers to be taken with the very first selection in the draft – Keyshawn Johnson, taken #1 overall by the Jets in '96, is the other.

his 1,195 receiving yds. in '96, Fryar became the first player in league history to log 1,000-yd. seasons with three different clubs ... spent the first 9 seasons of his career with the Patriots and in that time helped New England reach Super Bowl XX ... was traded to Miami for two draft picks on 4/1/93 and quickly became QB Dan Marino's favorite target, hauling in 199 balls for 3,190 yards over the next three years ... 1997: At 35 years of age, capped a remarkable season with his fifth Pro Bowl selection and was voted Eagles' offensive MVP by his teammates for the second straight year ... set a career-high for receiving yards (1,316) and fell just two receptions shy of his Eagles' record and personal-best mark of 88 set the previous year ... the 1,316 receiving yards he posted is second in the Eagles' record books only to the 1,409 Mike Quick recorded in 1983 ... led the Eagles in every major receiving category for the second year in a row and was also among the league leaders across the board ... ranked 2nd in the NFC in receiving yards (1,316), 4th in catches (86), and 5th in receptions on 3rd down (26-359-4TDs) ... went over the 1,000-yard mark for the fifth time and for the second time in as many seasons as an Eagle - as such, became the first Eagle receiver with back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons since Quick (who did it three straight years from 1983-85) ... recorded six 100-yard receiving games, tying a personal-high and matching an Eagles' record set by Quick in '83 ... celebrated his 35th birthday on 9/28 with 9 receptions (120 yards) at Minn.; later exceeded that effort with 10 catches (124 yds., 3 TDs) at Jax. ... played in his 200th NFL game vs. Arz. (10/19) ... hauled in a 72-yard TD pass from Bobby Hoying vs. NYG on 12/7 (the second longest of Fryar's career and his longest as an Eagle) ... 1996: Signed a three-year deal with the Eagles as an unrestricted free agent on 3/19 (after new Dolphins' head coach Jimmy Johnson opted not to retain the veteran) and enjoyed a monstrous season that ended with a trip to the Pro Bowl ... in a season that also ended with his teammates naming him the Birds' offensive MVP, Fryar ranked 1st in the NFC/4th in the NFL with 11 TD receptions ... overall, hauled in 88 passes (an Eagles' single-season record) for 1,195 yds. ... posted personal career-high numbers in receptions and TD catches ... enjoyed a marvelous stretch in games 7-9 vs. Mia., Car., and Dal., when he was a combined 24-379-5TDs receiving ... in that span, Fryar became the first Eagles' WR to put together three straight 100-yd. rec. games since Mike Quick did so in '85 ... the highlight of that three-game stretch was an 8-116-4TD outing vs. his former Dolphins teammates in which he tied an Eagles' single-game record for TD grabs and set a mark for most TD catches in a game vs. Miami with scoring strikes of 38, 2, 12, and 36 yds. from Ty Detmer ... subsequently earned Miller Lite/NFL player of the week honors for that effort ... other highlights on the year included a 7-131 effort at Ariz. and a huge effort in game 15 at NYJ where he hauled in 2 TD tosses from Detmer in the 2nd half of a come-from-behind win, including a 14-yd game winner with 5:29 to play ... although originally voted as the 1st alternate at wide receiver to the NFC Pro Bowl squad, Fryar played in the game when the 49ers' Jerry Rice was unable to participate ... 1995: In the last of his 3 seasons with the Dolphins, started all 16 games and Miami's AFC playoff contest at Buf. (12/30) ... finished the season 62-910-8TDs receiving ... began the year with consecutive 100-yard games - a 5-110-2TD effort vs. the Jets in game 1 and a 3-113-2TD performance at NE ... his big-play capabilities were on display in those games when he hooked up with Dolphins' QB Dan Marino for a 50-yd. TD vs. the Jets and a 67-yd. score at NE ... caught a nine-yard pass vs. NE (11/12) that made Marino the NFL's all-time leader in passing yardage ... made his biggest catch vs. Atl. in game 13 when he caught a 21-yard TD with 0:11 remaining to give the Dolphins a 21-20 victory ... 1994: Had perhaps the best season of his career as he paced the Dolphins in every major receiving category while notching then career highs in receptions (73), yards (1,270) and TDs (7) ... reached the 1,000-yd receiving plateau for the 2nd consecutive year and for the third time in his career ... recorded 500th reception of NFL career vs. Det. (12/25) ... his 1,270 yds. ranked 3rd in AFC/6th in NFL, while his 73 catches placed him 9th in AFC/22nd in NFL ... logged a team-record string of four consecutive games with 100 or more receiving yards with 112 vs. Chi., 113 at Pit., 103 at NYJ and 110 vs. Buf. ... overall, had six 100-yd games, tied for 2nd best in Dolphin history (with Mark Clayton, 1984) ... earned his third trip to the Pro Bowl and his 2nd in as many years with the Dolphins (this time as a backup to starters Tim Brown of the Raiders and Andre Reed of the Bills) ... had 5 catches for a career-high 211 yards and 3 TDs all in the second half of the season opener vs. NE ... that 211-yd. output marked the 2nd-highest single game receiving ydge. total in Dolphin history (surpassed only by Mark Duper's 217 yds. vs. NYJ on 11/10/85) ... had 9

THE REVEREND'S CONGREGATION IS GROWING

Irving Fryar, wide receiver and ordained minister, has caught aerials from 19 different passers (17 quarterbacks and two running backs) during his 14-year NFL career. He played with 9 signal callers in as many seasons with New England (1984-92), with 4 QBs in his three campaigns in Miami (1993-95), and with 4 passers in his first two seasons with the Eagles.

- With the Patriots, Fryar caught passes from these QBs (listed alphabetically):

Jeff Carlson (1992)	Steve Grogan (1984-90)	Tom Ramsey (1985-88)
Tony Eason (1984-89)	Tom Hodson (1990-92)	Marc Wilson (1989-90)
Doug Flutie (1987-89)	Hugh Millen (1991-92)	Scott Zolak (1992)

- As a Dolphin he hauled in passes from these passers (alphabetically):

Keith Byars (1993)	Terry Kirby (1995)	Dan Marino (1993-95)
Steve DeBerg (1993)	Bernie Kosar (1995)	Scott Mitchell (1993)

- With the Eagles in 1996-97, Fryar has grabbed passes from the following QBs (alphabetically): Ty Detmer, Bobby Hoying, Rodney Peete, and Mark Rypien

Of those passers, Fryar caught at least one TD toss from all but Carlson, Kosar, and Zolak.

PRO CAREER

Since bursting onto the NFL scene in '94 when he became only the 7th player in league history to rush for 100 yards in each of his first two games, Garner has proven to be one of the NFL's most exciting players ... the lightning-quick University of Tennessee product has truly added another dimension to the Eagles' offense ... with his uncanny quickness and agility, Garner has become a threat to score every time he touches the ball and provides a tremendous change of pace ... indeed it is as a change-of-pace weapon that Garner has excelled throughout his career ... but after playing primarily in a supporting role behind big, physical backs from 1994-97, first behind Herschel Walker, then as a complement to Ricky Watters, Garner will have an opportunity in '98 to be the club's featured back ... said Eagles' head coach Ray Rhodes, "If you give Charlie the ball three straight times, one of those is going for 20 yards. He sees so many things that other backs don't see. I compare him to a young Barry Sanders ... he's quick, he's explosive and he may be even quicker than Barry." ... has averaged nearly 5 yards per carry while ranking second on the club in rushing yards in each of his first four seasons, trailing Walker in '94 and Watters in '95-'97 (his yards per carry average, however, surpassed that of Watters each year) ... enters 1998 as one of only three holdovers from the pre-Ray Rhodes era (along with LB William Thomas and SS Michael Zordich) ... 1997: Proved that his newfound dedication to off-season conditioning was worthwhile by putting together his best season as a pro ... played in all 16 games for the first time in his career and posted career-highs in carries (116), receptions (24), receiving yards (225), and total yards from scrimmage (772) ... ranked third among the NFC's top 20 rushers with a 4.7 yards/carry average (behind only the Lions' Barry Sanders and Vikings' Robert Smith) while finishing 17th overall in the conference with 547 rushing yards ... ranked second on the Eagles to Ricky Watters in three major rushing categories (yards, TDs, and carries) -- his 4.7 yards/carry avg., however, topped the 3.9 mark posted by Watters ... finished the season with a huge effort at Wash. -- replaced an injured Watters (shoulder) in the 1st Q and was 18-115-2TDs rushing and 3-23 receiving (the 115 rushing yards marked the third highest output of his career) ... the Fairfax, VA, native continued to have the best games of his career vs. Washington - in the first meeting, picked up 47 of his 60 rushing yards on eight 4th Q carries; and in the season finale recorded the 4th 100-yard day of his career (his third such effort vs. the 'Skins) ... in game 7 vs. Ariz., made a 27-yd. reception that set up Chris Boniol's game-winning 24-yd. FG in overtime ... his one-yd. TD plunge in the 4th Q at Bal. sent that game into OT ... 1996: With #1 RB Ricky Watters handling the bulk of the rushing behind FB Kevin Turner, the latter of whom returned to action after missing 14 games in '95, Garner saw only limited action ... was also hindered by assorted bumps and bruises but still managed to lead the Birds with a 5.2-yds.-per-carry avg. and finished as the club's second leading rusher with 346 yds. on 66 carries ... was slowed early on by a strained knee suffered late in game 2 at GB ... that, combined with a seven-game stretch in which Watters topped the 100-yd. rushing mark five times, limited Garner to just 10 carries in games 3-9 ... then, in game 10 vs. Buf., saw his most extensive action since the opener, going 10-60 rushing ... one week later vs. Wash., was inserted in the 3rd qtr. and jump-started the offense, setting up a TD with consecutive runs of 10, 22, and 9 yds. before exiting with a sprained ankle ... sat out the following game at Ariz. but returned to action in the final four contests and sealed a win over the Jets with a 46-yd. scamper that helped run out the clock ... 1995: After FB Kevin Turner's season ended with a knee injury in game 2, Garner frequently joined fellow RB Ricky Watters in the backfield and gave the Eagles one of the NFL's most exciting one-two punches ... finished the regular season ranked 2nd on the club to Watters in all rushing categories (108-588-6TDs) while his 5.4-yds.-per-carry average led all NFL ballcarriers with over 100 attempts ... etched his name into the Eagles' record books vs. Wash. on 10/8, tying a club mark with 3 rushing TDs in a single game (something no Eagle had done since Wilbert Montgomery on 12/19/82 vs. Hou.) ... posted the third 100-yd. rushing game of his career that afternoon as he went 9-120-13.3-3TDs ... went on to put together three straight solid rushing efforts (9-52-5.8 vs. Den., 13-58-4.5 vs. NYG, and 11-50-4.5 at Wash.) ... over that 3-game span, Garner's total rushing #s included 160 yds. and a 4.85-yd. avg. on 33 carries ... late in that game at Wash., however, fractured his right thumb and subsequently underwent surgery on 11/29 ... as a result, was deactivated for game 13 at Sea. and saw only limited action in the final three games ... in the post-season, however, Garner helped power the running game in a 58-37 Wild Card game win over Det., jump-starting the Birds with a 15-yd. TD scamper ... 1994: After being sidelined for the first three games by a rib injury, this rookie 2nd round draft pick burst onto the NFL scene like a bolt of lightning ... saw his first action when he started games 4-5 at SF and vs. Wash. and quickly etched his name into the record books ... became only the 7th player in NFL history to rush for 100 yds. in each of his first two NFL games as well as the first Eagle rookie with consecutive 100-yd. rushing games ... ripped off 111 yds on 16 carries, including 1st qtr. TD runs of 1 & 28 yds., at SF before exiting in the 3rd qtr. with sore ribs ... ran for 122 yds. on 28 atts. the next week vs. Wash. ... was hobbled, however, by a midseason thigh injury and recurring rib soreness that limited his playing time ... then, in game 14 vs. NYG, ruptured the patella tendon in his left leg and had season-ending surgery performed by Dr. Joseph Torg in Philadelphia.

VETERANS

COLLEGE

One of the most electrifying, big-play makers in Tennessee history, Garner led the Volunteers in rushing in each of his two seasons after transferring from Scottsdale (AZ) Community College ... the speedy and elusive back ran for 1,161 yards and 8 TDs in '93, highlighted by a 186-yard effort vs. Kentucky ... finished his Tennessee career with 2,223 rushing yards and 10 TDs while tacking on an additional 17 receptions for 106 yds ... was a backfield mate of QB Heath Shuler, the Redskins' 1st round draft pick in '94 and James Stewart, the Jaguars' 2nd of two, first round selections in the 1995 draft ... In 1990, Garner set JUCO records for most rushing yards in a single game (430) and most yards in two consecutive games (765).

PERSONAL

Single ... resides in his hometown and birthplace of Fairfax, VA ... as a senior running back at Fairfax's Jeb Stuart High was named Virginia Player of the Year and garnered all-state honors after rushing for over 2,000 yards and 38 TDs ... has three sisters, Aleatha, Anita, and Glenda ... hobbies include playing EA Sports video games, basketball, fishing, and bowling ... majored in business.

CAREER HIGHS - RUSHING - Atts. 28 vs. Wash. 10/9/94, Yds. 122 vs. Wash. 10/9/94, Long 55-yd. TD vs. Wash. 10/8/95, TDs 3 vs. Wash. 10/8/95; RECEIVING - Recepts. 4 at Bal. 11/16/97 (OT), Yds. 38 vs. Arz. 10/19/97, Long 29 at NYG 10/15/95.

PRO CAREER

An extremely productive veteran wideout, Graham was obtained in a trade with the Jets on the second day of the '98 draft (4/19) ... in exchange for Graham, the Eagles gave their 6th round pick to the New Yorkers ... said Saints' head coach Mike Ditka of the trade, "That's the best deal in the world for the Eagles. I thought he played outstanding football those years in Chicago. It's going to help Philadelphia, there's no question. He'll bring stability to them and help them." ... originally a second round selection (46th choice overall) of the Steelers in '91, he went on to spend two seasons with Pittsburgh, three with Chicago, and two with the Jets ... excelled as a tough, over-the middle receiver during that span, logging 17 100-yard receiving games and 3-or-more receptions in 60 of his 101 career games ... 1997: In what would be his final season with the Jets, started 15 games while once again sharing time in the 2-WR set with Keyshawn Johnson and Wayne Chrebet ... finished the season third on the club in all major receiving categories (42-542-2TDs) ... opened the season with a 3-100-2TD receiving performance at Seattle ... played in his 100th NFL game in week 15 vs. Tampa Bay ... 1996: Was one of the most coveted free agent wide receivers during the spring ... joined the Jets to once again be one of QB Neil O'Donnell's favorite targets (O'Donnell and Graham were teammates in Pitts.) ... the only established veteran receiver on the Jets' roster, Graham was brought in specifically to aid in the development of rookie #1 pick Keyshawn Johnson and second-year WR Wayne Chrebet ... all three WRs finished the season with 50-plus receptions and Graham tallied a career-high 6 TDs ... recorded a single-game best 3 TDs and 9 catches (tie) at Indy (11/17) ... also added the longest reception of his career, a 78-yard TD from O'Donnell at Miami (9/15) ... missed games 7-8 after arthroscopic surgery on his knee and also missed the final three contests with a toe injury ... 1995: Started all 16 games, posting career-highs while leading the Bears for the second straight year in every major receiving category (82-1,301-4TDs) ... his 1,301 receiving yards still top Chicago's all-time single-season list and his 82 receptions still rank second ... tied a Bears' record with seven 100-yard receiving contests, including three straight in games 9-11 ... had a career-best 9 catches vs. Hou. (10/22) ... 1994: Was traded by the Steelers to Chicago on draft day in exchange for a 5th round selection ... in his first season as a full-time starter, led the Bears in every major receiving category (68-944-4TDs) ... his 68 catches were the most by a Bear since Dick Gordon in 1970 ... also led Chicago in punt returns 15-115-61t-1TD (the TD came at Minn. on 12/1) ... recorded the 3rd best receiving day in Bears' post-season history with a 4-108-1TD performance vs. Minn ... 1993: Was Pitt's 3rd leading receiver during the regular season (49-711-1TD) and paced the club with a 7-96 receiving effort in a playoff loss to KC ... his 192-yard performance vs. Hou. (12/19) matched Lynn Swann for the 5th best output by a Steeler ... 1992: Led the Steelers with 49 catches (711 yards) and was 34-536 receiving through the first 6 games (ranking 3rd in the AFC in catches and 2nd in receiving yards) before spraining an ankle ... was limited to just one catch over the next 3 contests before sitting out games 10-11 ... had his 1st career TD catch in the season opener at Hou. (9/6) ... 1991: Played in 13 games for Pitts. as a rookie 2nd round draft pick after missing the season opener with a quad injury ... started his only game in week 12 vs. Hou. (11/24) ... made his first NFL catch vs. NYG on 10/14.

COLLEGE

At the conclusion of his Ohio State career, Graham's 98-1,806-15TDs receiving numbers ranked him among the school's all-time best (4th in receiving yards and 6th in receptions) ... was team MVP and an All-Big 10 Conf. selection as a senior when he was 39-760-7TDs - his 14.9-yard average ranked 3rd in the nation ... was also one of the NCAA's premier punt returners averaging 11.8 yards with two TDs.

PERSONAL

Single ... resides in Dayton, OH, where he co-owns a trucking company with his dad, Walter ... majored in recreational education ... dedicated his 1994 season to his brother, Walter III, who died at age 33 from cancer ... was an all-state quarterback, wide receiver, and basketball player at Archbishop Alter High in Kettering, OH.

PRO CAREER

After six trips to the NFL waiver wire, a stellar stretch run with the '94 Super Bowl champion 49ers paved the way to Philadelphia for Hall – then a veteran free agent – in 1995 ... it was then, however, with his first campaign as an Eagle and a starting role in his grasp, that Hall was sidelined for nearly all of the '95 season by a serious bout with blood clots in his lungs ... but in 1996, a return to health meant a starting job for this former sixth-round pick of Tampa Bay ... one year later, Hall authored his best season as a pro, leading the Eagles with 8 sacks ... prior to joining the Birds, tallied 3 sacks in the playoffs for Super Bowl XXIX champion San Francisco when he played for current Eagles head coach and then-Niners defensive coordinator Ray Rhodes ... 1997: Enjoyed his most productive NFL campaign before undergoing season-ending surgery on his left knee following game 15 at Atl. (12/14) ... logged career-highs in sacks (8.0), tackles (78), and hurries (23) and also recorded his first interception ... started the first 15 games at right defensive tackle in the Birds' rotating system ... was superb in the month of October, a four-game span in which he recorded 6.5 sacks (incl. at least one in each game) and 23 tackles ... capped that stretch by earning NFC defensive player of the week honors from the NFL, Pro Football Weekly, and Football News for his career-high 3.5-sack, 12-tackle performance in a 13-12 victory over the Cowboys ... in that game, he also notched four tackles of all-pro RB Emmitt Smith behind the line of scrimmage ... recorded at least one sack in five straight contests (games 5-9) and a partial sack in six of seven outings (games 5-11) ... registered his first career INT with his theft of a shovel pass by Packers' QB Brett Favre on 9/7 (his subsequent 39-yard return set up an Eagles' score in a 10-9 victory) ... suffered a torn ACL and MCL damage in his left knee in the 2nd Q at Atl. (12/14) ... had surgery performed by Dr. Arthur Bartolozzi the following day ... 1996: After missing 14 games the previous year due to blood clots in his lungs and a sprained knee, started all 16 games for the Birds at RDT ... was a steady veteran presence in light of the fact that fellow starting DT Andy Harmon missed most of the season with a knee injury ... tallied 67 tackles, 4.5 sacks, and 2 fumble recoveries (one of which he returned for a TD) ... notched his first sack vs. Det.'s Scott Mitchell ... had a fine outing vs. Dal. recovering two fumbles, incl. one by QB Troy Aikman that he returned 32 yds. for his first career TD ... continued his fine play in the next two games with 1.5 sacks vs. NYG's Dave Brown and 1.0 vs. Mia.'s Craig Erickson ... turned in 10 tackles vs. Wash. on 11/17 and added a sack of Boomer Esiason at Arz. ... 1995: After joining the Eagles as a veteran free agent from the 49ers on 3/9, was slated to start at RDT before being sidelined by blood clots in his lungs on 8/23, just prior to the final preseason game ... was subsequently sidelined while taking medication (Heparin) to dissolve the clots ... returned to action in game 13 at Sea. ... a week later vs. Dal. (12/10) made his first start of the season and had an outstanding 1st qtr., recording 4 tackles, including 1 sack, before suffering a sprained knee that would cause him to be deactivated for the remainder of the season ... 1994: Hall's one-year tenure with the world-champion 49ers could be described as an NFL rags-to-riches story ... after not receiving a qualifying offer from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following the 1993 season, Hall signed a free agent contract with San Francisco on 6/2 ... was waived, however, two days after the season opener, only to be brought back one week later (9/14) to replace injured DE Richard Dent (knee) ... after playing sparingly throughout much of the season, Hall started the final two regular season contests in place of injured RDT Dana Stubblefield (knee) ... in the first of those starts, recorded 3 sacks vs. Den.'s John Elway; then chipped in with 5 tackles at Min. ... although Stubblefield reclaimed his starting role in the postseason, Hall continued to sparkle by registering 3 sacks in the first two playoff games, including 2 of Dal's Troy Aikman in the NFC Championship Game ... 1993: A member of the Bucs' roster for 7 games, Hall saw his only action in game 12 vs. Wash. ... had been waived by the Bucs after the season opener, but was re-signed on 11/23 ... 1992: Played in one game for Tampa Bay before being released on 9/22 ... returned to the Bucs on 12/9 and saw action in the club's final 3 contests ... 1991: Saw action as a reserve defensive tackle in all 16 games as a rookie sixth round draft pick of the Bucs and posted 17 tackles, including 1 sack vs. Ind.

COLLEGE

Played two seasons at the University of California after transferring from Gavilan (CA) JC and recorded 116 tackles, including 12.5 sacks ... earned honorable mention All-America and 2nd-team All-Pac 10 honors in both seasons at Cal.

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Julie, reside in Cherry Hill, NJ, and San Jose, CA, with their son, Logan (1/8/97) ... attended Live Oak HS in Morgan Hill, CA, where he was the Monterey Bay League's defensive player of the year as a senior ... also lettered in baseball ... enjoys golf and mountain biking ... social sciences major ... born in San Jose.

PRO CAREER

After being the Eagles' first round draft pick and the 25th selection overall, the tall, rangy Harris endured an illness in training camp that caused his weight fall to 264 lbs. ... that weight loss prohibited Harris from dressing in games 1-3 ... when he regained his weight and strength, however, Harris made his debut in game 4 at Min., starting at LDE (9/28) ... started four straight games before suffering a toe injury vs. Arz. that caused him to miss the following five contests ... returned to action for the final four outings and saw spot duty in the DE role ... recorded his first career sack against Jaguars' QB Mark Brunell (10/12).

COLLEGE

A big, strong, left defensive end at Virginia, Harris notched 132 tackles, including 14 sacks during a 45-game career with the Cavaliers (19 starts) ... notched a career-best 52 tackles as a senior when he played on a unit that included LBs James Farrior (Jets' first round pick in 1997) and Jamie Sharper (Ravens' second round pick in 1997) ... in 1995, Harris posted 8 sacks among his 47 tackles.

PERSONAL

Graduated from the University of Virginia in May, 1996, with a degree in psychology and received his master's degree from UVA in April, 1997 ... a four-year starter at defensive end for Kellenberg HS in his hometown and birthplace of Inwood, NY, Harris was a prep All-America selection as a senior after garnering all-league honors as a junior ... an all-around athlete, he also lettered in basketball ... born Jonathan Cecil Harris on 6/9/74 ... has one brother, Jason.

PRO CAREER

"A young player with great size and athleticism as well as a good deal of up-side potential," is how head coach Ray Rhodes described Hegamin when the 5th-year pro joined the Eagles as an unrestricted free agent from Dallas on 2/19/98 ... although known as a versatile player with experience at guard and tackle, he is considered by the Eagles to be a better prospect at guard ... in his four seasons with Dallas, Hegamin showed promise while learning from a star-studded starting unit ... indeed, as a versatile Cowboys' reserve, he played behind an all-pro at each of his positions - RG Larry Allen, LG Nate Newton, and RT Erik Williams ... was the top backup for the Cowboys during that time as Dallas notched one Super Bowl title and the three lowest sack totals in franchise history (20 in 1994, 18 in '95, and 19 in '96) ... 1997: In his final season with the Cowboys, was inactive for three games before playing in the final 13 ... started nine contests when injuries idled starters ... was forced to play out of position when he opened games 7-13 at LT in place of Mark Tuinei (sprained left knee) ... also started the final two games at LG when Nate Newton sat with a sprained left knee ... 1996: During the spring, was allocated to the Frankfort Galaxy and earned All-World League honors on a club that reached the title game ... when the Cowboys' preseason began, saw extensive action at RT while Erik Williams recovered from foot surgery ... saw action at LG and LT in the season opener at Chi. (9/2) ... played RG in the next three games for the injured Larry Allen ... played 3-plus quarters at LT after Mark Tuinei sprained his knee (10/20) ... saw spot duty for Tuinei on two other occasions before earning his first NFL start at LT at Wash. (12/22) ... 1995: Earned a Super Bowl ring when the Cowboys capped their '95 campaign by beating Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XXX ... dressed for but did not play in four regular season games and was inactive for the other 12 ... saw his first action of the season in the 4th qtr. of the Cowboys' playoff win vs. Phi. ... 1994: Bypassed his final two years of college eligibility and became the Cowboys' third round pick (102nd selection overall) ... at 6-7, 342 pounds, was the largest player selected in that draft ... was inactive for the first seven games and saw his first NFL action vs. NYG (11/7).

PRO CAREER

After taking only one snap as an NFL rookie, this big, strong-armed Ohio State product entered 1997 as the Eagles' third-string passer but carried the title of "quarterback of the future" ... for Hoying and for the Eagles, however, the future came early as the 2nd-year pro took over the QB reins for the final six games last year and showed flashes of brilliance along with remarkable poise ... as such, Hoying now enters '98 as the Birds' #1 signal caller ... a third round draft choice of the Birds in 1996 and the 85th pick overall, Hoying actually was the second QB selected that year (behind Michigan State's Tony Banks, a 2nd round choice of the Rams and the 42nd selection overall) ... 1997: Bided his time as a backup to veterans Ty Detmer and Rodney Peete (both of whom had stints as the starter in games 1-10), before taking over the #1 role in game 11 ... exploded out of the gate, leading the Eagles to a 2-0-1 record in his first three starts and went on to finish the season as the NFC's fifth highest rated passer (83.8%, behind the 49ers' Steve Young, Falcons' Chris Chandler, Packers' Brett Favre, and Vikings' Brad Johnson) ... also showed he could push the ball down the field and remain cool at crunch time by ranking fifth in both average gain per pass attempt (6.99) and in 4th quarter passer rating (94.2% on 46-77-642-3TDs) ... did not throw an interception until the 92nd pass attempt of his career - a feat that ranks third in NFL history behind Warren Moon (130, Hou.-1984) and Steve Dils (110, Min.-1980) ... after dressing as the #3 QB for the first 10 games, saw his first action in a mop-up role in that 10th game, replacing Detmer with 6:49 to play vs. SF ... accounted for the Birds' only TD that night, a 6-yard strike to TE Chad Lewis ... showed poise and good decision making in his first NFL start at Bal. (11/16) as the Birds played five full quarters in a 10-10 tie vs. the Ravens; withstood 9 sacks but still managed to lead the Eagles to a TD in the final moments of regulation and to a potential game-winning FG try in OT ... earned his first win as a starter vs. Pit., 23-20, with two TD passes ... a week later earned NFL player of the week honors after a 26-42-313-4TD passing performance vs. Cin. when he hit nine different receivers, recorded his first 300-yard passing day, and became the first Eagles' QB in 22 games to throw 3-or-more TD strikes ... his 5-62 rushing numbers that day included a 30-yard scamper, the Eagles' longest run in '97 ... in all vs. the Bengals, Hoying led the Eagles to 5 TDs, 3 FGs, and 44 points, their highest scoring output of the year ... 1996: Dressed for all 16 games of his rookie season but served as the Eagles' 3rd QB/deactivation ... first learned the ropes from opening day starter Rodney Peete and #2 signal caller Ty Detmer and then, following Peete's season-ending injury, from early October acquisition Mark Rypien as well ... saw his only action vs. Dal. (9/30) when he substituted for Detmer on the Birds' last play from scrimmage. On a subsequent "Hail Mary" pass attempt, however, Hoying was sacked by DT Leon Lett.

COLLEGE

One of the nation's most prolific quarterbacks while at Ohio State, Hoying finished his Buckeye career as the all-time leader in completions (498), completion percentage (58.0) and TD passes (57), while ranking 2nd to Art Schlichter in attempts (858) and yards (7,232) ... a first team All-Big Ten selection as a senior, Hoying ranked 2nd in the nation with a 170.4 passer rating as he finished the year 341-211-3,269-12-29TDs ... was the starting QB on an Ohio State offense with teammates who now rank among the best young players in the NFL,

PRO CAREER

A left-footed kicker, Hutton joined the Eagles as an undrafted free agent in 1995 and, after three seasons, now ranks behind only Joe Muha (42.9) on the Birds' all-time punting list with a 42.6-yard average ... enters the '98 season having played in 48 straight regular season games for the Eagles, tied with Barrett Brooks and Jimmie Johnson for the longest current streak on the club ... 1997: Finished the season ranked fifth in the NFC in punts (87), 10th in punting average (42.1), and tied for ninth in net punting average (34.6) ... helped the Eagles earn a 10-9 victory over the defending Super Bowl champions by pinning the Packers inside their 20 three times (@16, @4, and @1) ... for the third straight year, also served as the holder on placekicks ... 1996: Finished the year with a 42.6-yd. gross avg. on 73 kicks, including 17 that he landed inside the opponents' 20-yd. line ... after booting a 60-yrdr. vs. Car. and 59-yrdr. at NYG and vs. Mia., Hutton closed the season by booting a 50-plus yard punt in each of the final four games ... handled kickoff duties in games 1-5 before turning the job over to veteran kicker Gary Anderson ... 1995: After making the roster as an undrafted free agent, Hutton put together the finest season ever by a Birds' rookie punter ... ranked third in the NFC with a 43.3-yd. gross avg. on 85 punts ... earned the job after gaining the upper hand over fellow rookie Jeff Beckley (a free agent from Boston College) in training camp ... boomed punts of 50+ yards in 13 of 16 regular season games, including a 63-ydr. vs. SD and 62-yd. at Sea. and vs. Ariz. ... was a big contributor to the Eagles' Wild Card victory over Det. on 12/30, twice pinning the Lions inside their own 6-yd. line ... had a big performance at NO (10/1) where he placed all four of his punts inside the 20, including a pair of 51-yd. late in the 4th qtr.

VETERANS

COLLEGE

A four-year punter at Tennessee, he kicked 180 times for 7,329 yards (40.7 average) ... after making the Vols squad as walk-on, he went 32-1,341-41.9 punting as a freshman ... booted a career-long 71-yd. punt vs. Kentucky in '92.

PERSONAL

Married to Garnett Wilbourn on 4/4/98 ... resides in his hometown of Memphis, TN ... earned all-state honors after both his junior and senior years at Memphis University HS, where he was a placekicker, punter, and receiver ... has two younger brothers, Ben and Stuart ... claims his biggest fan is his 101-year old great grandmother, Alice (nicknamed "Greaty") ... a four-time academic All-SEC selection at Tennessee, he holds a degree in public relations ... during the past two offseasons, worked as a market research intern with Trammell-Crow, the largest commercial real estate company in the country ... hobbies include duck hunting, fishing, golf, and collecting antique duck decoys ... born 7/8/72 in Memphis.

PRO CAREER

The second of two sixth round picks by the Eagles in 1997 (the 198th selection overall), Jasper showed promise as a rookie despite seeing only limited action ... after being deactivated for three of the first four games, was worked into the defensive tackle rotation with starters Rhett Hall and Hollis Thomas and reserve Jimmie Jones ... went on to play in 10 games overall but was deactivated for games 12-14 after being hospitalized due to irregular breathing ... at Balt. on 11/16, in a game that saw the Eagles start young QB Bobby Hoying for the first time, Jasper's increased playing time went unheralded despite his key 3rd down stop of RB Jay Graham in the backfield during overtime ... made his first NFL start at Wash. in the season finale in place of RDT Rhett Hall (knee) and recorded his first pro sack vs. QB Jeff Hostetler.

COLLEGE

A three-year starter at nose tackle, Jasper posted 147 tackles, including 11.5 sacks for the Aggies ... notched career-highs in tackles (57) and sacks (4.5) during his senior campaign ... after redshirting in 1992 and seeing limited action in 1993, went on to start all 34 of Texas A&M's contests from 1994-96.

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Nicole, have a son, Nicolas (2) ... was an all-area selection at Troup (TX) HS where he played both tight end and middle linebacker ... his brother, Shane, was a standout linebacker at UCLA from 1991-94 ... majored in agriculture ... born Edward Videl Jasper on 1/18/73 in Tyler, TX.

PRO CAREER

Two years removed from the knee injury that sidelined him for most of his rookie year, this former third round draft pick worked his way into the starting lineup in 1997 at left defensive end and played solidly, especially in the closing weeks of the season ... 1995: The first of the Eagles' two third round picks in the '95 draft, Jefferson earned a spot on the roster and saw action on special teams in games 1-3 before having his rookie season cut short by a torn ACL in his right knee ... suffered the injury while on kickoff coverage vs. San Diego ... subsequently underwent surgery and was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 9/21 ... 1996: Held down a backup role on the Birds' D-line and tallied 23 tackles, including 2.5 sacks, in 11 games ... did not play in the opener at Wash., and was deactivated for games 2-3 before seeing his first action of the season at Atl. On his first play from scrimmage, pressured Atl. QB Jeff George into a pass that was INT'd by William Thomas and later in that contest split a sack vs. Bobby Hebert ... notched the first full sack of his career vs. Mia.'s Craig Erickson and added another vs. NYG's Dave Brown ... was deactivated for games 15-16 and the Wild Card Game ... 1997: Played particularly well late in the year recording career-highs of 10 tackles vs. NYG (12/7) and two sacks vs. Atl. QB Chris Chandler a week later ... overall, recorded career-highs in sacks (3.0) and tackles (55) ... started 11 of the 12 games he played at LDE (did not start game 3 at Dal. when Birds opened in a 3-4 formation) ... was deactivated for games 4-7 when rookie 1st round pick Jon Harris started at LDE.

COLLEGE

A quick and aggressive pass rusher, Jefferson finished his career at Division I-AA Central Florida with 31 sacks in 43 games (33 starts) ... led the Golden Knights in sacks during both his senior and junior campaigns with 8 and 15, respectively ... made 182 tackles and 11 forced fumbles during his four-year career.

PERSONAL

Greg and his wife, Twana, reside in Orlando, FL ... prepped at Bartow (FL) HS, where he garnered all-district and team MVP honors following his only season of high school football ... played only one year because he had to work after school to help support his family ... enjoys playing pool and video games ... has a twin brother, Craig ... majored in criminal justice ... Greg Benton Jefferson was born on 8/31/71 in Orlando.

PRO CAREER

After spending parts of six seasons with the Redskins, Lions, and Chiefs, Johnson joined the Eagles as a free agent on 7/31/95 and has since gone on to see action as a reserve tight end and on special teams for Philadelphia ... originally entered the NFL as a 12th round selection of Washington in 1989 ... spent three seasons with the 'Skins and was a member of their Super Bowl XXVI title team ... then spent '92 and part of '93 with the Lions after being acquired as a "Plan B" free agent and subsequently moved on to Kansas City for the '94 campaign ... enters 1998 having made 59 catches for 709 yards and 5 TDs in his career ... 1989: Despite being a 12th round draft choice of the Redskins (the 316th selection overall), he made the squad and played in all 16 games ... made a career-long 39-yard catch against the Raiders (10/29) ... finished his rookie campaign with four catches for 84 yds. (21.0 avg.) ... 1990: Played in all 16 games, including five starts, and finished the year with career bests in catches (15), receiving yards (218), and TDs (2) ... caught the first TD pass of his career in Washington's 41-38 overtime win over Detroit (11/4), a 4-yd. pass from Stan Humphries ... added another TD grab vs. Miami ... 10 of his 15 receptions went for 1st downs ... his 14.5-yds.-per-catch avg. was second on the team behind Gary Clark's 14.8 mark ... 1991: In the last of his 3 seasons with the Redskins, played in six games and made just 3 catches for 7 yds., but two of those resulted in scores ... caught a TD pass against Detroit (9/1), when he grabbed a 4-yard toss from Mark Rypien ... got his second score the following week in a Monday night affair at Dallas (9/9) ... suffered a neck injury at Chi. (10/6) that put him on the Injured Reserve list for the remainder of the 'Skins championship season ... as such, he was unable to play in Washington's Super Bowl XXVI victory over Buffalo ... 1992: Joined the Lions as a "Plan B" free agent from Washington in the spring of '92 ... went on to play in all 16 games, including five starts, and was used primarily as a blocker ... finished the season with 6 catches for 34 yards ... 1993: In the latter of his two seasons with Detroit, spent the first six weeks on the Reserve/Non-Football-Injury list with a blood clot before being activated on 10/15 ... played in the Lions' next six games, including five

PRO CAREER

The physical attributes and the overall promise displayed by this University of Miami product as a rookie in 1995 all came to the fore in his second pro campaign ... a big, strong wideout, Jones went from seeing little action as a rookie to becoming a full-time starter in 1996 and, in the words of then TNT football analyst Pat Haden, "one of the emerging stars in the NFL" ... Haden's statement, made just three weeks into the '96 season, proved prophetic as Jones went on to catch 70 passes for 859 yards and 5 TDs ... now, after recurring discomfort in his right knee made the '97 season a frustrating one for Jones, this fourth-year pro looks to return to health and rebound in a big way ... 1995: The latter of the Eagles' two third round picks, Jones was the 78th player chosen in the NFL draft and the 7th wideout selected overall after Michael Westbrook (Washington), Joey Galloway (Seattle), J.J. Stokes (San Francisco), Frank Sanders (Arizona), Jimmy Oliver (San Diego), and Chris Sanders (Houston) ... as a rookie, showed enormous potential despite seeing only a limited amount of action as the 5th receiver behind veteran starters Fred Barnett and Calvin Williams and backups Kelvin Martin and Rob Carpenter ... after being deactivated for the first four games, saw special teams duty and then played in 4-WR sets vs. StL and Dal. when Barnett was slowed by a quadricep injury ... recorded his first pro reception at Dal. - a 10-ydr. from Rodney Peete ... over the final seven games, a foot injury to Martin allowed Jones to move into the #4 WR role where he made 4 catches ... 1996: In what amounted to a breakout season, Jones jumped from the ranks of little-used rookie to ascending, young star when he hauled in more passes (70) than any of the six receivers selected ahead of him in the 1995 draft ... in addition, his 70 catches, 859 rec. yds., and 5 TD grabs all ranked second on the club behind only the big numbers of veteran Pro Bowler Irving Fryar ... opened the preseason as the #3 WR behind Fryar and another veteran free agent newcomer, Mark Ingram ... took over the starting role opposite Fryar, however, when Ingram suffered a fractured orbital bone in the preseason opener at Balt. ... got off to a quick start in the regular season going 6-82 at Wash., including his first TD catch as a pro, a 9-ydr. from Rodney Peete ... truly shined in a game 3 win over Det. in which he had a TD grab and set career-highs of 9 catches and 121 rec. yds. ... was then steady and productive the rest of the way, averaging 4 catches per game in a five-week stretch at midseason and nearly 5 grabs per game over the final four contests ... was 7-103-1TD vs. Wash. on 11/17 ... also grabbed TD passes of 2 and 3 yds., respectively, in games 13 and 15 vs. the Giants and Jets ... 1997: Entered the season in great shape after dropping his body-fat level from 14% to 6% ... nagging injuries, however, made the year a bitter pill to swallow for this rising star as he was limited to playing in just four games ... injured a hamstring on his second day of training camp (7/22) and missed two weeks ... started the final two preseason games before injuring his right knee in the preseason finale vs. NE ... was deactivated for the opener and underwent arthroscopic surgery the following day (9/1) ... missed two more games before returning to practice on 9/18 ... swelling in his knee during practice on 9/25, however, led to his being deactivated another week ... saw limited action in games 5-6 (vs. Wash. and at Jax.) playing extra WR sets ... was then expected to reclaim his starting job vs. Arizona the following week, but continued flareups in the knee led to his being deactivated again for eight games ... returned to practice on 11/26 and to game action on 12/14 at Atl. ... started the season finale at Wash. and made a nifty 32-yard catch-and-run and a clutch 4th down reception to sustain a scoring drive.

JONES (CONTINUED)

COLLEGE

Finished his career at Miami (FL) ranked 7th on the school's all-time receiving list in both receptions (105) and yards (1,640), and 6th in TDs with 11 ... was a unanimous All-Big East Conference selection after going 39-664-6TDs receiving during the '94 season ... the 'Canes leading receiver in each of his last two seasons, he caught at least one pass in 26 consecutive games from 1992-94 ... his 82-yd. TD recept. at Rutgers in '94 tied for the 5th longest TD catch in school history.

PERSONAL

Single ... resides in his hometown and birthplace of Palm Beach, FL ... actually goes by "Chris T." since his days at Miami where there were seven Joneses, including another Chris Jones on the Hurricane squad ... was an all-state WR at Cardinal Newman HS in West Palm Beach, the same school that produced current Miami Dolphin and former Hurricane QB Craig Erickson and current San Diego kicker John Carney ... also lettered in basketball, averaging over 20 pts. per game ... his brother, Bobby, was a starting center on St. Thomas University's (NAIA) basketball team ... enjoys fishing, basketball, and music ... graduated in May '94 with a degree in criminal justice ... born Christopher Todd Jones on 8/7/71.

PRO CAREER

Before becoming the Eagles' first round draft pick in 1995, Mamula caught the eye of NFL talent evaluators when he tallied 17 sacks as a junior at BC in 1994 and then augmented his on-field production with an awesome performance at the NFL Combine workouts prior to the '95 draft ... "Mamula was the show at the Combine, absolutely knocking scouts over with his amazing athleticism," wrote Eagles Digest's Dave Spadaro. "The personnel men who had seen so much over the years were frothing at the mouth." But for Eagles' coach Ray Rhodes, the determining factor was game-time production – Mamula's 17 sacks in his final year at BC set him apart from the rest ... 1997: Finished the season strong with a sack in three of the final four games ... also finished the year with a team-leading 32 quarterback hurries ... started all 16 games at right defensive end and also saw action at left end ... led the team in tackles at NYG (7) and vs. SF (9 - tying a career-high) ... in game 8 vs. Dal., the Cowboys continually moved all-pro RG Larry Allen to LT to face Mamula in passing situations (that rotation, however, cleared the way for Eagles' DT Rhett Hall to make 3.5 of the team's 6 sacks) ... 1996: Started 16 games at the RDE spot and finished the year with 8 sacks, second on the club to William Fuller's 13 ... led the team with 24 QB hurries and tied for the club lead in both forced fumbles and fumble recoveries with 3 of each ... ranked third on the club and tops among the Birds' defensive linemen in tackles (75) ... got off to a great start at Wash. with 2 sacks of Gus Frerotte ... had another multiple-sack effort in game 6 at NYG notching 2.5 sacks of QB Dave Brown. His final sack that day resulted in a 4th qtr. fumble that LB William Thomas returned 23 yds. for a TD, sealing a 19-10 win ... one week later he beat Miami's all-pro LT Richmond Webb to sack Craig Erickson at the Dolphins' 1 ... closed the year with a sack in each of the final two games - vs. the Jets' Glenn Foley and vs. Arizona's Kent Graham ... in that 29-19 win over Ariz., Mamula set the tone on the 2nd play from scrimmage as he sacked Graham, forced a fumble, and returned it 4 yds. for his first TD ... 1995: So coveted by Ray Rhodes and the Eagles' staff was Mamula prior to the 1995 draft, that the Birds traded with Tampa Bay in order to move up from the 12th spot to the 7th position in order to take him ... was in the lineup by opening day and went on to record 5.5 sacks ... 5 of those sacks came vs. two of the league's best tackles, all-pro Willie Roaf of New Orleans, and former all-pro Jumbo Elliott, then of the Giants ... overall, helped the Birds post 48 sacks, tops in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL only to Buffalo (49) ... excelled at NO notching the first two sacks of his career vs. QB Jim Everett ... in game 10, Mamula combined with William Fuller on a 1st-qtr. hit of Denver's John Elway that sidelined the QB for the rest of the game with a concussion ... then had a bittersweet outing vs. the Giants' Elliott on 11/19 as he earned NFC defensive player of the week honors by recording 3 sacks and a FF, but exited the game early in the 2nd half with a dislocated shoulder ... subsequently missed games 12-13 before returning to action vs. Dal. and to the starting lineup a week later ... notched a sack of Scott Mitchell in the Birds' NFC Wild Card Game win over the Lions.

VETERANS

COLLEGE

One of the most productive pass rushers in the nation in 1994, Mamula was a unanimous All-Big East Conference selection after compiling 17 sacks ... in 31 career games for Boston College, including 2 bowl games, notched 29 sacks among his 175 tackles ... capped his career by earning Aloha Bowl MVP honors after sacking Kansas St. QB Chad May 4 times ... his 13 regular season sacks not only led the conference, but were also a huge part of BC's Big East record total of 47 ... as an outside linebacker in 1993, he registered 12 sacks and garnered NBC-TV's player of the game status with a 14-tackle, 2-sack performance in a stunning upset of top-ranked Notre Dame.

PERSONAL

Single ... resides in Bala Cynwyd, PA ... attended Lackawanna (NY) HS in suburban Buffalo and earned all-state honors following his senior season ... was captain of the football, basketball and track teams ... was also the school's MVP in both basketball and track ... officially adopted the Philadelphia Special Olympics as his personal charity ... has a younger sister, Nickole ... holds a degree in sociology ... born Michael David Mamula on 8/14/73.

PRO CAREER

With one season as a starter under his belt, Mayberry, a first-round draft pick of Philadelphia in 1996 (the 25th selection overall) is now scheduled to make the switch from left tackle to left guard ... 1996: As a rookie first round pick, the massive Mayberry had been slated to be the Birds' starting left guard when training camp began ... a preseason bout with pneumonia and its lingering effects, however, caused him to lose a significant amount of weight and slowed his progress early on ... was subsequently deactivated for the first five games ... saw his first game action on special teams in games 7-8 vs. Mia. and Car., respectively, before being deact. for games 9-14 ... nonetheless, the improvement Mayberry showed in practice earned him the first starting assignment of his career vs. the Jets on 12/14, replacing regular LT Barrett Brooks ... went on to see special teams duty in the Birds' NFC Wild Card Game at SF ... 1997: Won the starting left tackle spot in a preseason battle with incumbent Barrett Brooks ... subsequently started the final three preseason games and all 16 regular season games at that position ... went on to be the only Eagles offensive lineman to play every snap in '97 ... showed significant improvement as the season progressed.

COLLEGE

Mayberry was a consensus Division II All-America selection and a two-time All-Lone Star Conference pick as a left tackle for Texas A&M-Kingsville ... during his career, Mayberry anchored a line that led the Javelinas to the Division II semifinals three times ... paced an offense that compiled 450 total yards and 40.1 points per game in his senior season ... was coached by current Eagles' offensive line coach Juan Castillo ... formerly Texas A&I University, this outstanding Division II program has produced NFL players such as Gene Upshaw, John Randle, Darrell Green, Johnny Bailey, Earl Dotson, and former Eagle RB Heath Sherman ... after playing behind Dotson during his freshman year, Mayberry spent 1993 at Navarro (TX) JC before returning to Kingsville for the '94 and '95 campaigns.

PERSONAL

Married the former Danielle Brown on 3/14/98 ... having suffered from amblyopia (an under-developed optic nerve in his left eye) throughout his life, Jermaine contributed $100,000 to a vision testing program sponsored by Eagles Youth Partnership, the charitable wing of the Eagles. This program, which has operated in conjunction with Wills Eye Hospital of Philadelphia since 1996, circulates the Eagles Eye Mobile (a 36-foot, mobile vision clinic) to Philadelphia area schools during the football season. Over the past two falls, more than 2,000 students have been provided with free on-site eye exams. Approximately 1,000 students received free prescription eyeglasses and nearly 100 of those children were referred to Wills Eye Hospital for treatment of more serious eye ailments. For his efforts, Mayberry received the NFL's Extra Effort Award for the month of Dec. 1996 and was honored this spring by Prevent Blindness Massachusetts ... was an all-state selection at Floresville (TX) HS ... also lettered in basketball ... majored in sociology ... Jermaine Timothy Mayberry was born on 8/29/73 in Floresville.

HISTORY OF EAGLES UNIFORMS AND LOGOS

On February 5, 1996, the Philadelphia Eagles took another step into the future as team owner Jeffrey Lurie unveiled the club's bold new logos, colors, and uniforms. As such, the Birds now wear Midnight Green – a new color developed exclusively for the Eagles – silver, black, and white on two new uniforms along with an updated helmet design.

On the helmets, a metallic Midnight Green replaced the traditional Kelly green as the base color. In addition, white Eagles wings – with bold new silver and black trim – go completely across the front of the helmet and around the sides. There are two different-colored pairs of pants and jerseys, one white and another Midnight Green. While the midnight green jerseys of 1996 featured the striking new Eagle-head logo on the sleeves, the white tops featured one green stripe and one black stripe. In 1997, however, the Eagle-head logo has been removed from the green pants and added to the white jerseys in place of the green stripe.

"The whole idea when we unveiled the new concepts in 1996 was to come up with something evolutionary, not revolutionary," Lurie said. "We wanted something that stuck to the tradition of the franchise, yet really contemporized it into something a lot bolder, a lot more powerful and a lot more exciting."

The new Midnight Green color replaced Kelly and similar shades of green, which had been the Eagles' trademark colors since 1941. The redesigned helmet marked the first change to the team's headgear since 1974 when the Birds switched from a white helmet with green wings back to a Kelly green helmet with white trim around silver wings.

Prior to the change introduced in '96, the Birds' game pants and jerseys were last altered in 1985. The changes made then involved removing the multi-striped pattern from the sleeves of both the home and road jersey and replacing them with what was then the team's primary logo, a soaring eagle carrying a football in its talons.

PRO CAREER

After spending the first six years of his career as a part-time starter in Detroit and the '94 campaign as a backup to all-pro Troy Aikman in Dallas, Peete signed a one-year deal with the Eagles in '95 and got the break he had been waiting for ... although Peete had joined the Birds as the primary backup to incumbent QB Randall Cunningham, head coach Ray Rhodes turned over the reins of the offense to the USC product just five games into his Eagles career – and Peete never looked back ... in fact, Peete took such a firm hold on the starting job that he did not relinquish it until being felled by a season-ending knee injury early in the '96 campaign ... it was during his 17-game stint as the starting signal caller in 1995-96 that the Birds posted a 12-5 record and Peete earned a well-deserved reputation as a gutsy, feisty, intelligent leader ... over that same span, Peete helped turn the Eagles' 1-3 start in '95 into a 10-6 finish, the top NFC Wild Card slot in postseason play, and a record-setting 58-37 playoff victory over his former teammates from Detroit; he then got the Birds' off to a solid 3-1 start in '96 before having his season cut short by the aforementioned injury ... originally began his career as a 6th round draft pick of Detroit in 1989 (the 141st player selected overall) and, despite being hampered by injuries during each of his five seasons there, posted five consecutive years of at least 1,300 passing yards ... joined Dallas on 5/4/94 as an unrestricted free agent and, as the #2 QB, enjoyed his finest hour as a Cowboy when he started in place of Troy Aikman and led Dallas to an NFC East division-clinching win at Phila. ... 1997: Began training camp in a battle with Ty Detmer for the starting QB job that was eventually awarded to Detmer after the third preseason game ... went on, however, to log two solid early-season relief appearances ... those outings earned him three starts before he again gave way to Detmer and, eventually, to second year pro Bobby Hoying once the Birds' playoff chances had dwindled ... nonetheless, a 2-1 record in Peete's three starts and his quality work as a reliever paved the way for the three-year contract extension he inked on the final day of the regular season ... his late-game heroics in road games at NYG and at Jacks., as well as in home wins over Arz. and Dal., propelled Peete to a high ranking among NFC QBs in terms of 4th quarter performance ... ranked second only to Vikings' Brad Johnson in 4th Q passer rating (111.0 on 53-36-446-4TDs) and paced all QBs in 4th Q completion percentage (67.9%) ... relieved Detmer midway through the 3rd Q of the season opener at NYG with the Eagles trailing 24-3; subsequently led two straight TD drives and had the Birds in position to tie the game before being intercepted deep in Giants territory ... next saw action down 35-7 early in the 4th Q at Jacks. and led the club to two TDs ... as such was named the starter vs. Arizona the following week ... Peete quickly paid dividends by engineering dramatic late-game drives in back-to-back victories over the Cardinals and Cowboys ... in a 13-10 overtime victory over the Cards, led the Eagles to a game-tying FG on their last possession of the 4th Q and to a game-winning FG in overtime ... a week later vs. Dal., rallied the offense to a 13-12 win with a 10-play, 74-yard drive capped by an 8-yard TD pass to Chad Lewis with 0:45 remaining ... after an ineffective start at Arz., however, was replaced by Detmer and returned to a backup role for the remainder of the season as Detmer started the next game and Hoying the final six ... 1996: After leading the Eagles to 9 wins in their last 12 regular season contests the previous year, Peete held off a preseason challenge from Ty Detmer, a veteran free agent newcomer from Green

Bay, and opened the year as the Birds' starting signal caller ... picked up where he left off in '95 and helped the Eagles fly from the gate with a 3-1 start ... in fact, so solid was Peete's start that he earned Miller Lite/NFL Player of the Week honors after leading Phila. past the Redskins on opening day with a 34-20-269-2TD passing effort ... on 9/30, however, in the 2nd qtr. of game 5 vs. Dal., Peete's season ended abruptly when he tore the patellar tendon in his right knee while planting his foot to throw ... Peete, who had entered that contest directing the league's #1 rated offense, had surgery performed by team orthopedist Dr. Arthur Bartolozzi immediately following the game and was subsequently placed on the Injured Reserve list on 10/3 ... at the time of his injury, Peete's passing #s for the season were 134-80-992-5-3TDs ... had actually begun the regular season with a sprained left knee suffered in the third preseason game at NE when he was hit by DE Willie McGinest late in the 1st half ... recovered quickly enough to have a super opener at Wash. and then, in a game 3 win over Det., enjoyed one of his finest days as an Eagle when he ran a QB sneak for a TD and posted a career-best 83.3% completion rate with a 30-25-284-1TD passing effort ... 1995: Leadership and a winning attitude were what Peete brought with him in 1995 when he joined the Eagles in April as a veteran free agent from Dallas ... began the year as the #2 QB behind Randall Cunningham but took over the starting job in game 5 and never looked back ... went on to lead the Birds to 9 wins in their final 12 games and to a playoff victory vs. Detroit ... said head coach Ray Rhodes, "Rodney is a fiery competitor who players respect. He brings an attitude onto the field; he'll bark at people. That's what it takes sometimes. You find it in the Marinos, the Montanas, the Youngs. They get what they need out of players. They find a way to win." ... although he finished the year as the NFC's 13th ranked passer (67.3 rating on 375-215-57.3-2326-14-8TDs), Peete truly emerged as a leader and a winner ... was the QB of record in every Eagles' win (including game 2 at Ariz., when he took over in the 2nd qtr.) ... prior to Peete becoming the starter, head coach Ray Rhodes had called on him three times in relief of Cunningham — early on at Ariz. where he led three straight TD drives; in game 3 for one play in relief of an injured Cunningham (shoulder); and in game 4 at Oak. when he replaced Cunningham in the 3rd qtr. ... five days later on 9/29, Rhodes moved Peete into the starting role ... in his first start (at NO), Peete was 28-18-173-0-0TD passing in a 15-10 win ... a week later vs. Wash. he engineered a 37-34 OT win by completing a career-high 30 passes (256 yds., 1 TD), including a 4-5-38 effort on the 73-yd. drive to the winning FG ... then played only the first half at NYG, suffering a concussion on a 2nd qtr. hit by DT Keith Hamilton ... returned to the lineup a week later in a win vs. StL ... went on to turn in a great performance in a win over Den. with a 2-yd. TD run and a 37-25-264-1TD passing effort ... a week later vs. NYG, led the Birds to a 21-7 half-time lead, but as in the earlier meeting vs. NY, an injury (this time a bruised rt. hip) forced Peete to the bench in the 3rd qtr. ... in the game 15 win over Ariz. that clinched a playoff spot, Peete withstood a pounding and delivered two 2nd half TD passes - including a 37-yd. game-winner to Calvin Williams - to help rally the Birds from a 17-0 deficit ... after struggling in the final two regular season games (2 TD passes vs. 5 INTs), Peete put together the finest performance of his brief Eagle career in a 58-37 Wild Card playoff win over his former team, the Lions (12/30) ... in that game Peete was 25-17-270-0-3TDs passing in his first career playoff start while directing the Birds to 5 TDs and 3 FGs in their first 11 drives as well as to a club post-season record 452 yds. of total offense ... his 3 TD strikes vs. Det. - including a 43-yd. Hail Mary to Rob Carpenter on the final play of the first half - tied an Eagles' playoff record ... likewise, his 43 & 45-yd. TD tosses vs. the Lions were his longest completions of the year ... a week later in the divisional playoff loss at Dal., a scrambling Peete suffered a concussion on a hit by SS Darren Woodson and left the game late in the 1st qtr. ... 1994: Signed with Dallas as an unrestricted free agent on 5/4 and saw action in seven regular season games as the top backup to QB Troy Aikman ... was 56-33-470-1-4TDs passing for the Cowboys, including a 17-10-172-1TD performance at Phila. in his only start of the year; the Cowboys won that game 31-19 and subsequently clinched the NFC East division title ... also guided Dallas to a 4th qtr. come-from-behind win at Ariz. when Aikman went out for the remainder of the game with a concussion suffered in the 1st stanza ... in that outing he went 19-12-186-2TDs passing, including a 65-yd TD strike to Michael Irvin ... also subbed for an injured Aikman (knee) vs. Wash. and went 5-2-20-1TD before suffering a sprained right thumb that sidelined him, too, for Thanksgiving day match-up vs. GB ... in the first postseason action of his career, went 0-2 passing in late-game action of an NFC divisional playoff victory over GB ... 1993: Started 10 games in his final season with the Lions and completed a career-best 62.3% of his passes (157 of 252) ... his best outing came at Min., where he went 28-20-273-1-1 passing in leading the Lions back from a 27-13 4th qtr. deficit to a thrilling 30-27 triumph — the comeback included a career-long, 93-yd. TD pass to Herman Moore ... was slowed early on by a week 3 hamstring injury that forced him to miss 2 starts ... dressed as the designated 3rd QB/deactivation for the last 4 games but did not play in those contests ... 1992: Returned from a '91 Achilles tendon injury to throw for 273 yds and 2 TDs in the season opener at Chi. ... went on to start a total of 10 games for the Lions and finished the year 213-123-1,702-9-9TDs passing ... threw for a personal career best 323 yards vs. TB, including 3 TDs, one of which was a 78-ydr to WR Jeff Campbell ... left game 13 at GB with a knee injury and did not play in the remaining 3 games ... 1991: As Detroit's starting QB, led the Lions to a 5-2 record before exiting game 8 vs. Dal. with a season-ending Achilles tendon injury ... was subsequently placed on the Injured Reserve list on 10/30 ... prior to the injury, Peete was 194-116-1,339-9-5TDs passing/25-125-2TDs rushing on the year ... enjoyed one of the finest games of his career in a win over GB by going 38-25-271-1TD ... extended Det.'s winning streak to five games by leading three 4th-qtr scoring drives as part of a 38-24-276-2TDs passing day vs. Min. ... 1990: Finished the year as the NFC's 5th rated passer (79.8 rating) by going 271-142-1,974-8-13TDs through the air ... posted a miserly 3.0 interception percentage, the 2nd lowest figure in Lion history ... also finished 2nd on the club's rushing charts with 365 yards and 6 TDs on 48 carries ... paced the Lions at TB with a career-best 97 yards on the ground, including a 9-yd TD ... suffered a hamstring injury vs. GB that sidelined him for the next two contests ... returned to starting role at NO, where he directed a Lion victory by going 25-16-246-1TD passing ... suffered another hamstring pull during a win vs. Wash. and missed the next 3 games ... returned in week 13 at Chi., throwing for 316 yards and a personal career-best 4 TD passes ... 1989: As a 6th round draft pick of Detroit (the 141st player selected overall), Peete earned the starting QB job until a knee injury in the final preseason game at the LA Rams sidelined him into October ... as such, made his regular season debut at Pitt. on 10/1 and went 20-15-160-1-1 against the Steelers ... went on to orchestrate Det.'s first win of the season and garnered NFC offensive player of the week honors by going 31-17-268-1TD passing/10-78-1TD rushing at TB on 10/15 ... at season's end, was named to Football Digest's NFL All-Rookie team by finishing with passing figures of 195-103-1,479-5TDs.

COLLEGE

A first-team All-America and All-Pac 10 Conference selection as a senior, Peete finished his career as Southern Cal's all-time leader in pass attempts (1,081), completions (630), and passing yardage (8,225) ... was also an All-Pac 10 third baseman for the Trojan baseball team in 1988, when he hit .338 with 12 HRs and 46 RBIs ... in 3 years of college baseball, he compiled a .297 batting avg. with 18 HRs and 84 RBIs, figures good enough to get him drafted by the Oakland Athletics in the 13th round of the 1989 amateur draft.

PERSONAL

Married actress Holly Robinson - a Philadelphia native - on 6/10/95 ... on the same day that he led the Eagles to a dramatic come-from-behind, overtime victory over the Cardinals (10/19/97), Peete flew coast-to-coast to witness the birth of his twin children, Rodney Jackson and Ryan Elizabeth ... co-hosted a celebrity fashion show with Holly at Super Bowl

PRO CAREER

The Eagles signed Sims, a veteran guard with three Pro Bowl appearances on his resume, on March 2nd in an effort to bolster the club's offensive line ... said head coach Ray Rhodes, "Keith is a big-time pass protector. He's a former Pro Bowl player who had some injuries over the past two seasons but he's completely healthy now. If he rebounds and can play like he's played in the past, he'll be a great addition to our club." ... now a ninth-year pro, Sims was a mainstay at left guard for the Miami Dolphins after being the AFC club's second round draft pick in 1990 (39th overall) ... during his seven-plus seasons in Miami he earned three consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl following the 1993-95 campaigns before an injury-plagued '96 season broke that string ... he also helped future Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino earn four Pro Bowl selections from 1990-96 ... 1990: Earned All-Rookie honors from United Press International, Pro Football Weekly, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest, Football News and the Pro Football Writers Assoc. ... made his NFL debut as the starting left guard in Miami's season opener at NE (9/9) ... started alongside first round pick LT Richmond Webb as the duo became the first Dolphins rookie draft choices ever to start a season opener on the offensive line ... started 13 games and both playoff contests ... started first four games before suffering left knee injury at Pit. on 9/30 ... underwent successful arthroscopic surgery by Dolphins' team physician Dr. Dan Kanell (father of Giants' QB Danny Kanell) on 10/2 to repair cartilage damage ... returned from injury at Ind. (10/28), replacing Roy Foster at LG in the 1st Q, and went on to start all remaining games ... 1991: Started 12 games ... suffered cartilage damage to right knee in game six at NE (10/6) and underwent arthroscopic surgery on 10/8 by Dr. Kanell ... was placed on Injured Reserve on 10/12 and missed four games before returning to action vs. Buf. (11/18) and starting the last six contests ... recorded his first NFL reception on a deflected pass from Dan Marino (9 yards) at NYJ on 9/29 ... 1992: Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at left guard as he helped the Dolphins reach the AFC title game ... 1993: In a breakthrough season, was voted to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl squad as a reserve behind starters Steve Wisniewski (Raiders) and Mike Munchak (Oilers) ... started all 16 games ... 1994: Was voted to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year and for the first time as a starter ... named second-team All-Pro by Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest ... selected All-AFC by Football News and UPI ... started all 16 games and both playoff contests ... 1995: Earned third career Pro Bowl selection, his second as a starter ... started all 16 games and Miami's one playoff contest ... suffered turf toe injury at Cinc. (10/1) that bothered him for rest of the season ... 1996: Underwent surgery on right big toe to correct turf toe injury on 3/22/96, a procedure performed by Dr. William Hamilton ... started 15 games at left guard ... played in 100th career regular season game vs. Ind. (11/10) ... made 100th career start at Hou. (11/17), but suffered right knee sprain that forced him to be deactivated the following week ... that injury halted Sims' streak of 81 consecutive starts dating back to 11/18/91 vs. Buff. (a mark that placed him eighth on the Dolphins' all-time list) ... returned to starting lineup at Oak. (12/1) ... 1997: Had surgery performed by Dr. John Uribe on 1/2 to remove bone spurs from quadriceps tendon region of knee ... started the first four games for Miami before suffering an injury to his left triceps and elbow ... had surgery performed by Dr. Uribe on 9/22 and missed games 5-9 ... then played in four games before being released on 12/9

PRO CAREER

An Eagles' practice squad player for the majority of his rookie year in '95, Solomon spent much of next season as the Birds' #4 wideout before emerging as a key playmaker in the nickel offense in '97, his third pro season ... 1997: Played in 15 games (five starts) and made several clutch receptions after initially failing to make the 53-man roster ... in fact, the second-year pro went on to rank among NFC leaders in 3rd down receptions (16-213-1TD) while finishing the year with 29 catches for 455 yards and 3 TDs ... was originally released on 8/19 when the roster was reduced to 60 players ... was re-signed, however, on 9/1 after WR/KR Antwuan Wyatt suffered a season-ending knee injury on opening day ... in his first game of the season, vs. GB (9/7), made the first TD catch of his career a memorable one - a 2-yarder from Ty Detmer with 1:56 remaining that gave the Birds a 10-9 victory over the defending Super Bowl champion Packers ... was nearly a hero again the following week at Dal. when, with the Eagles trailing 21-20 in a Monday Night Football clash, his 26- and 46-yd. receptions put the Eagles at the 4-yard line with :04 left (the Birds, however, unsuccessfully attempted a FG as time expired) ... after starting three games in 3- and 4-WR sets (at Min. vs. Arz., and @ Arz.), replaced injured Michael Timpson (shoulder) in the starting lineup as the #2 WR in weeks 12-13 ... caught a career-long 56-yard pass from Bobby Hoying to set up a TD at Atl. (12/14) ... also had two stints as the Eagles' punt returner, replacing Mark Seay in games 5-6 and again in games 10-13 ... 1996: Saw increased action when veteran Mark Ingram was idled by a knee injury, moving into the 4th WR slot behind starters Irving Fryar and Chris T. Jones and nickel receiver Mark Seay for the final nine games ... caught 8 passes for 125 yards and also returned 5 punts for 27 yards while playing in 12 games ... handled punt returns in games 1 and 3 but was deactivated for games 2 & 4-6 when Seay took over that role ... notched his first NFL reception vs. Car. - a 23-yr. grab from Ty Detmer ... 1995: Used his fine speed to earn a job with the Eagles as a rookie free agent ... was signed to the practice squad shortly after being waived on 8/27 as part of the final cut ... remained on the practice squad through game 15 before being added to the 53-man roster for the season finale ... was deact. for that game, however, and then dressed but did not play in the Wild Card Game vs. Det. and was inactive for the playoff contest at Dallas.

COLLEGE

Caught 61 passes for 1,359 yards and 20TDs during his tenure at South Carolina State ... also went 46-610-1TD on punt returns and 40-898-1TD on kickoff returns ... earned All-Mid-Eastern Conference honors in '94 after leading the league in rec. yds (893), TD receipts. (13), and KOR avg. (27.8).

PRO CAREER

A rookie third round pick of the Eagles last season (the 71st selection overall), Staley played in all 16 games ... beginning with game four, carved a niche for himself as the Birds' kick returner ... finished the season with a 24.2-yard KOR average that ranked fifth in the conference while his 1,139 KOR yards were the second highest single-season mark in Eagles' history ... improved as a kick returner as the season progressed, bettering his longest jaunt nearly every other week ... finished with four returns of 40-or-more yards, including a season-best 57-yarder in the season finale at Wash. ... saw limited action on offense in six games, mostly as a blocking back, but showed solid potential in his only extended offensive action (at Wash.) ... was impressive in that game going 6-30 rushing and 2-22 receiving ... was also a dependable tackler on special teams ranking third on the squad with 15 stops.

COLLEGE

One of the NCAA's best all-around running backs in 1996, Staley ranked 13th in the country with 1,116 rushing yards en route to earning first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors ... finished his two-year career ranked 13th on South Carolina's all-time rushing list with 1,852 yards and 17 TDs on 345 carries ... an extremely versatile back, he also hauled in 59 receptions for 489 yards and 2 TDs and returned 26 kickoffs for 566 yards in his two seasons with the Gamecocks ... transferred to South Carolina from Itawamba (MS) JC.

PERSONAL

A native of Columbia, SC, Staley was an all-state selection at Airport HS ... when asked about the origin of his first name, Staley said jokingly, "I was the second born. I guess my mom ran out of names." ... born 2/27/75 ... majored in sociology ... originally wore #41 in training camp as a rookie but changed to #22 (double deuces) when it became available after veteran DB James Fuller was released.

PRO CAREER

A young, hard-hitting defensive back, Matt Stevens was claimed off waivers by the Eagles on 8/25/97 after being released one day earlier by the Buffalo Bills ... originally a 3rd round draft pick (87th overall) of the Bills in 1996, Stevens played in 13 games (11 starts) during his rookie campaign in Buffalo ... after being inactive for the first 3 games of that season, Stevens replaced an injured Henry Jones (broken leg) at strong safety vs. Ind. (10/6) ... held down that role for the final 11 regular season games and the AFC Wild Card game vs. Jax ... finished the season with 49 tackles, 2 interceptions, and 8 passes defensed ... recorded his first career INT off Frank Reich vs. NYJ (10/20) ... grabbed his second INT in the end zone off Erik Wilhelm as time expired vs. Cin. (11/17) ... notched a career-high 10 tackles and batted away a Ty Detmer-to-Jimmie Johnson pass in the end zone with under a minute left to play at Phila. (11/10) preserving a 24-17 win ... 1997: In his first season with the Eagles, became a solid safety in the club's nickel packages as well as a special teams standout ... finished the year ranked second on the club in special teams tackles with 16 ... was released by the Bills on 8/24 and claimed off waivers by the Eagles the following day despite having a four-week suspension pending ... debuted on special teams at Jax. and was pressed into defensive action the following week ... joined fellow newcomers Randy Kinder and Tim McTyer in helping solidify the special teams coverage units that had started slowly ... in a 23-20 victory over Pit., was responsible for two of the Birds' five takeaways - both coming in the 4th Q - when he recovered a fumble on a kickoff return and intercepted QB Kordell Stewart with an over-the-shoulder catch in the end zone.

COLLEGE

Finished his career at Appalachian State ranked 2nd on the school's all-time interception list with 21 thefts ... was one of only four ASU players to be selected first-team All-America in back-to-back seasons ... set a school record and led the league with 10 INTs in 1994 ... named first team All-Southern Conference in 1994 & '95.

PERSONAL

Was an all-conference and all-area selection as a defensive back and wide receiver at Chapel Hill (NC) HS ... earned all-conference honors in track ... also lettered in basketball and wrestling ... majored in biology/secondary education ... born Matthew Brian Stevens on 6/15/73 in Chapel Hill, NC.

STEVENS' END ZONE DANCE

A player with a knack for big plays, two of Matt Stevens' three career interceptions have come in the end zone - one as a Buffalo Bill off the Bengals' Erik Wilhelm on 11/17/96 and the other as an Eagle off the Steelers' Kordell Stewart on 11/23/97. In fact, both of those thefts occurred late in the 4th quarter and helped preserve wins for his respective teams. Stevens also batted away a Ty Detmer-to-Jimmie Johnson pass in the end zone with under a minute left to play as the Bills prevailed with a 24-17 win at Philadelphia on 11/10/96.

PRO CAREER

In only his first two NFL seasons, this 1995 second-round pick of Philadelphia proved that he has the physical tools and psychological toughness to be one of the premier cornerbacks in the league ... an NFL All-Rookie team pick in '95, Taylor's development was accelerated in '96 when he was often matched up against opponents' best receivers and usually came out on top ... his coverage ability, coupled with that of Troy Vincent, a 1996 free agent acquisition from the Dolphins, has provided the Birds with one of the NFL's top cornerback tandems ... in 1998, however, Taylor seeks to regain that top-notch form after having his '97 campaign cut short by a knee injury ... 1995: The first of the Eagles' two 2nd round picks in '95, Taylor was selected with a choice obtained from Kansas City in a draft day deal that sent WR Victor Bailey and a 4th round pick to the Chiefs in exchange for the 50th selection overall and a later pick ... began the '95 campaign in a learning mode but prior to game 5 at NO was inserted into the starting lineup by head coach Ray Rhodes ahead of Derrick Frazier ... he then made good use of his 6-foot, 3-inch, 216-pound frame in encounters against some of the league's best, and biggest, receivers ... steadily improved and went on to earn a spot on the NFL's All-Rookie team as well as praise from FOX-TV football analyst Jerry Glanville who said, "[Taylor's] got a great future ahead of him. In three years I haven't seen a rookie corner look this good." ... garnered national recognition by twice earning NFC defensive player of the week honors in December - first holding Cowboys' all-pro Michael Irvin to just 3 catches in a win over Dallas (when he also broke up two Troy Aikman-to-Irvin bombs on the 'Boys final series) and then after putting the clamps on Lions' all-pro Herman Moore in a playoff win ... 1996: Big things were expected of Taylor heading into his sophomore season in the NFL and he did not disappoint ... often locking horns against opponents' top wideouts, Taylor tallied 62 tackles, 3 INTs, 23 pass deflections and 2 fumble recoveries while starting all 16 games ... was credited with his first NFL sack at GB vs. Brett Favre ... a week later, recorded his first INT of the season, snaring a pass by Det.'s Scott Mitchell in the end zone ... notched his 2nd INT of the year in game 6 at NYG off Dave Brown ... in a game 9 win at Dal., the Birds' first win at Texas Stadium since 1991, Taylor again matched up against Michael Irvin and held the all-pro to no receptions in the 1st half ... also registered an INT in game 15 off the Jets' Glenn Foley ... 1997: After being injury free in his first two campaigns and with stardom within his reach, Taylor's third season was cut short by injuries ... played in only the first six games and started just five of those ... saw limited pre-season action due to a groin injury that rendered him unable to start the opener ... then, when finally at full strength, suffered a season-ending knee injury in the 1st qtr. of game 6 at Jacks. (10/12) that required surgery by Dr. Arthur Bartolozzi ... suffered torn lateral meniscus cartilage and a partial tear of the anterior cruciate ligament of his right knee while breaking up a pass from Mark Brunell to Jags' WR Jimmy Smith and was placed on Injured Reserve on 10/17 ... said head coach Ray Rhodes at the time, "The loss of Bobby really hurts. I mean, with Bobby at that corner you know what you'd be getting from him every week - solid play." ... Taylor's best game - and an example of what might have been - came at Dal. (9/15) on Monday Night Football. In that game his two sacks vs. QB Troy Aikman resulted in fumbles, the second of which William Thomas returned 37 yards for a TD.

COLLEGE

Was named to numerous All-America teams following his senior season of '94 when he started 11 games at cornerback for the Irish ... a three-year starter, he finished his Notre Dame career with 142 tackles and 5 INTs ... his only sack came in 1994 vs. Florida State when he not only forced a fumble but returned it 57 yds for a TD ... ret'd an INT 31 yds for a TD vs. Navy in a 1993 game played at Veterans Stadium.

PERSONAL

Single ... resides in Sugarland, TX ... his father, Robert, was a track star and participated in the 1972 Olympics in Munich, Germany, where he won a gold medal in the 400m relay and a silver medal in the 100m ... attended Longview (TX) HS and was a USA Today and Parade Magazine All-America selection ... lettered in basketball and track and is a huge basketball fan today ... sociology major ... born Robert Taylor on 12/28/73 in Houston.

PRO CAREER

An undrafted player who went on to make a name for himself in just his first NFL season, Thomas was named to the NFL's 1997 All-Underrated team by Fred Edelstein who referred to the defensive tackle as, "A Ray Rhodes free agent find; a smaller Gilbert Brown" ... first impressed Rhodes with a home-made highlight tape he sent to all 30 NFL clubs; the tape included shots of Thomas wrecking havoc on the football field accompanied by the rapping of Eric B. & Rakim (I Ain't No Joke and How Can I Move the Crowd?) ... said Rhodes, "The songs fit the tape. It was about some bad dude, and the rap was going and Hollis was just wearing people's rear ends out. I'm sitting there, bouncing to the music and everything, and I was getting excited. And I said, 'This kid's a player.'" ... 1996: A long shot to make the club as an undrafted rookie free agent, Thomas defied the odds and not only fought his way onto the roster but capped his first pro campaign by earning NFL All-Rookie Team honors from Football News ... impressed Eagles' coaches from the moment he stepped onto the field during the club's spring mini-camp ... "From day one, this kid showed a motor," said Rhodes. "The first thing I saw was that he was fighting, and I mean fighting, to take playing time away from somebody." ... may have made as big an impact as any rookie free agent in the league in '96 ... finished the season with 64 tackles, 1 sack, and 12 QB hurries ... saw reserve action in every game before earning the starting left defensive tackle role in games 12-16 ... took over that role when he jumped ahead of vets Kevin Johnson and Ronnie Dixon, the original replacements for regular starter Andy Harmon, who missed all but two games in '96 with a knee injury ... notched the first sack of his career vs. Car.'s Kerry Collins, and in a game 9 win at Dal., helped set up the Birds' go-ahead FG when he pressured Troy Aikman into an ill-advised 4th qtr. pass that was INT'd by James Fuller ... 1997: Started all 16 games at LDT although he and starting RDT Rhett Hall often rotated with backups Jimmie Jones and Ed Jasper in order to stay fresh ... a solid runstopper, Thomas tied MLB James Willis for the club lead with a career-high 82 tackles ... battled through several injuries (strained abdomen, dislocated finger) but did not miss any action ... at Arz. on 11/2, led the team with a career-high 8 tackles, including 1.5 sacks vs. QB Jake Plummer ... also sacked Wash. QB Gus Frerotte (10/5) ... tipped a Vinny Testaverde pass that Willis INT'd at Baltimore.

COLLEGE

Completed his three-year Northern Illinois career with 202 tackles, including 31 stops for losses ... shared the NIU captainship as a senior, when he was selected to both the Football News and coaches' first-team All-Big West Conference squad.

PERSONAL

Single ... won two 4A state championships in football at Sumner (MO) HS, although he actually attended and graduated from nearby St. Louis Math & Science which did not field a football team ... lettered in basketball, however, at Math & Science ... an avid collector of shoes, he owns over 200 pairs ... majored in child development has 3 younger brothers, Cymandric, Jerome, and Biongo, and one sister, Maxine... born 1/10/74 in Abilene, TX.

their nickel unit ... made his 1st career sack on 9/22 vs. Pitt.'s Bubby Brister ... 1992: In only his 2nd season, served notice that he was quickly becoming a versatile OLB with a penchant for big plays ... made 2 very timely INTs - the first came at GB off Brett Favre at the Eagles' 7 while his 2nd (vs. Wash.) also halted a scoring drive ... recovered fumbles vs. Dal. & at NYG and again at Dal. in the NFC Divisional Playoff ... finished the year ranked 7th on the club with 94 tkls, including 1.5 sacks ... 1993: Established himself as one of the top young outside linebackers in the game ... for the year, finished 3rd on the club in tackles with 107, behind only fellow LBs Seth Joyner & Byron Evans ... in addition, had a career-high 6.5 sacks, 2 interceptions, and team-highs of 4 forced fumbles & 3 fumble recoveries ... over the final 7 games, truly displayed his big-play ability ... his totals in that span included 5.5 sacks, 3 FFs, 2 FRs, & 1 INT ... that stellar streak began vs. NYG with a career-high 16 stops, including a sack ... a week later at Wash., grabbed an INT off Rich Gannon ... added a key sack vs. NO's Mike Buck as he forced a fumble that resulted in a safety ... then finished the season strong at SF with 10 tkls and 2 FFs, one of which came on a sack of Steve Young and resulted in a 30-yd TD return by Evans ... 1994: Started all 16 games at RLB and finished 2nd on the club in tackles (126) and 3rd in sacks (6) ... trailed only SS Michael Zordich (130) in the tackle department and only DE William Fuller (9.5) and DT Andy Harmon (9.0) in sacks ... fell just shy of the career-high 6.5 sacks he registered a year earlier ... after MLB Byron Evans was lost for the year with a knee injury in game 10, Thomas took over Evans' role as the sole LB on the field in the dime defense ... big outings included 2 sacks vs. Hou. (10/24), an interception off Dallas QB Rodney Peete (12/4), and a 14-tackle/1-sack effort at Pit. (12/11) ... inked a contract extension on 10/27 making him an Eagle through 1996 ... 1995: Was challenged early on by head coach Ray Rhodes who said it was time for Thomas to turn it up a couple of notches ... indeed, he did just that ... earned his first selection to the Pro Bowl (as the backup OLB to Ken Harvey and Lee Woodall) after recording a career-high 7 interceptions ... those 7 INTs, the most by a linebacker since the Jets' Lance Mehl had 7 in '83, tied him for 3rd in the NFL behind Vikings' safety Orlando Thomas (9) and Lions' S Willie Clay (8) ... was truly a Cardinal and Giant killer, registering 6 of his 7 INTs in four games vs. those clubs ... had 2-INT outings vs. Tommy Maddox at NYG on 10/15 and vs. Dave Kreig in the playoff clinching win over Ariz. on 12/17 ... in that 21-20 win vs. Ariz., Thomas' 2nd theft came with 33 seconds remaining and sealed not only a victory but the Eagles' first berth in postseason play since '92 ... that effort also resulted in his earning NFC defensive player of the week honors ... had earlier returned another INT off Kreig for a 37-yd. TD at Ariz. on 9/10 and set up an Eagles' TD vs. NYG on 11/19 with an INT off Dave Brown ... continued his fine play in the Birds' 58-37 NFC Wild Card playoff win over Det. on 12/30, scoring the Birds' final points when he stepped in front of a Don Majkowski pass and returned it 30 yds. for a TD ... in a win over the Rams, registered a key 4th-qtr. INT off Chris Miller and alertly stopped a 2-pt. conversion try when he tackled LB Carlos Jenkins on a "swinging gate" play ... a quick and effective pass rusher as well, Thomas moved to LDE on passing downs in games 5-7 when starter William Fuller was sidelined by a pulled hamstring ... 1996: Once again put together a season full of big plays that - for the second consecutive year - resulted in his being named to the NFC Pro Bowl squad and as the Eagles' defensive MVP ... tied for second on the club with 3 INTs while also ranking third in sacks (5.5) and passes broken up (11), and fifth in tackles (71) ... in a week 4 win at Atl., registered the third 2-INT game of his career (with one theft off Jeff George and another of Bobby Hebert) ... earned NFC defensive player of the week honors two weeks later following a 19-10 win over the Giants when he notched 1.5 sacks vs. QB Dave Brown and returned a fumble 23 yds. for a score. The fumble return - set up by DE Mike Mamula's sack of Brown - came late in the 4th qtr. with the Birds holding only a slim 12-10 lead ... notched a sack of Wash.'s Gus Frerotte in game 11 and two more of Boomer Esiason in game 12 at Ariz. ... helped the Birds clinch a playoff spot with a game 15 win over the Jets when he sacked Glenn Foley once and then sealed the game late in the 4th qtr. with an INT off the Jets' passer ... 1997: Was voted by his teammates as the Eagles' defensive MVP for the third straight season and was leading the club in tackles before being injured in game 14 ... started 14 contests at right linebacker before a right knee injury vs. NYG (12/7) ended his season ... the injury, which occurred in the 100th start of his career, ended a streak of 79 straight starts (dating back to 12/20/92 when the Eagles opened in a 5-DB set) and forced him to miss the first game of his career ... still finished third on the club in tackles (81) and second in sacks (5.0) ... returned a Troy Aikman fumble (forced by Bobby Taylor) 37 yards for a TD at Dal. on Monday Night Football (9/15) ... made several big plays on the year, including two sacks vs. Dal. (10/26) and an INT off Bal. QB Vinny Testaverde that halted a Ravens' drive at the PE7.

COLLEGE

Was voted as the Southwest Conference defensive player of the year, a consensus 1st team All-SWC choice, and an All-America honorable mention pick as a senior when he led Texas A&M with 13 sacks ... as a junior, received All-America honorable mention acclaim after finishing 2nd on the team with 8.5 sacks ... a 3-year starter, he played his final 2 seasons at LB after beginning as a free safety.

PERSONAL

William and his wife, Susan, reside in Sewell, NJ, with their two sons, Zion Michael (2/15/95) and Noah Andrew Harrison (1/3/98) ... majored in sports management ... also lettered in football, track, and basketball at Palo Duro High in his hometown and birthplace of Amarillo, TX ... served as Delaware (PA) County's honorary chairman for National Alcohol Awareness Month in April 1996 ... an excellent golfer, Thomas also is a self-proclaimed EA Sports video game junkie ... has two older brothers, Darrell and Charles ... began seeing sports psychologist, Wayne Diamond, prior to the '97 training camp to help him with the mental preparation toward the game. Said Thomas, "A lot of it is upstairs. You have to believe you can make big plays. You have to take on a certain frame of mind to play well every week. You have to believe you can do it. That's about as simple as I can put it. If you believe you can play your best, you're going to play your best. I believe I can do it. I visualize it all the time. I'm visualizing myself making a sack, or an interception."

PRO CAREER

"If you line everybody up and pick a football team," said Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes, "Kevin's one of the first guys you'd choose. He's a tough kid, a throwback, an old-time football player. He comes to work ready to work and he does his job. He blocks his rear end off and may only carry the ball a couple of times ... but he doesn't say two words. He just plays football and he's a tough S.O.B. You need more guys like him on your football team." ... an unsung hero to say the least, Turner is one of the NFL's best all-around fullbacks ... after being a 3rd round draft pick of New England in 1992, Turner became a favorite target of Patriots' QB Drew Bledsoe and established himself as a hard-nosed runner and blocker before the Eagles lured him to Philadelphia as a restricted free agent in 1995 ... and despite having his first Eagles' campaign ended prematurely by a knee injury in game 2 at Ariz., Turner returned to the starting line-up in '96 and '97 to provide the versatility required from the fullback in the Birds' version of the "West Coast" offense ... with his dependable receiving, solid blocking, and straight-ahead running style, Turner became the perfect complement to the Birds' "Thunder & Lightning" backfield of workhorse rusher Ricky Watters and scatback Charlie Garner over the last three seasons ... 1997: Enjoyed his best season as an Eagle and proved to be one of the NFL's most complete fullbacks ... played in all 16 games (but technically started only 10 as the Eagles opened in a variety of offensive formations) ... recorded a career-high three TD receptions (at NYG, at Min., and vs. Cin.) and contributed 539 total yards ... wrote Eagles Digest's Dave Spadaro at midseason, "Always a terrific blocker, Turner is now more of a focal point in the running game as far as touching the football, and teams respect him as a threat. His lead blocking is an art form, making him one of the best fullbacks in the league." ... had an outstanding all-around game vs. Wash. (10/5) - had his longest run as an Eagle (29 yards), added four catches (three for 1st downs), gained 81 yards overall, and was the lead blocker for Ricky Watters' 104 yards ... vs. Cin. (11/30), Turner's lead blocking helped the Birds to 196 yards on the ground and his 4 receptions included a highlight-film TD catch when he grabbed the ball from behind DB Sam Shade's head ... 1996: Made a complete recovery from the knee injury that had shelved him for the final 14 games of '95 and became a vital cog in an Eagles' offense that ranked first in the NFC ... provided the trademark blocking and pass-catching ability that made him so attractive when the Eagles first pirated the restricted free agent away from New England ... carried the ball just 18 times but ranked fourth on the club in receptions with 43 (for 409 yds and 1 TD) while primarily serving as a lead blocker for RB Ricky Watters ... in fact, Turner's bulldozing style was a prime reason Watters earned his second straight 1,000-yd. rushing season and his second consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl ... started 12 of 16 games (DNS at Wash. when Watters

EXCELLENT RECEPTION ON TURNER NETWORK

- An excellent pass catcher out of the backfield, Kevin Turner's 11 career TDs include one via rushing and 10 as a receiver.
- In 1997, Kevin posted a career-high three touchdown catches. The TDs - all highlight-film material - were thrown by three different QBs (Rodney Peete, Ty Detmer, and Bobby Hoying).
- While with the Patriots in 1994, caught a 14-yd TD pass from Drew Bledsoe in overtime to beat Minnesota.

and Garner opened in a 2-RB set, and DNS in games 10-12 when the Eagles opened with a 2-TE, one-back set) ... hauled in a career-long 41-yd. pass vs. Dal. and a 23-yd TD strike vs. Buf. ... 1995: Philadelphia fans were deprived of an opportunity to see one of the NFL's best young fullbacks in 1995 when Turner had his first Eagles' campaign cut short by a season-ending knee injury in game 2 ... a huge free-agent acquisition by the Birds in the spring, Turner was expected to be the perfect complement to RBs Ricky Watters and Charlie Garner in the Eagles' backfield ... unfortunately, Turner was sidelined for the year when he suffered a torn MCL and ACL in his right knee while on punt coverage at Arz. (9/10) ... subsequently had surgery performed by Dr. Art Bartolozzi on 9/11 ... was the starting FB and was excelling on special teams prior to being injured ... 1994: In his final season with New England, started 9 games for the resurgent Patriots and caught a personal-high 52 of QB Drew Bledsoe's aerials for 471 yards and 2 TDs ... in fact, Turner, TE Ben Coates (96), WR Michael Timpson (74), RB Leroy Thompson (65), and WR Vincent Brisby (58) enabled the Pats to become the only team in NFL history with 5 receivers all surpassing 50 receipts. in a single season ... also went 36-111-1TD rushing ... on opening day at Mia., snared 7 passes and logged a 2-yd TD run ... caught a 14-yd game-winning TD toss from Bledsoe in OT vs. Min. as the Pats overcame a 20-3 halftime deficit ... 1993: Despite not moving into the starting lineup until game 6 vs. Hou., finished as the Pats' 2nd leading rusher with 231 yds on 50 carries ... made an even bigger impact as a receiver as his 39 catches for 333 yds. and 2TDs led all Patriot running backs and ranked 4th on the team ... had a personal-best 63 rushing yds. at Cleve., including a 49-yd jaunt that led to the winning TD ... registered a career-high 8 receptions for 61 yds. in an OT win vs. Mia. ... 1992: Saw action in all 16 games as a rookie, primarily on special teams ... was 10-40 rushing and 7-52-1TD receiving in limited offensive duty ... led all special teamers with 13 tackles ... made his first NFL start vs. SF in place of injured RBs John Stephens and Leonard Russell ... recorded his first career TD with a 19-yd reception from Hugh Millen vs. Cle.

COLLEGE

Enjoyed an outstanding career as a pass-catching and blocking fullback at Alabama where he left as the school's 4th all-time leading receiver, first among running backs ... in fact, his 48 receptions as a sophomore was the fifth-highest single season total in Crimson Tide history and again, tops among RBs ... started all 12 games during his senior season, going 73-432-3TDs rushing and 12-156 rec., while helping pave the way for backfield mate Siran Stacy's 966 rushing yards ... in 1990, started all 12 games and went 66-269 rushing and 26-240-1TD receiving.

PERSONAL

Married to the former Joyce Labbe (5/18/96) ... have one son, Nolan Reese (11/28/97) ... resides in Cherry Hill, NJ ... born in Prattville, AL ... was an all-metro running back at Prattville High where he served as team captain and earned player of the year honors as a senior after rushing for 1,077 yards on 165 carries ... also lettered in basketball and track ... majored in finance at Alabama.

PRO CAREER

After being the Miami Dolphins' first round draft pick in 1992, Vincent immediately became a starter at left cornerback and, over the next four years, forged a reputation as one of the NFL's top young coverage men ... recorded 14 interceptions for Miami in that span, including a team-leading five thefts in both 1994 and 1995 ... indeed, it was the profile of a young, ascending star that led the Eagles to sign Vincent (then a Miami "transition free agent") to an offer sheet in the spring of '96 - an offer that the salary cap strapped Dolphins could not match ... 1997: Vincent proved why the Eagles were excited about signing this rising young star as a free agent a year earlier ... entered the season paired with RCB Bobby Taylor to give the Eagles one of the top cornerback tandems in the league ... but when Taylor's season ended with a knee injury in game six, Vincent stepped up his play, matching up well against the opponents' top receiver week after week ... started all 16 games at LCB and finished the season leading the Eagles in passes knocked down (23) and tied with FS Brian Dawkins for the club lead in INTs (3 -- at Minn., vs. Pitt. and at Wash.) ... starred in the Birds' 13-12 win over Dallas (10/26), limiting WR Michael Irvin to just three receptions, all in the 1st half ... in the first Dal. game (9/15), broke up consecutive deep passes to Anthony Miller before being sidelined by a strained left shoulder with :08 remaining in the 2nd Q ... shared the punt return chores with Freddie Solomon for games (5-6) ... 1996: A highly sought after free agent "transition" player, Vincent officially became an Eagle on 3/3/96 and, along with RCB Bobby Taylor, provided the Birds with one of the NFL's top cornerback duos ... started all 16 games at the LCB spot ... after missing the first two preseason games with a strained groin, returned to the lineup in a season-opening win at Wash. ... but it was in the final seconds of a 31-21, game 9 win at Dal. that Vincent etched his name into the NFL record books. With Dallas trailing by 3 and facing a 3rd-n-goal situation at the Eagles' 3, MLB James Willis INT'd a Troy Aikman pass 4 yds. deep in the end zone and ret'd it 14 yds. Willis then lateralled the ball to Vincent who raced the final 90 yds. for a game-clinching score. As such, the combined efforts of Vincent and Willis resulted in the longest INT return for a TD in NFL history (topping the 103-yd. effort by San Diego's Vencie Glenn vs. Den. on 11/29/87) ... other big plays by Vincent included INTs off Atl.'s Jeff George on 9/22, Wash.'s Gus Frerotte on 11/17, and the Giants' Dave Brown on 12/1 ... helped seal a win vs. Car. when he forced two fumbles deep in Eagles' territory - one by QB Kerry Collins at the Eagles' 4 and one by Anthony Johnson that set up a Birds FG ... 1995: In his fourth and final season with Miami, Vincent started 16 games and the AFC Wild Card Game at Buf. and continued to establish himself as one of the finest young cornerbacks in the NFL ... tied for third in the AFC with five INTs ... had three INTs off Jets' QBs as he pilfered a Bubby Brister pass at NYJ (10/22) and had two thefts off Boomer Esiason on 9/3, including one that he returned 69 yds. for a TD ... also registered INTs vs. KC's Steve Bono and Buf's Jim Kelly ... 1994: Rebounded from a 1993 knee injury to play in 13 games, including 12 starts at LCB ... finished with 62 tackles and team-high totals of 5 INTs and 20 KDs ... those 5 thefts tied him for sixth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL ... was the Dolphin winner of the 1994 Ed Block Courage Award, an honor given annually to one player on each NFL team for his courage, strength, and leadership ... in season opener vs. NE registered an INT off Drew Bledsoe but was inactive for games 2-4 because of a sore knee ... returned to his starting role in week 6 at Buf. ...

posted 2nd INT of season off of Bledsoe vs. NE ... Vincent's 4th qtr. INT at NYJ set up a Dolphin TD in a come-from-behind win over the Jets ... registered an INT and his first career TD vs. the Chiefs. His score came following an interception by teammate Gene Atkins, who returned the ball 18 yds. before lateralling to Vincent, who then raced the final 58 yds. ... started both of Mia.'s playoff contests ... 1993: Despite having his season cut short when he suffered a knee injury in game 13, Vincent finished the year with 68 tackles, 2 INTs, a fumble recovery, and 11 passes defensed en route to being voted by the South Florida media as the Dolphins' outstanding defensive back ... his interceptions came in the season opener at Ind. (off Jack Trudeau) and in game 4 vs. Wash. ... in fact, the INT vs. Wash.'s Rich Gannon ended the Redskins' final drive and preserved a 17-10 victory ... however, Vincent tore ligaments and cartilage in his right knee on a reverse of a punt return vs. Pit. and underwent reconstructive surgery on 12/23 ... 1992: After Miami made him the 7th overall pick in the '92 draft, Vincent went on to start the final 14 regular season games and both playoff contests at LCB ... finished his rookie campaign with 77 tackles, 2 INTs, and a team-high 13 knockdowns ... for his efforts, Vincent earned NFL all-rookie honors from Football News, Pro Football Weekly, and College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... opened the season on inactive list (hamstring) ... posted a career-high 10 tackles at Buf., before registering his first career INT off of Jeff George at Ind. ... also recorded a theft off Cody Carlson vs. Hou. ... truly made his mark in the postseason as he garnered AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors following a 5-tackle, 2-INT performance vs. SD ... both of his INTs in that game (off Stan Humphries) led to TDs in the Dolphins' 31-0 win over the Chargers ... became the first rookie in Dolphin history to intercept a pass in a playoff game.

COLLEGE

A four-year letterman and three-year starter at Wisconsin, Vincent was one of the most honored defensive backs as a senior, when he garnered first team All-America honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly, The Football News and The Sporting News, while also earning co-defensive player-of-the-year accolades from the Big Ten ... was also a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top defensive back ... a dangerous return man for the Badgers as well, he averaged 11.4 yards and scored 3 TDs on punt returns and had a 22.0-yard kickoff return average during collegiate career.

PERSONAL

Troy and his wife, Tommi (3/19/94), reside in Fort Lauderdale, FL, during the offseason ... was born in Trenton and raised in the Fallsington Twsp. area of suburban Philadelphia. But when his mother, Alma, moved back to Trenton, Vincent opted to stay at Pennsbury High in order to obtain a better education. In the process, he moved in with the family of his best friend, James Bodley – years later, Bodley's parents, Linda and Jim, would become Vincent's agents ... earned letters in football, baseball, and track ... an avid motorcycle rider since his teenage years, Vincent owns an NHRA Pro Stock Motorcycle Racing team, that is sponsored by Com2001, Herman and Sons Beef Jerky, No Fear, Aera, and Alphabet City; his rider is Antron Brown ... Vincent's hobbies also include fishing as well as being an avid follower of boxing and track ... placed 3rd in the 1993 NFL's Fastest Man Competition ... is very active in the community and has done extensive work with Eagles Youth Partnership, the American Cancer Society, the Leukemia Foundation, Boys and Girls Club of Trenton, Trenton P.A.L., and the Make-A-Wish Foundation ... each year, Troy and his wife distribute 600 supermarket gift certificates to needy families in Trenton so that they might enjoy Thanksgiving ... said Vincent, "I'm very fortunate. My family will not go hungry. I wanted to do something for those who are not as fortunate as we are. I did these kinds of things all the time when I was in Miami but now that I'm home, it means even more to me" ... always one to remember his roots, he started the Troy Vincent Scholarship Fund in 1992 and gives $1,500 each year to a deserving senior from both Trenton Central High School and

VETERANS

Pennsbury HS. The $1,500 annual donation continues throughout the respective student's collegiate career as long as he/she maintains a 2.44 GPA. In 1998, Troy also donated $120,000 to renovate the weight rooms at both of those schools ... majored in landscape architecture.

WITH A LITTLE HELP FROM MY FRIENDS

During his NFL career, CB Troy Vincent has scored 3 TDs on interception returns, but actually made the INT himself on only one of those three plays (a theft off the Jets' Boomer Esiason that he returned 69 yards for a TD on 9/3/95). His very first score came when Miami's Gene Atkins intercepted a pass off the Chiefs' Steve Bono on 12/12/94 and returned it 18 yds. before lateralling to Vincent who covered the final 58 yds. His most recent TD came at Dallas on 11/3/96 when Eagles' MLB James Willis INT'd a Troy Aikman pass 4 yds. deep in the end zone and returned it 14 yds. before lateralling to Vincent who covered the final 90 yds. of an NFL-record 104 yd. TD return.

PRO CAREER

After fighting the injury bug in Green Bay, Willis was welcomed to Philadelphia by Eagles' head coach Ray Rhodes, who had served as the Packers' defensive boss in 1993 when Willis was plucked from Auburn in the fifth round of the NFL draft ... waived midway through the '95 campaign by the Packers, Willis signed with the Eagles shortly thereafter and earned his wings on Philadelphia's special teams over the rest of that season ... one year later, in 1996, Willis made the most of his opportunity and used his hard-hitting style to take over the Birds' starting middle linebacker role ... 1997: Held off a challenge in training camp from rookie James Darling and went on to tie DT Hollis Thomas for the club lead in tackles with a career-high 82 ... started the first 15 games at middle linebacker before a shoulder injury sidelined him for the season finale ... missed parts of other games due to a variety of ailments (at NYG - quad; vs. Arz. - groin; at Atl. shoulder) ... recorded the first two sacks of his career vs. Arizona - the first on QB Jake Plummer (10/19) and then Kent Graham (11/2) ... led the Eagles in tackles vs. GB, at Dal. and vs. NYG ... played his best game of the season in a win over his former Packer mates (9/7), recording a career-high 11 tackles despite missing practice all week with a hip injury; also recovered a fumble and forced Brett Favre into an errant throw that was INT'd by Rhett Hall ... intercepted a Vinny Testaverde pass at Bal. (10/16) ... 1996: Went into training camp as somewhat of an unknown commodity and emerged as a starter and key performer on an Eagles' defense that went on to rank 5th in the league ... began the season penciled in as the #1 MLB, filling the vacancy created by the departure of free agent Kurt Gouveia to San Diego; he then held off a preseason challenge from mid-camp acquisition Joe Kelly, a veteran free agent himself ... paced the Eagles with 9 tackles in the opener at Wash. and with 10 tackles at NYG on 10/13 on his way to finishing second on the club with 77 total stops ... although recognized as a hard-hitting MLB, the defining moment of Willis' first full season as a starter came when his pass coverage skill earned him NFC defensive player of the week honors from Pro Football Weekly and The Sporting News following game 9 at Dallas. It was then, with the Birds holding a 24-21 lead and the Cowboys facing 3rd-n-goal from the Eagles' 3 with just seconds to play, that he intercepted a Troy Aikman pass 4 yds. deep in the end zone and sealed a victory with a record-setting play. Willis returned the theft to the Dal. 10 before lateralling to CB Troy Vincent, who raced the final 90 yds. for a TD (overall, the 104-yd. play was the longest INT return for a score in NFL history, topping the 103-yd. effort by San Diego DB Vencie Glenn vs. Den. in '87) ... one week later, Willis suffered a sprained knee vs. Buf. that caused him to miss most of the next two contests ... returned to the lineup in game 13 vs. the Giants but missed another start in game 15 at the Jets due to an ankle injury ... 1995: Spent the first 8 games of the year on the Packers' inactive list before being released ... after signing with the Birds as a free agent on 11/1, was deactivated for games 9-11 before seeing special teams duty in the final five games (2 tackles) and both playoff contests ... in a huge game 14 win vs. Dal., made a jarring tackle on kickoff returner Kevin Williams early in the 1st qtr. to set the tone of the game ... 1994: Made a successful recovery from knee surgery that had shortened his '93 season ... played in Green Bay's first 12 games as a reserve before being inactive for the final four contests and both playoff games ... finished the season with 27 tackles and 2 INTs ... made the biggest play of his career in an opening day victory over Minn. when he intercepted a Warren Moon pass at GB's 22-yard line with 1:52 remaining and the Packers holding a 16-10 lead ... INT'd his 2nd pass of the season at Minn. (10/20), again off Moon ... 1993: As the second of Green Bay's two 5th round draft choices in '93 (the 119th selection overall), played in 13 of the first 14 games primarily on special teams and as a backup left inside linebacker ... filled in for an injured George Koonce (foot) vs. Minn. (12/19), but had his season cut short that very day when he tore the ACL and MCL in his rt. knee ... had reconstructive surgery and was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 12/23 ... saw his most extensive action of the year vs. Phil., making a season-high four tackles when he played in place of ILB Brian Noble (knee).

COLLEGE

Was an honorable mention All-America pick of Football News and a consensus first-team All-SEC selection at Auburn in '92 ... named co-SEC Freshman of the Year by the Knoxville News-Sentinel in 1990 as he led team with 123 tackles.

PERSONAL

Single ... has a daughter, Jade Elise (11/21/95) ... resides in his hometown and birthplace of Huntsville, AL ... majored in management information systems ... was selected as a Parade All-America, USA Today honorable mention All-America, and a first-team all-state pick as a senior linebacker at J.O. Johnson HS in Huntsville ... hobbies include weightlifting and listening to music.

PRO CAREER

While the words smart, rugged, and steady aptly describe Zordich, he might be better known as "the Eagles Unsung Hero" – after all, he was awarded that honor by his teammates following each of the last two seasons ... nonetheless, while all-pro and Pro Bowl honors may have gone to flashier players with more high-profile names, the Eagles' gritty strong safety has not been overlooked by John Madden, the noted FOX network football analyst who has twice named Zordich to his All-Madden Team in recognition of his hard-nosed style of play ... Zordich's career was also appropriately summed up by the Phila. Inquirer's Bill Lyon, who wrote, "He defies actuarial tables just as he defied the talent scouts -- he was released in the preseason his rookie year, sat it out, came back, caught on with the Jets, played in Phoenix, and now [continues on] with the Eagles. He has literally gone from a player no one would take to being the defensive captain of a team on the rise." ... just one year earlier, Lyon had said, "[Zordich] is 6-1 at a position where 6-3 is better. He is 212 pounds in a role where 230 is better. He is in [his 30s] at a position where 25 is better. And yet, when he was out with an injury, the Eagles defense looked disoriented, and when he returned, it looked crisper." ... indeed, despite having been waived in the 1986 preseason as a rookie ninth-round pick of San Diego, this smart, rugged safety has carved out a lengthy and successful NFL career ... after sitting out the '86 season following his release from the Chargers, Zordich signed with the NY Jets as a free agent in '87 ... filled a reserve role with the Jets until 1989 when he moved to the Cardinals as a Plan B free agent ... went on to be a starter for Ariz. for two-plus years prior to trading in the Cardinals' red for the Eagles' green & silver as an unrestricted free agent on 6/28/94 ... enters 1998 as one of only three holdovers from the pre-Ray Rhodes era along with RB Charlie Garner and LB William Thomas ... 1997: For the second straight season was voted by his teammates as the Eagles Unsung Hero ... started all 16 games and called the Eagles' defensive formations from his strong safety position ... led all Eagles' DBs with 80 tackles (4th on the club) ... was added to the kickoff coverage team early in the season to help strengthen the struggling unit (his first time covering KOs since 1993) ... intercepted Gus Frerotte vs. Wash. (10/5) ... had sacks of QB Kordell Stewart vs. Pit. (11/23) and QB Stoney Case vs. Arz. (10/19) ... recovered Bengal Greg Myers' fumble on a kickoff to set up an Eagles TD (11/30) ... 1996: Although he once again played in the shadow of more celebrated defensive mates such as Pro Bowl picks William Thomas and William Fuller, Zordich's fine play was duly noted when his teammates selected him as the club's 1996 Unsung Hero ... for the second time in three years, led the Birds in tackles (96) ... also paced the club with 4 INTs ... closed the campaign by intercepting 3 passes in the final two games - one off Arz.'s Kent Graham and two off the Jets' Glenn Foley in a come-from-behind win that put the Birds in the playoffs. His two 2nd-half thefts off Foley set up two TDs, including the game winner with 5:29 to play, and gave him the first 2-INT game of his career ... notched his first INT of '96 vs. Atl.'s Bobby Hebert ... 1995: Put together a season that head coach Ray Rhodes felt should have landed him in the Pro Bowl ... Zordich was, however, named to the All-Madden team by FOX-TV analyst John Madden ... started 15 games, missing only game 4 at Oak. (groin) ... led all Eagles' DBs with 74 tackles while also making numerous big plays ... earned NFL defensive player of the week honors from Pro Football Weekly for his effort at NYG (10/15) where he picked up a Rodney Hampton fumble and scampered 58 yds. for a TD and later stepped in front of a Tommy Maddox pass for the game-clinching INT ... in a come-from-behind game 14 win vs. Dal., "Z" pounced on an Emmitt Smith fumble at the Eagles' 2-yd. line with 13:52 remaining to play and the Eagles trailing 17-14 ... made a key play vs. Den. (11/12) when his 4th qtr. sack forced a fumble by QB Hugh Millen that set up an Eagles TD ... 1994: Joined the Eagles as an unrestricted free agent on 6/28 and solidified the secondary with a team-leading 130 tackles and a personal-best 4 INTs ... was selected to the All-Madden Team by FOX-TV football analyst John Madden ... thrived at strong safety, his natural position, after having played free safety for Arizona ... closed the season with a big effort at Cin. where he returned an INT off Jeff Blake 18 yards for a TD and also forced and recovered a fumble ... thwarted a Cardinals drive on 11/6 with a sack, forced fumble, and fumble recovery — all on the same play — vs. Steve Beuerlein set up two scores in a win over GB (9/18) with an end zone INT off Brett Favre and a fumble recovery on consecutive series ... 1993: After serving as the Cardinals starting free safety in '91 & '92, began the year in a reserve role behind newly acquired free agent Chuck Cecil ... did, however, start the final 9 contests in place of the injured Cecil ... posted 54 tackles, an interception (at Atl.) and two forced fumbles ... 1992: As the Cards' starting free safety, made 61 tackles, intercepted 3 passes, and knocked away 11 others ... made a key INT to thwart a Wash. scoring drive in the first half of a victory over the Redskins ... added his 2nd INT of the season in 19-0 shutout over NY Giants (12/12) ... followed suit the next week with another INT, this time setting up a score at Indy ... 1991: Started all 16 games and collected a career-best 87 tkls ... batted a ball in air that Tim McDonald INT'd to thwart a late scoring drive in a season-opening victory at LA Rams ... compiled a season-high 10 tkls at Dal (11/3) ... 1990: Led all Cardinal non-starters with 27 tkls as a valuable reserve DB ... was impressive in run support as well as pass defense in his role as a situational player ... made a season-best 9 tkls vs. NYG ... helped seal a victory at Atl with a 38-yd INT return late in the 4th qtr. ... 1989: Was signed by the Cards as a Plan B free agent from the Jets on 3/2 and supplied tough, smart play in 16 games, including 7 starts ... made 59 tkls, including a sack, and returned his one INT for a TD ... saw extensive action in a season-opening win over Det. after starter Lonnie Young suffered an elbow injury and then proceeded to start the next 7 contests until Young's return ... received a game ball for his performance in a win over Dallas after he made 6 tkls, scored on an INT and downed a key punt on the 5-yd line ... 1988: Appeared in 16 games for the Jets, made 10 tkls and returned one INT 35 yds. for a TD vs. Hou. (9/18) ... also ranked 4th on the club with 19 special teams tkls ... 1987: Signed with the NY Jets as a free agent but was released on final roster cutdown on 9/6 ... however, was re-signed by the club on 10/20 and went on to make 9 tkls and one sack as reserve DB and 9 special teams stops in the final 10 games.

COLLEGE

A four-year letterman at Penn State, Zordich earned consensus All-America and All-East acclaim after his senior season ... was a member of the Nittany Lions' '82 national championship squad ... finished his collegiate career as the school's 12th all-time leading tackler with 201 stops.

PERSONAL

He and his wife Cindy reside in Garfield, OH, during the offseason with their sons, Michael Vincent (10/29/89) and Alex (7/5/91), and daughter Aidan (5/9/93) ... co-sponsors a charity golf tournament with former Eagle QB and current Bears' asst. Matt Cavanaugh in their hometown of Youngstown, OH, during the offseason ... was a football and baseball standout at Chaney HS in Youngstown ... received a degree in hotel, restaurant and institutional management ... born 10/12/63.

ZORDICH'S MANY HAPPY RETURNS

- SS Michael Zordich has played for 3 NFL teams and returned an interception for a TD with all 3 clubs
- Zordich's four career TDs (chronologically):
 - (1) 35-yd INT ret. for Jets vs. Hou., 9/18/88 (QB Brent Pease)
 - (2) 16-yd INT ret. for Cards vs. Dal., 10/29/89 (QB Steve Walsh)
 - (3) 18-yd INT ret. for Eagles at Cin., 12/24/94 (QB Jeff Blake)
 - (4) 58-yd fumble ret. for Eagles at NYG, 10/15/95

VETERANS STADIUM

The Eagles have called Veterans Stadium home since 1971 after previous stops at Municipal (JFK) Stadium, Connie Mack Stadium, and Franklin Field. In their history, the Birds have also played home games at the Baker Bowl, Temple University Stadium, and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field during the 1943 season.

Veterans Stadium, known as "the Vet," is a multi-purpose sports complex located in South Philadelphia. Built on a 74-acre site, the sports complex also includes a recreational park, the CoreStates Spectrum indoor arena, and the new CoreStates Center, home of the Philadelphia Flyers and 76ers. The Core States Center was built upon the former site of JFK Stadium.

The Vet was opened before the Phillies' 1971 baseball season and was built at a cost in excess of $50 million. The Eagles and Phillies maintain their executive offices in the stadium.

In February, 1995, the field at the Vet was replaced with a new synthetic turf called Astro Turf-8. This new state-of-the-art surface features a vertical drainage system whereby water will drain through holes in the turf, its padding, and the stone and earth sub-base.

In 1986, the Eagles installed two grass practice fields in the north parking lot of the Vet. In 1992, "the Bubble," an inclement weather facility, was moved from the former JFK Stadium site to a spot adjacent to the grass practice fields. The Bubble consists of a synthetic roof supported by currents of air and covers a 70-yard Astro Turf field. It was installed by Air Structures International, Inc.

In 1985, 27 luxurious Penthouse Suites were built atop the south side of the stadium. Twenty-four more Suites were constructed the following year on the north side. Thirty-eight additional Suites on the west side were constructed in 1987 to bring the total number of Suites to 89.

The first Eagles' game at the Vet took place on August 16, 1971, when they defeated the Buffalo Bills in a preseason encounter, 34-28. The first regular season win came at the expense of the New York Giants, 23-7, on October 24, 1971.

In 26 seasons at Veterans Stadium, the Eagles have compiled an 118-93-2 record (including a 4-3 playoff mark). The seating capacity for football is 65,352.

OTHER VETERANS WITH NFL EXPERIENCE

Players profiled in this section have spent some time during an NFL regular and/or postseason on a club's 53-man roster, injured reserve list, practice squad or have attended an NFL club's training camp.

ALUNDIS BRICE, CB (5-10, 190)

Now entering his third NFL season, Brice has proven to be tough both physically and mentally throughout his career ... after overcoming a gunshot wound, a torn anterior cruciate ligament and a fractured kneecap, Brice is now determined to return to action once again after signing with the Eagles on 4/24/98 ... sustained a gunshot wound to his chest prior to the '95 draft while playing the role of peacemaker in an on-campus altercation at Mississippi (spent 11 days in the hospital after the bullet nearly struck his heart) ... just two years later, while rehabilitating an injured knee that shortened his '96 season, Brice suffered a fractured kneecap and subsequently missed the entire '97 season ... originally a fourth round draft choice of Dallas (the 129th selection overall) in 1995, he earned a roster spot as a rookie with an impressive preseason that included two INTs vs. Hou., one of which he returned for a TD ... went on to be a member of the Cowboys' Super Bowl XXX championship team, playing in the nickel defense and on special teams in 10 regular season games and all three postseason contests ... recorded his first INT vs. Arz's Dave Kreig (9/24/95) ... in 1996, saw action at cornerback in every game of before tearing the ACL in his left knee at Arz. (12/8) ... earned 1st team All-SEC and 2nd team All-America honors as a senior at Mississippi ... became only the third player in Ole Miss history to record 7 INTs in a season and did so as both a junior and senior ... returned two INTs for TDs as a junior when the Rebels led the nation in fewest total yards allowed (234.5) ... played wide receiver as a sophomore ... was selected as the Chuckie Mullins Courage Award winner prior to his senior season and changed his jersey number to 38 in honor of the former Rebel who was paralyzed while playing at Ole Miss ... also lettered in track ... born 5/1/70 in Brookhaven, MS ... majored in social work ... lettered in football and track at Brookhaven High.

JASON DULICK, WR (6-4, 200)

Originally signed with Tennessee as a rookie free agent in 1997 but was released during training camp ... signed with the Eagles on 4/21/98 ... finished his career ranked 2nd on Illinois all-time receiving list with 169 receptions for 2,004 yards and 15 TDs ... led the Fighting Illini in receptions as a sophomore (52), junior (36) and senior (53) ... single ... born 5/26/74 ... majored in history ... earned all-state honors after posting 86-1,223-15TD receiving numbers as a senior at University HS in St. Louis, MO (the same school which produced Bills' safety Henry Jones) ... also lettered in basketball ... lists former Eagles' QB Randall Cunningham among his childhood heroes.

JOHN FISHER, FS (5-11, 200)

Originally was a sixth round choice of Jacksonville (the 170th choice overall) in 1996 ... after playing running back as a senior at Missouri Western, was converted by the Jaguars back to his original college position - defensive back ... suffered a broken right ankle in the preseason finale during his rookie year and was placed on Injured Reserve ... came back healthy in '97 but was released by Jacksonville in training camp on 8/13 ... signed with the Eagles on 4/9/98 ... earned All-Missouri Athletic Association honors as a junior defensive back and then as a running back following his senior campaign ... as a senior, often saw action on both offense and defense in the same game as he started eight games at running back and topped the 100-yard rushing mark each time... ended his collegiate career 254-1,336-14TDs rushing and 14-163-3TDs receiving, while recording 141 tackles and 9 interceptions on defense ... was a finalist for the Harlan Hill Award given annually to the top Division II player ... attended Shasta (CA) Community College in 1992 where he set a JUCO record with 7 TDs in one game ... earned all-conference recognition as prep star at Skyline High in Oakland ... resides with his wife, Beverly, in his hometown and birthplace of Oakland, CA ... born 7/28/73 ... earned a degree in criminal justice.

1997 GAME-BY-GAME REVIEW

GAME 1
SUNDAY, AUGUST 31, 1997
NY GIANTS 31, PHILADELPHIA 17
GIANTS STADIUM

The Eagles opened their third season under the direction of head coach Ray Rhodes with a trip to the Meadowlands where they fell to the host New York Giants, 31-17. The New Yorkers turned a 14-3 halftime lead into a 24-3 advantage before backup QB Rodney Peete came on midway through the third quarter to rally the Eagles. Rhodes inserted Peete into the lineup after starter Ty Detmer (25-9-103-0-0TDs) and the Birds' offense failed to get in sync. Peete quickly led two TD drives. The first, a 10-play, 81-yd drive, was highlighted by Mark Seay's diving catch of a 38-yd pass and capped by a Ricky Watters TD run. The second came on Philadelphia's next possession when Peete finished off a 10-play, 68-yd drive with a scoring toss to FB Kevin Turner that brought the Birds to within 7 points at 24-17. Minutes later, Seay's 42-yd punt return into New York territory put Philadelphia in position to tie the game. Peete, however, was victimized by Giants' rookie safety Sam Garnes, who intercepted a pass intended for Irving Fryar and raced 95 yards for a TD and a 31-17 Giants lead with 4:58 to play. Chad Bratzke sealed the Birds' fate shortly thereafter when his sack of Peete (one of nine by the Giants) resulted in a fumble that New York recovered ... The Giants had jumped out to a 7-0 lead when FB Charles Way took a short pass from Dave Brown and raced 62 yds to set up Brown's 3-yd TD run on a quarterback draw. New York missed an opportunity to take a 14-3 lead early in the 2nd quarter when miscommunication in the Eagles secondary resulted in WR Thomas Lewis being left all alone deep down the sideline. Lewis, however, stumbled after making the catch and New York eventually missed a FG. Nonetheless, the Giants did add a TD just before the half when rookie RB Tiki Barber's 21-yd run and 28-yd catch set up Chris Calloway's grab of a TD bullet from Brown. After intermission, Lewis returned the 2nd half kickoff 84 yds to the PE 8. Two Barber runs later, New York went on top 24-3 ... NOTES: While New York had five plays of 20-yds-or-more in the first half, the Eagles shot themselves in the foot with nine penalties during the same span, and finished the day with 11 penalties in all ... For the Giants, Barber finished the day 20-88-1TD rushing and 3-32 receiving in his pre-debut; Brown was 27-13-193-0-1TD passing and ran for one score. Philadelphia's Peete was 23-17-268-1-1TD in his one-and-a-half quarters of action ... Philadelphia opened the game without four starters - LB Darrin Smith (ankle) and WR Chris T. Jones (knee) were game-day deactivations; CB Bobby Taylor (groin) played only in a limited role; veteran RT Richard Cooper (torn tricep) was idle after having been placed on the Injured Reserve list. During the game, the Birds lost WR/KR Antwan Wyatt, a promising rookie 6th round pick, for the season when Wyatt suffered a ruptured ACL in his left knee.

GAME 2
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1997
PHILADELPHIA 10, GREEN BAY 9
VETERANS STADIUM

In a game that featured a furious finish, the Eagles upended the defending Super Bowl champion Packers 10-9. With a solid defensive effort, Philadelphia held Green Bay to just three field goals. As such, the Birds halted all-pro QB Brett Favre and the Packers' string of 85 straight regular and postseason games with a touchdown ... Trailing 9-3 with 11:18 left to play, Philadelphia capped a 19-play, 80-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss from QB Ty Detmer to WR Freddie Solomon. The extra point kick by Chris Boniol gave the Eagles their first lead of the day at 10-9. Moments later, Bill Schroeder's 40-yard kick return to the GB 47 gave the Pack good field position with 1:48 left on the clock. Then, after LB William Thomas sacked Favre on 3rd-n-10, Favre and WR Derrick Mayes hooked up on a 28-yard completion to put Green Bay at the Birds' 31. Five Dorsey Levens runs later, rookie kicker Ryan Longwell pushed a 28-yard FG try wide to the right and Philadelphia had its first win of the '97 season ... The Eagles' defenders held Favre to just 19 completions in 41 attempts but saved their best for short-yardage situations. Trailing 3-0 late in the first half, Philadelphia's defense stiffened deep in its own end. Five straight times the Pack had a crack at the end zone from inside the Birds' 4-yard line. Five straight times the Birds shut the door. The result was a Longwell FG and only a 6-0 halftime lead for Green Bay ... After intermission, Philadelphia had its third scoring opportunity of the day when DT Rhett Hall intercepted a shovel pass by Favre at the PE 46 and returned it 39 yds. to the GB 15. (Earlier, in the first quarter, Philadelphia's Detmer fumbled a snap at the Packers 1-yard line; then, in the 2nd quarter, after MLB James Willis recovered a fumble by Packers FB William Henderson, Philadelphia came up empty when Boniol's 48-yd FG try sailed wide). This time, however, Boniol's 32-yard FG cut Green Bay's lead to 6-3. Two series later, the Pack reached the Birds' 7 but again had to settle for a FG and a 9-3 lead. With that, the stage was set for the dramatic 4th quarter ... NOTES: For the Eagles, Solomon proved to be an unlikely hero. After being released on the roster cut to 60 players during the preseason, the second-year pro was re-signed one day after rookie WR/KR Antwuan Wyatt suffered a season-ending knee injury on opening day vs. the NY Giants ... Philadelphia's Irving Fryar posted game-high figures for catches and yards. Fryar's 8 receptions moved him into a tie with Ozzie Newsome for 10th place (662) in league history while his 125 yards enabled him to vault ahead of Hall of Famer Lance Alworth and into the 12th spot on the NFL's career receiving yardage list ... Overall, Green Bay won the statistical battle - outgaining Philadelphia 380 yards to 258 with five receivers each hauling in a pass of 20-yards-or-more - but lost the war.

GAME 3
MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1997
DALLAS 21, PHILADELPHIA 20
TEXAS STADIUM

The Eagles suffered one of their most heart-breaking losses in recent memory when they dropped a 21-20 decision to the host Dallas Cowboys in a nationally televised (ABC) Monday Night Football clash. Clinging to a 20-15 lead with under a minute remaining, the Eagles, who had not allowed an offensive touchdown since the third quarter of their opener against the NY Giants (a span of 8 quarters), permitted a Troy Aikman-to-Anthony Miller scoring strike from 14 yards out that gave the Cowboys a 21-20 lead. (Dallas's subsequent two-point attempt failed). Then, with 51 seconds left, the Birds took over at their own 16. QB Ty Detmer quickly connected with WR Freddie Solomon on a 26-yard pass and WR Michael Timson for 13 yards before finding Solomon again for a 46-yard catch-and-run that put the Eagles at the Dallas 4-yard line for the game-winning field goal attempt by former Cowboy K Chris Boniol with 0:04 left on the clock. However, Steve Everitt's snap was bobbed by holder Tom Hutton, who scrambled toward the end zone but fumbled and recovered the ball before being stopped by CB Deion Sanders as the Cowboys prevailed ... The Eagles had controlled the game from the outset as they jumped out to a 17-3 lead in the first half. With the score tied 3-3, Eagles blitzing CB Bobby Taylor notched his second sack and forced fumble of the game as he dumped Aikman at the Cowboy 40. LB William Thomas scooped up the loose ball and raced 37 yards for a TD. Earlier in the first stanza, Taylor's sack of Aikman forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Ray Farmer; that play led to a 49-yard FG by Boniol. In the 2nd quarter, Detmer and RB Ricky Watters led the Eagles on a 12-play, 69-yard drive that was capped by a 12-yard TD pass to rookie TE Chad Lewis. For Lewis, who earned his first NFL start, the TD was the first of his career. After Boniol misfired on a 45-yard FG late in the 1st half, Cowboys K Richie Cunningham nailed a 48-yarder to narrow Dallas's deficit to 17-6 ... The Cowboys opened the 2nd half with another Cunningham FG before Boniol answered with a 44-yarder early in the 4th quarter. After Cunningham made the score 20-15 with a 22-yard FG with 5:25 remaining, the Eagles could not convert a first down and thus set the stage for the Aikman-to-Miller TD pass and the wild finish ... The loss spoiled a solid defensive effort by the Eagles, who held RB Emmitt Smith in check most of the night. Although he gained 91 yards, Smith's longest gain was 9 yards and his average rush was 3.4 yards. Along with the two sacks by Taylor, Aikman was pressured all night long and was just 30-13-161-0-0 TD passing entering Dallas' final drive. The Cowboys also struggled offensively despite good field position as they started drives from the D43, the P45, and the P41 ... NOTES: Watters notched his first 100-yard rushing game of the year as he went 20-106. It marked the first time Philly lost a game when an Eagle RB rushed for 100 yards since 12/6/81. In that span, the Birds had been 30-0-1 when a back topped the 100-yard rushing plateau.

GAME 4
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1997
MINNESOTA 28, PHILADELPHIA 19
METRODOME

The Eagles saw their record dip to 1-3 after falling to the host Minnesota Vikings, 28-19, at the Metrodome in Minneapolis in a nationally televised (TNT) Sunday night contest. The Vikings rode the legs of RB Robert Smith (22-125-46LG-1TD rushing) and the arm of QB Brad Johnson, who fired TD passes to three different receivers. Johnson's favorite receiving target was WR Jake Reed, who hauled in 6 passes for 134 yards, including a 48-yard score ... On the Birds' first possession, QB Ty Detmer marched Philadelphia to the Minnesota 31 before DeWayne Washington's INT set up the short slant pass from Johnson that Reed took the distance for a 7-0 lead. A Chris Boniol FG and a Detmer-to-Irving Fryar TD loss put the Eagles on top early in the second stanza. On Minnesota's ensuing possession, the Vikes faced a 3rd-and-15 situation from their own 7 when Johnson found Reed for a 33-yd gain. A 19-yd pass to Cris Carter and a 15-yd penalty on the Eagles then set up a 12-yd TD reception by Smith. Philadelphia cut its deficit to 14-13 just before halftime as a 36-yd Detmer-to-Fryar pass helped set up Boniol's second FG ... The second half began with both teams trading possessions. Then with 7:10 left Mark Seay dropped Mitch Berger's 43-yd punt and Minnesota regained possession on the Philadelphia 16. Two plays later Smith scampered 14 yards for his second touchdown and a 21-13 Viking advantage. Not to be undone Detmer led the Eagles on an 8-play, 67-yd. drive. That march culminated in a 20-yd TD pass that FB Kevin Turner wrestled away from CB Corey Fuller to trim Minnesota's lead to 21-19. On the ensuing 2-pt. conversion Detmer's pass was dropped in the end zone by Seay. On the very next series, Smith's 46-yard dash down the right sideline led to Johnson's third TD pass - an 18-yd strike to Carter that increased the Minnesota lead to 28-19. Detmer once again tried to rally his offense. Highlighted by Ricky Watters' 34 rushing yards and Michael Timpson's 20-yd reception, Detmer led the Birds deep into Minnesota territory before Washington again dashed Phila.'s scoring hopes by picking off his second pass of the game ... NOTES: Aside from the two INTs, Detmer withstood constant pressure from the Vikes' defense and managed to put up big numbers (45-28-298-2-2TDs) while Fryar celebrated his 35th birthday by tying a then career-high of 9 receptions (120 yds, 1TD).

GAME 5
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1997
PHILADELPHIA 24, WASHINGTON 10
VETERANS STADIUM

The Eagles, who entered the game with a 1-3 record, earned a much-needed 24-10 win over the visiting Redskins. Philadelphia's offense put together its best outing to date, piling up 449 total yards, including 203 on the ground. The Eagles' ground attack was led by RBs Ricky Watters (31-104-2TDs and NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors) and Charlie Garner (12-60). QB Ty Detmer chipped in with a 3-yd TD run and a 27-17-246 passing effort while FB Kevin Turner added 81 combined yards. Philadelphia's offensive line did its part, clearing holes for the backs and holding Washington without a sack. Overall, the 50 rushing attempts by the Birds were the club's highest total since 12/27/87 when they posted 52 vs. Buffalo. By contrast, the 'Skins, who trailed 14-0 early in the 2nd quarter, would finish the day with just 30 rushing yards on only 12 carries ... The Eagles took a 7-0 lead on their second possession of the first quarter when Detmer capped a 12-play, 81-yd drive with a 3-yd scramble for a TD. Philadelphia marched 75 yards on its next series and went on top 14-0 when Watters dove over from one yard out. Key plays on the drive included a 29-yd run by Turner, a 16-yd screen pass to Watters on a 3rd-n-14 play, and a 22-yd pass to WR Michael Timpson that put the Birds on the Washington

1 ... Washington trimmed its deficit to 14-3 when a fumbled handoff from Detmer to Garner gave the 'Skins the ball at the Eagles' 23. Philadelphia ended Washington's next drive early, however, when DE Richard Dent pressured Gus Frerotte into an errant toss that SS Michael Zordich intercepted. Seven plays later, Chris Boniol booted a 34-yd FG that gave the Eagles a 17-3 halftime lead. So dominant, in fact, were the Eagles in the first half that they piled up a 244-74 advantage in terms of total yards ... In the 3rd quarter, Frerotte's 38-yd pass to WR Michael Westbrook put Washington at the Eagles' 5 and set up a TD strike to RB Terry Allen. But after moving to within 7 points, the Redskins could move no closer. Philadelphia, in fact, widened its lead early in the final stanza when Watters ran left for a 1-yd TD and a 24-10 Eagles advantage. Watters' second TD plunge was set up by WR Irving Fryar who made 26 and 33-yd grabs ... NOTES: The Eagles D-line pressured Frerotte often and the secondary provided excellent coverage. The result - Washington's dangerous WR corps was held in check. Michael Westbrook had just 3 catches, Leslie Shepherd and Henry Ellard had one apiece, and Alvin Harper had none.

GAME 6
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1997
JACKSONVILLE 38, PHILADELPHIA 21
ALLTEL STADIUM

The Eagles made their first-ever trip to Jacksonville to face the Jaguars and came away with a 38-21 loss. The Jags "manhandled us in every phase of the game," said Eagles' head coach Ray Rhodes after his club's record fell to 2-4. In particular, the Jaguars' offensive and defensive lines out-muscled those of Philadelphia. On offense, the Jags' line opened gaping holes for RB James Stewart, who would finish the day with 5 rushing TDs. On defense, they applied frequent pressure to Philadelphia's passers and stuffed the running lanes ... Jacksonville scored on its first three possessions and took a 21-0 lead with 1:42 to play in the 1st quarter. The Jaguars' offense, led by QB Mark Brunell, moved the ball with ease, scoring first on an 8-play, 80-yard drive, then on a 6-play, 82-yard drive. Stewart capped those drives with 7 and 8-yard scoring jaunts. Stewart, who had come on in relief when starter Natrone Means suffered a sprained ankle on the first series, went on to etch his name into the record books. A third-year pro, Stewart became only the 12th player in NFL history to score 5 TDs in a game. He also became only the third man to rush for 5 TDs in a single contest (Ernie Nevers ran for six in 1929; Jim Brown and Cookie Gilchrist each ran for five in '59 and '63 respectively), and the first ever to do so vs. Philadelphia. While Stewart finished the day 15-102-5TDs rushing, Brunell was an efficient 14-19-153 passing with no interceptions. In all, the Jags averaged 6.2 yards per carry (24-149) to just 3.3 by the Birds ...

Already leading 14-0 in the first stanza, Jacksonville blocked a punt by the Eagles' Tom Hutton and took over on PE11. Three plays later, Stewart's third TD, a 2-yd run, increased the Jags' lead to 21-0. Philadelphia got on the board late in the 2nd quarter when QB Ty Detmer capped a 69-yd march with a slant pass that WR Irving Fryar turned into a 34-yd TD play. Fryar would finish the day with a career-high 10 receptions for 124 yds and 3 TDs ... After intermission, the Eagles showed additional life, moving to the Jaguars' 25 before a 43-yd FG try by Chris Boniol fell short into the wind, and to the Jags' 35 before a Detmer pass was intercepted by Deon Figures. After Figures returned his theft to the Birds' 38, Stewart's 21-yd jaunt set up his fourth TD run of the day, a 1-yarder for a 28-7 lead. Two series later, a fumble by FB Kevin Turner gave the Jags' the ball at the PE31. Stewart then upped Jacksonville's lead to 35-7 early in the final stanza with another 1-yd TD run. With that, Rodney Peete replaced Detmer. It marked the second time in the Eagles' first six games that Peete came on in relief with the Birds facing a large 2nd-half deficit. Peete proceeded to lead 65 and 54-yd scoring drives on his first two series, capping them with TD strikes of 9 and 15 yards ... NOTES: The Birds also suffered a loss on the injury front when CB Bobby Taylor severely strained his right knee while breaking up a 1st quarter pass from Brunell to Jimmy Smith. The injury sidelined the top-flight corner for the rest of the season.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1997
PHILADELPHIA 13, ARIZONA 10 (OT)
VETERANS STADIUM

It wasn't pretty by any means but Philadelphia nonetheless managed to earn a 13-10 overtime victory vs. the visiting Cardinals. A 24-yd FG by Chris Boniol 4:02 into overtime gave the Birds the win. In the process, the Eagles upped their record at home to 3-0 and their overall mark to 3-4 ... Lineup changes and injuries were a factor before the game even started. Philadelphia had a new QB at the helm as Rodney Peete started in place of Ty Detmer. For Peete, it was his first starting assignment since 9/30/96 when he suffered a season-ending knee injury vs. Dallas. Arizona was without the services of its regular QB, Kent Graham, who was sidelined by an ankle injury suffered a week earlier. In his place, Stoney Case got the nod. The Eagles also entered the game without four key players, including three starters and one part-time starter. Regulars Bobby Taylor (RCB, torn anterior cruciate ligament), Brian Dawkins (FS, leg), and Chris T. Jones (WR, knee) were sidelined as was Jones' replacement WR Michael Timpson (shoulder) ... Philadelphia took a 7-0 lead in the 2nd quarter after passes by Peete to Irving Fryar and Jimmie Johnson set up Ricky Watters' 2-nd, TD run. Midway through the 2nd stanza, the Cards' Joe Nedney misfired on a 40-yd FG. Then, with seconds to go in the half, the Eagles' Chris Boniol hit the right upright from the same distance ... The Eagles eventually surrendered a FG in the 3rd quarter but held a 7-3 lead until 3:07 remained in regulation. It was then that Arizona's third string QB, rookie Jake Plummer, capped a 14-play, 98-yd drive with a 31-yd scoring strike to WR Kevin Williams that put Arizona on top 10-7. Philadelphia responded quickly as QB Rodney Peete marched the Birds from their own 20 to the AC 21, setting up a 38-yd FG by Boniol that tied the game with 0:26 left to play. In overtime, Arizona received the kickoff, but stalled just inside Eagles' territory and had to punt. Peete then capped a 73-yd drive with a 27-yd pass to RB Charlie Garner that set up Boniol's game-winning FG ... In all, Peete's 298 passing yards were his most as an Eagle. And while he was 36-28-298-2-OTD passing, Peete saved his best for last, going 4-8-51 on the game-tying drive and 4-4-70 on the game-winning drive. He then flew home to California to be with his wife, Holly, who gave birth to twins that same evening ... NOTES: After entering the game with just 10 sacks in six games, the Birds' defense notched 7 vs. Arizona. All 7 sacks came from different Eagles, including the three starting LBs (William Thomas, James Willis, and Darrin Smith), DE Richard Dent, DTs Rhett Hall and Jimmie Jones, and SS Michael Zordich.

1997 GAME-BY-GAME REVIEW

GAME 8
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1997
PHILADELPHIA 13, DALLAS 12
VETERANS STADIUM

With 45 seconds left to play, Eagles QB Rodney Peete fired an 8-yd pass to rookie free agent TE Chad Lewis for the game's only touchdown. Seconds later, Chris Boniol booted a PAT that gave the Birds, who had trailed throughout, a 13-12 win on a day marked by a cold, steady rain. For Peete, it was the second straight week in which he struggled for much of the day before rallying Philadelphia to a victory. A week earlier vs. the visiting Cardinals, Peete marched the Birds to a game-tying FG in the final seconds of regulation play and then to a game-winning FG in overtime with both of those drives starting at his own 20. Defensively the Eagles were led by RDT Rhett Hall, RLB William Thomas, and CB Troy Vincent. Hall earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors by posting career-highs of 12 tackles and 3.5 sacks. He also stopped Cowboys' all-pro RB Emmitt Smith behind the line three times. Thomas chipped in with 8 tackles, including 2 sacks, while Vincent held all-pro WR Michael Irvin to just 3 catches, all in the first half. As a unit, the Birds' defense stiffened in the red zone, allowing the Cowboys just 4 FGs when they ventured inside the Birds' 20. The win gave Philadelphia a bit of revenge for their week-three loss at Dallas ... Dallas's Herschel Walker returned the opening kickoff to the DC 47, helping set up Richie Cunningham's 26-yd FG for a 3-0 lead. It would be the first of four FGs for Cunningham in as many tries. On the first play of Dallas's next series, however, Aikman was sidelined for the remainder of the game when a sack by LB William Thomas and DT Jimmie Jones left him with a mild concussion. Wade Wilson came on in relief and was promptly presented with a scoring opportunity when Brock Marion partially blocked a Tom Hutton punt to give the Cowboys the ball at the PE 28. Dallas, however, was forced to settle for a FG and a 6-0 lead. Late in the 2nd qtr, Boniol, whose 52-yd FG try had fallen short earlier, was again short on a 47-yd try. Taking over this time on their own 38, the Cowboys marched to the Birds' 18 but managed only a FG and a 9-0 lead at the half ... The Eagles finally got on the board with a 45-yd left in the 3rd qtr when a 33-yd punt return by Mark Seay and a 25-yd Charlie Garner run set up a Boniol FG that cut Dallas's lead to 9-3. An inspired Eagles defense then forced Dallas to go 3-and-out and gave the ball back to the offense at the PE49. From there, four Ricky Watters runs netted 33 yards and another FG. The Cowboys appeared to respond quickly, however, as Walker returned a short kickoff 49 yards to the Birds' 34. Although the 'Boys reached the PE4, they soon faltered. After Dallas was penalized twice, Hall sacked Wilson and threw Smith for a 2-yd loss that forced the Cowboys to settle for a FG and only a 12-6 lead ... Two possessions later, Philly took over at its own 26 and began a 10-play drive that would culminate in the game-winning points. The drive was highlighted by a 27-yd catch-n-run by FB Kevin Turner and a 4th-n-11 completion to Fryar that gave the Birds' a first down by the nose of the ball. Peete, who was 7-5-8 on the drive, then drilled the TD strike to Lewis that enabled the Birds to lift their record to 4-4 at midseason.

GAME 9
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1997
ARIZONA 31, PHILADELPHIA 21
SUN DEVIL STADIUM

The Eagles committed 15 penalties and four turnovers while falling to the host Cardinals, 31-21. The loss, which came in the wake of consecutive victories over the Cards and Cowboys, dropped Philadelphia's record to 4-5 ... After the Eagles had fallen behind, 17-7, in the 3rd qtr., QB Ty Detmer, who came on in relief of ineffective starter Rodney Peete after intermission, threw TD passes on successive drives to put Philadelphia on top 21-17. Then, with 6:53 to play and the Eagles clinging to a 4-point lead, they got a 27-yd FG from Chris Boniol to seemingly up their edge to 7. But a holding penalty on the play forced another kick from 10 yards further back. When the re-kick clanked off the left upright, Philadelphia's lead was stuck at four. Moments later, however, the Eagles' Mark Seay fumbled Jeff Feagles' punt and Arizona took over at the PE24. Seven plays later, Kent Graham's 1-yd QB sneak put the Cards on top 24-21. Arizona then shut the door on the Eagles when LB Mike Caldwell intercepted a Detmer pass at the PE20. Graham, who himself had come on in relief of rookie starter Jake Plummer in the final stanza, again moved his club to the PE1. From there, he ran three unsuccessful QB sneaks before finally nudging the ball over the goal line on 4th down that made the final score 31-21 ... Prior to the Arizona possession set up by Seay's fumble, Philadelphia's defense had dodged a number of bullets - four Cards' possessions to that point had started inside Eagles' territory. On three of those occasions, the Eagles held Arizona without a 1st down, forcing one punt and two long FGs that were off the mark. In all, however, Arizona would start six drives inside Philadelphia territory; the last two after Seay's fumble and Detmer's 2nd interception. By comparison, Philadelphia started only one drive in Arizona territory ... Poor special teams play cost the Eagles as well. In addition to the fumbled punt, the Birds surrendered a 66-yd kick return and a 50-yd punt return. Those same units were whistled for eight penalties, including two holding calls on PAT tries and one holding call on a FG attempt (the latter of which took points off the board and resulted in a missed re-kick). Although the Eagles defense stymied the Cards after Kevin Williams returned the opening kick 66 yards to the PE33, Philadelphia surrendered a TD following Williams' 50-yd punt return to the PE31 and after Seay's fumble at the PE24 ... Arizona had opened the scoring when DT Bernard Wilson intercepted a screen pass by Peete and rumbled 66 yards for a score. Philadelphia quickly tied the score, however, as CB Willie Clark returned the ensuing onside kick 39 yards for a TD. Then, late in the 2nd quarter, after Eagles defenders dropped two INTs that could have been easily returned for scores, Plummer moved the Cards to a FG and a 10-7 edge at the half.

1997 GAME-BY-GAME REVIEW

GAME 10
MONDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1997
SAN FRANCISCO 24, PHILADELPHIA 12
VETERANS STADIUM

The visiting San Francisco 49ers rolled into Veterans Stadium with an 8-game winning streak while the Birds came in with a 4-0 mark at home. Three hours later, the Niners left with a 24-12 win that dropped the Eagles' overall record to 4-6. The Birds, with the exception of the inspired play from their defense, did little to help themselves. Four plays into the game, RB Ricky Watters, who had 185 rushes and 31 receptions without a fumble to this point in the season, lost the handle on his first run. Niners' safety Merton Hanks scooped up the fumble and raced 38 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. After Philadelphia's defense forced the Niners to punt on three straight series, the Birds had drawn to within one point on a pair of field goals by Chris Boniol. It was then, nearly four minutes into the 2nd quarter that things unraveled quickly. First, Freddie Solomon muffed a 49ers' punt, giving the ball back to San Francisco at the PE26. As such, it was the second straight week that a fumbled punt would cost the Birds a TD; four plays later, RB Garrison Hearst went right for a 1-yr TD that increased the Niners' lead to 14-6. Moments later the 49ers got a jolt from punt returner Chuck Levy who fielded a Tom Hutton kick, burst up the middle, streaked to the outside, and raced - untouched - to a 73-yr TD. San Francisco then closed out the first half scoring as former Eagle Gary Anderson booted a 31-yr FG. In all, Philadelphia had outgained the visitors 156 yards to 114 in the first two quarters despite giving up four sacks. In fact, the Eagles' defense played well enough to hold the Niners to just 213 yards on the entire night and limited QB Steve Young to just 13-23-103 passing. But it was San Francisco who took a 24-6 lead at intermission ... In the second half, the Birds struggled behind a patch-work offensive line that saw Bubba Miller start in place of injured regular LG Joe Panos and Mike Zandofsky come on in relief of injured RG Ian Beckles. By game's end, San Francisco had tallied 8 sacks, including 4 by DT Dana Stubblefield ... NOTES: On the ground, the Birds failed to gain 100 rushing yards for the first time all season. Philadelphia's only offensive bright spots came from veteran WR Irving Fryar and backup QB Bobby Hoyer. Fryar who went 9-138 receiving, reached three milestones, first topping the 700-reception mark for his career; then moving into 9th place on the NFL's all-time lists for receptions and receiving yards. Hoyer, a second-year pro, replaced Detmer with 6:49 to play. As such, it was only the second time he had stepped under center in a NFL regular season game and the first time since he replaced an injured Detmer for the final play of the Birds' loss to Dallas on 9/30/96. Hoyer went on to engineer two drives, the second of which culminated in his 6-yr TD pass to TE Chad Lewis that made the final tally 24-12 in favor of the 49ers.

GAME 11
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1997
PHILADELPHIA 10, BALTIMORE 10 (OT)
MEMORIAL STADIUM

After four quarters of play and a full 15-minute overtime period, the Eagles and their hosts, the Baltimore Ravens, left with a 10-10 tie and identical 4-6-1 marks. Each team had opportunities to win in overtime but failed to capitalize. Early on in the extra stanza, Baltimore reached the PE32 but turned the ball over on downs after losing four yards apiece on consecutive plays. Likewise, Philadelphia reached the Ravens' 33 before a dropped pass and two more incompletions stymied that drive. Two possessions later Baltimore had a 53-yard FG try by Matt Stover sail wide. Then, with 2:21 left to play, QB Bobby Hoyle marched the Eagles to the BR17. Following a 5-yard penalty on the offense, Philadelphia had a chance to win on the final play of the game, but Chris Boniol's 40-yard FG attempt went wide and the game ended with the NFL's first tie since 1989 ... For Philadelphia, however, the game may have marked the beginning of a new era as the Birds opened with 2nd-year player Hoyle at quarterback over veterans Ty Detmer and Rodney Peete, who had shared the starting role through the first 10 contests. Entering the game, Hoyle's experience consisted of 4th qtr. mop-up duty vs. the 49ers a week earlier and a sack on a Hail Mary pass play on the final play of a game vs. Dallas in 1996. In all, the youngster acquitted himself well, completing 19 of 22 passes in regulation play and engineering a game-tying TD drive in the final minutes of the 4th qtr. On that 5-play drive that began at his own 40, Hoyle moved the Eagles to the Baltimore 2 with 8 and 25-yard completions to FB Kevin Turner, a 13-yard to WR Michael Timpson, and a 12-yard to WR Irving Fryar. RB Charlie Garner then ran 2 yards for a TD and Boniol's PAT tied the score with 1:25 to play ... In the overtime period, Hoyle connected on just one of his first seven passes before hitting six of his last nine. In all, he finished his first NFL start with solid 38-26-276-0-0 passing numbers despite having three passes dropped and despite being sacked nine times. He also completed an Eagles' record 13 consecutive passes. Throughout, Hoyle showed a keen knowledge of the system and a presence of mind that belied his inexperience ... Baltimore opened the scoring in the 1st qtr. with a 29-yard TD pass from Vinny Testaverde to WR Michael Jackson. The Ravens started that drive on the PE37 following a short punt and appeared to have stalled when they faced a 4th-and-2 situation at the 29. Jackson, however, turned a short completion on a hitch pattern into a TD and a 7-0 lead. Throughout the first half the Eagles' offense sputtered, allowing four sacks and gaining just 37 net yards while never moving beyond their own 37-yard line. Baltimore had an opportunity to add to its lead just before halftime but Eagles' LB William Thomas intercepted a Testaverde pass at the PE7 ... NOTES: Despite allowing 204 rushing yards, the Eagles' defense held the Ravens to just the first qtr. TD and a fourth qtr. FG. They also posted 2 INTs in a game for the first time in '97 as both LBs James Willis and Thomas registered thefts ... Ravens rookie RB Jay Graham, however, became the first player to rush for 150+ yards vs. the Eagles since Emmitt Smith scampered for 158 on 11/6/95.

GAME 12
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1997
PHILADELPHIA 23, PITTSBURGH 20
VETERANS STADIUM

The Eagles kept their playoff hopes alive with an impressive 23-13 victory over their powerful cross-state rival, the Pittsburgh Steelers. Riding the arm and poise of 2nd-year QB Bobby Hoyer, the Birds capitalized on five Pittsburgh turnovers to win their first game in November. In just the second start of his career, Hoyer (31-15-246-2TDs) fired two 1st qtr. TD passes and handled the Steelers' vaunted blitz packages like a seasoned veteran ... Philadelphia started fast when, on the Steelers' first possession, LB William Thomas jarred the ball loose from RB Jerome Bettis and MLB James Willis recovered the ball on the PE 42. RB Ricky Watters then darted 28 yards and two plays later Hoyer hit TE Jason Dunn who rumbled 31 yds. for his first TD of the season and a 7-0 Eagles lead. Philadelphia increased that lead to 14-0 on its next possession when Hoyer led a 7-play, 80-yd drive culminating in an 8-yd TD strike to WR Irving Fryar (7-116-1TD). On that drive Hoyer hooked up with Fryar three times for 65 yds., including a 44-yd bomb. Pittsburgh QB Kordell Stewart rallied his offense on its next series. Using a punishing ground attack led by Bettis (20-80 yds.), the Steelers marched to the PE 28 and dented the scoring column with a 46-yd Norm Johnson FG. After trading possessions, Pittsburgh again chipped into the Philadelphia lead. A 23-yd Stewart scramble and more powerful running by Bettis set up a 40-yd FG by Johnson that trimmed the Birds' lead to 14-6. But after a 36-yd pass to Watters and an 18-yd scamper by RB Charlie Garner, the Eagles regained their 11-point advantage on Chris Boniol's 23-yd FG. With 1:42 remaining in the first half, the Steelers attempted to narrow the gap one more time but CB Troy Vincent picked off Stewart's pass at the PE 12 to preserve the Eagles' 17-6 advantage ... On the Steelers' first possession of the 2nd half CB Charles Dimry intercepted Stewart again and Hoyer promptly led the Birds on a 14-play drive that resulted in another Boniol FG (35 yds.) and a 20-6 lead. Again Pittsburgh responded when Stewart hit Bettis on a screen pass that he took 19 yards for a TD but Hoyer answered back by marching the Birds to a 25-yd Boniol FG and a 23-13 lead. With hope dwindling and time running out, Pittsburgh's Will Blackwell hauled in a 30-yd Hail Mary pass with 10 ticks left on the clock, trimming the Eagles' lead to 23-20. That would end the scoring, however, as LB William Thomas scooped up the subsequent on-sides kick locking up the Eagles' victory ... NOTES: Irving Fryar's 116 yds not only marked his fifth 100-yd receiving game of the season, it also put him over the 1,000-yd plateau for the fifth time in his career. Hoyer was very impressive, picking up his first victory as a starter. The three INTs by the Birds' defenders gave them five in the last two games, equaling their total from the previous 10 contests ... For Pittsburgh, Bettis totaled 99 yds. of offense while Stewart, who threw three INTs, ended the day 43-20-294-3-2TDs.

GAME 13

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1997
PHILADELPHIA 44, CINCINNATI 42
 VETERANS STADIUM

The Eagles, who entered the game as the only NFL team yet to score 25 points in a game, scored 44 in a thrilling, last-second victory over the visiting Bengals. Chris Boniol's 31-yd. FG on the final play gave Philly a 44-42 win. In a game filled with big plays and 8 TD passes, both teams combined for 1,004 yards of offense, including 507 by the Eagles ... After twice trailing the Birds by 13 points in the 2nd half, Cincinnati rallied behind QB Boomer Esiason to go in front, 42-41, with a minute left to play. It was Esiason, who with 5:29 remaining, had marched his club 67 yards in six plays, capping the drive with his 4th TD pass. In all, Esiason was 5 of 6 on the drive, including a 13-yd. TD strike to James Hundon. After the Birds went 3-and-out on their ensuing possession, the Bengals took over at their own 37, trailing by six with 2:41 to go. Esiason then completed 4 of 7 passes before an interference penalty on CB Charles Dimry gave Cincinnati a 1st down at the Eagles' 1. FB Brian Milne then plunged over for a TD and Doug Pelfrey added the PAT that put the Bengals up by 1 with 60 seconds left. Philadelphia then started at their own 26-yd line and, under the command of QB Bobby Hoyer, began a 61-yd drive to the game-winning FG. On the drive, Hoyer, in only the third start of his career, drilled a 28-yd strike to WR Irving Fryar, a 16-yr. old to WR Freddie Solomon on a 3rd-n-11 play, and an 18-yr. old to Fryar at the Bengals 13 with 0:05 remaining. From there, Boniol booted the game-winner ... In a game for the ages, two aged players put on a show. WR Irving Fryar, a 35-year old in his 14th season, was 7-122 en route to his sixth 100-yd game of the year. As such, Fryar tied the club's mark, for 100-yd receiving games in a season. Likewise, the 36-year old Esiason led the Bengals with a 47-27-378-1-4TD passing effort. But while those two 14th-year pros did their thing, the 25-year old Hoyer raised his record as a starter to 2-0-1 after firing TD passes to four different receivers and completions to nine Eagles in all. Hoyer completed 26 of 42 passes for 313 yards and 4 TDs with just one INT. The INT, incidentally, was the first of his career and came on his 92nd pass attempt. (That marked the third longest streak to start an NFL career) ... The Eagles took the opening kick and jumped to a 7-0 lead after Hoyer hit WR Michael Timson with a 23-yd TD pass. Esiason, however, put the visitors on top 14-7 at the end of the 1st quarter with TD passes to WRs Darnay Scott and James Hundon. Midway through the 2nd stanza, Hoyer's 30-yd run set up a 2-yd TD pass to TE Chad Lewis that evened the score. On the subsequent kickoff, the Eagles' Darion Conner forced a fumble that teammate Michael Zordich returned to the CB 28. That play set up a TD pass from Hoyer to TE Jimmie Johnson for a 21-14 lead. A Boniol FG minutes later gave the Birds a 24-14 edge at the half. For the Eagles, those 24 points after just two quarters equaled their highest output for any game thus far in '97 ... After intermission, LB William Thomas' INT off Esiason at the Bengals' 30 set up a Boniol FG for a 27-14 edge. The two teams then traded TDs and the 3rd quarter ended with Philadelphia up by 13. Although Cincinnati cut its deficit to 6 with 9:13 to play, the Eagles seemingly iced the game when RB Ricky Watters' 16-yd TD run put the Eagles up 41-28. That, however, only set the stage for the wild finish orchestrated by Esiason and Hoyer.

GAME 14
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1997
NEW YORK GIANTS 31, PHILADELPHIA 21
VETERANS STADIUM

After winning two straight home games, the Eagles hosted their division rivals from New York, the Giants, who entered the game atop the NFC East division with a 7-5-1 record. A win by the 6-6-1 Birds would have vaulted Philadelphia into a first place tie with the New Yorkers. The Eagles, however, saw their playoff hopes diminish with a 31-21 loss. QB Bobby Hoyer, who had been superb in Philly's previous two wins, finally showed he was human by throwing three INTs and fumbling twice in the fourth start of his career. The five turnovers led to 21 Giant points ... In a poorly played first quarter both teams committed turnovers that resulted in scores. The Eagles' first possession began in Giants' territory but ended quickly when a Hoyer pass was intercepted by LB Jessie Armstead, who raced 57 yards for a 7-0 Giants advantage. On New York's next possession, however, Eagles' CB Charles Diny scooped up a fumble by QB Danny Kanell and returned it to the NY 3. Two plays later RB Ricky Watters' 1-^{yd} plunge knotted the score at 7-7. With 7:05 to play in the half, Giants' LB Scott Galyon sacked Hoyer and forced a fumble that New York recovered at the PE 33. Kanell quickly led a 5-play drive resulting in an 11-^{yd} TD strike to RB Tiki Barber. Kanell increased the visitors' lead to 21-7 on the first play of the Giants' next series, firing a 40-^{yd} TD pass to WR David Patten. That TD was also set up by a turnover as DE Bernard Holsey's sack of Hoyer resulted in another fumble that the Giants recovered. Minutes later, in a final attempt to narrow the gap before intermission, Hoyer led the Birds to the NY 30 only to have Chris Boniol's 48-^{yd} field goal into a stiff wind hit the crossbar ... The 2nd half opened much the same way as had the first. This time, however, Eagles' FS Brian Dawkins intercepted a Kanell pass and took it 64 yards for a score that pulled the Birds to within 7. The theft marked the fourth time in as many weeks that the Birds began the 2nd half by intercepting their opponent ... The score stayed 21-14 until 10:27 remained to play. It was then that Kanell capped a 9-play, 70-^{yd} drive with his third TD strike of the game, a 5-^{yd}, to WR Chris Calloway. The drive was keyed by Barber who took a handoff from Kanell, faked a reverse to Calloway, and raced 42 yards to the PE 5. Brad Daluiso then added a field goal that put New York on top 31-14 before Hoyer and WR Irving Fryar combined on a 72-^{yd} TD pass for the game's final score ... NOTES: Barber powered the Giants' ground game, finishing with 114 yds on 21 carries as well as 4 catches for 28 yards. As such, Barber became the third back in four weeks to top the century mark against the Birds. In the trenches, New York's offensive and defensive lines outplayed their Eagles counterparts. The Giants sacked Hoyer four times (all in the first half) and pressured him often. The result would be Philadelphia's first loss in Hoyer's four starts.

GAME 15
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1997
ATLANTA 20, PHILADELPHIA 17
GEORGIA DOME

Philadelphia entered its 15th game of the season still having a shot at a playoff berth. Indeed, when the day began, the Eagles needed only wins in their final two games coupled with a loss apiece by the Panthers and Lions over the same span. A heartbreaking 20-17 loss to the Falcons at the Georgia Dome, however, extinguished all such hope ... It was a particularly galling loss for Philly, who appeared to be on the verge of a thrilling come-from-behind victory after erasing a 10-point deficit in the 4th qtr. Back-to-back touchdown and field goal drives in that final stanza enabled the Eagles to tie the game with just under 2:00 remaining. Unfortunately, that was all the time the Falcons needed to set up Morten Andersen's game-winning, 33-yard FG as time expired ... Philly had jumped out to a 7-0 lead after taking the opening kickoff and marching 89 yards to a TD. Ricky Watters carried 7 times for 63 yards on the drive before Bobby Hoying lofted a 3-yd scoring pass to WR Michael Timpson. Despite its early success, however, Philly's offensive attack would then sputter until just over 10 minutes remained to play. In between, the Eagles gained only two 1st downs and failed to convert seven straight 3rd down plays ... In the 2nd qtr, Falcons rookie RB Byron Hanspard scampered 53 yards to the Eagles 28. Two plays later, he hauled in a 10-yd TD strike from QB Chris Chandler that evened the score at 7-7. Although Atlanta would go on to outgain the Eagles 204-137 in the half, the score remained knotted at intermission. Philadelphia's offensive struggles were magnified early in the 3rd qtr, however, when a Hoying pass was batted in the air and intercepted by DE Lester Archambeau at the Eagles' 38-yd line. Minutes later, Jamal Anderson's 1-yd TD run gave Atlanta a 14-7 lead. After the Eagles responded with their second consecutive 3-plays-and-out series, Atlanta embarked on a 17-play, 70-yd drive that chewed 10:10 off the clock. When the drive ended with a FG more than four minutes into the 4th qtr, Atlanta had upped its lead to 17-7 and finished the 3rd qtr with a time of possession edge of 12:13 to 2:47. Only then did the Eagles' offense get back in the groove. Hoying's 56-yd bomb to WR Freddie Solomon and a pass interference penalty led to a 1-yd TD plunge by Watters that cut Philadelphia's deficit to 17-14. When the Eagles' defense quickly forced the Falcons to punt, Hoying led a 12-play, 58-yd march to a game-tying FG. The key play of the drive was an 11-yd toss to WR Irving Fryar at the AF22 on a 4th-n-5 play. From there 2nd and 3rd down passes fell incomplete in the end zone, first when TE Chad Lewis could not hang on to an underthrown ball and then when CB Ronnie Bradford broke up a pass to Timpson at the last second. The Eagles subsequently settled for a 39-yd FG by Chris Boniol that tied the game with 1:55 to play ... Two plays after returning the ensuing kickoff to their own 24, Atlanta's Green took a screen pass at his own 35 and broke six tackles on his way to a 47-yd gain. That put the Falcons on the PE 18 and set up Andersen's game-clinching boot.

1997 GAME-BY-GAME REVIEW

GAME 16
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1997
WASHINGTON 35, PHILADELPHIA 32
JACK KENT COOKE STADIUM

The Eagles concluded their 1997 season with a 35-32 loss to Washington in their first ever visit to Jack Kent Cooke Stadium. The host Redskins got off to a quick start, using two defensive touchdowns to mount a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. On the game's first possession, Redskins CB Darryl Pounds sacked QB Bobby Hoyer on a blitz and forced a fumble that he returned 18 yards for a TD. Later in the quarter, Hoyer was intercepted by Darrell Green, who raced 83 yards for another score. Hoyer and the Eagles rebounded quickly, though, as rookie RB Duce Staley scampered 57 yards to the 'Skins 31 on the ensuing kickoff. Three plays later, Hoyer hit TE Jason Dunn with a 31-yr scoring strike to cut the Redskins' lead in half. The furious scoring pace continued in the 2nd stanza as the Redskins registered TD runs by Stephen Davis (1 yd.) and Larry Bowie (3 yds.), while the Eagles countered with a 9-yr scoring jaunt by RB Charlie Garner. After Ricky Watters left the game early in the first quarter with a shoulder injury, Garner saw his most game action of the year and, in the process, rushed for a season-high 115 yards and 2 TDs on 18 carries. In addition, third-string RB Staley also saw his greatest amount of action on the year, finishing 6-30 rushing and 2-22 receiving ... The Eagles got on the board first in the 2nd half as Chris Boniol nailed a 33-yr FG to cut Philly's deficit to 28-17 (For Boniol, it marked the 61st straight FG he made from 35 yards and under). After an interception by Eagles' SS Brian Dawkins early in the 4th quarter, Hoyer led a 58-yard drive that was capped by a 1-yr TD run by Garner. Hoyer then hit Freddie Solomon for the two-point conversion (the Eagles' first of the year) to make the score 28-25. However, the Redskins roared right back as KR Brian Mitchell returned the ensuing kickoff 74 yards, setting up a TD strike from QB Jeff Hostetler to WR Michael Westbrook with just 5:00 remaining in the contest. But Philadelphia fought back as Hoyer marched the Eagles to another TD on their next possession, hitting Solomon on a 14-yr TD pass with just over a minute to play. Boniol's onside kick was recovered by the 'Skins Chris Thomas, however, and Washington held on for a 35-32 victory.

THE EAGLES' STORY

THE EAGLES' STORY

1933 — Frankford Yellowjackets' franchise in the NFL awarded to syndicate headed by Bert Bell and Lud Wray for $2500. Club christened "Eagles" in honor of the symbol of the New Deal's National Recovery Act. Eagles and Chicago Bears play in Philadelphia's first Sunday game (Nov. 12) at Baker Bowl. Game ends in a 3-3 tie.

1935 — General manager Bert Bell proposes an annual college draft to equalize talent in the league. Proposal is adopted on May 19 for the 1936 season.

1936 — Eagles have first choice in the inaugural college draft and select University of Chicago back Jay Berwanger but fail to sign him. Bell becomes sole owner of the team with $4,000 bid. Playing site for home games moves from Baker Bowl to Municipal Stadium.

1939 — Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian's All-America quarterback, signs with the Eagles for a reported $12,000 per year salary and percentage of the gate. O'Brien plays in every game and sets NFL passing yardage record with 1,324 yards. On October 22, the Eagles play in the first televised pro football game and fall to the host Brooklyn Dodgers, 23-14, at Brooklyn Ebbets Field. Allan "Skip" Walz broadcasts the game for NBC from Ebbett's field to the approximate 1,000 TV sets then in Brooklyn.

1940 — Home playing site switches from Municipal Stadium to Shibe Park (later known as Connie Mack Stadium). Pittsburgh owner Art Rooney buys half interest in the Eagles after selling the Steelers franchise to Alexis Thompson of New York, a 30-year old heir to a six million fortune in steel stocks.

1941 — Bell and Rooney swap franchises with Thompson, Rooney returning to Pittsburgh and Thompson taking over the Eagles. Bert Bell joins Rooney as a full-time partner in Pittsburgh. Thompson hires Earl (Greasy) Neale as head coach of the Eagles.

1943 — Eagles merge with Pittsburgh Steelers to form the "Steagles" due to manpower shortage during World War II. Merger dissolved at end of season.

1944 — First draft choice Steve Van Buren debuts as Eagles' halfback. Team finishes in second place with 7-1-2 record.

1945 — Team again finishes in second place with 7-3 record and leads league in scoring with 272 points. Van Buren leads NFL with 838 rushing yards and 110 points.

1946 — Team finishes second for third straight year with 6-5 record.

1947 — Rookie end Pete Pihos, Van Buren, and Bosh Pritchard combine with an overpowering defense to lead Philadelphia into the NFL championship game for the first time but the Chicago Cardinals earn the NFL title with a 28-21 victory at icy Comiskey Park.

1948 — Eagles win their first NFL championship, defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, in a blinding snowstorm at Shibe Park. Team finishes with overall record of 10-2-1.

1949 — Thompson sells the team to 100 buyers, each of whom paid $3,000 for one of the 100 shares. They were called the "Happy Hundred" or the "100 Brothers". Their leader was James P. Clark, a Philadelphia sportsman and business executive, and the 100 investors included some of the leading names in Philadelphia business, government and politics, including Leonard Tose. Vince McNally is named general manager. University of Pennsylvania All-America center-linebacker Chuck Bednarik is a first round draft choice.

1950 — Eagles win third straight Eastern Division title and defend their NFL championship with a 14-0 victory over the Los Angeles Rams. Team finishes with overall record of 12-1.

1951 — Alvin (Bo) McMillan replaces Greasy Neale as head coach after a 6-6 season in 1950. McMillan becomes ill the night before the season opener and is replaced by Wayne Millner. End-placekicker Bobby Walston is named rookie of the year.

1952 — Jim Trimble succeeds Wayne Millner as head coach. Team rides strong defense to 7-5 second place finish.

1953 — Bobby Thomason and Adrian Burk combine to pass for a league-high 3,089 yards. Pete Pihos catches 63 passes for 1,049 yards and 10 touchdowns to lead league. Eagles finish in second place and snap Cleveland's 11-game winning streak with 42-27 win in season finale.

1954 — Bobby Walston leads league in scoring with 114 points. Eagles finish second for third consecutive year with second straight 7-4-1 record.

1955 — Pihos again leads all NFL pass receivers with 62 catches for 864 yards. Joseph A. Donoghue, Eagles' vice president/secretary, is elected assistant treasurer of the NFL.

1956 — Hugh Devore replaces Jim Trimble as head coach.

1957 — Rookie QB Sonny Jurgensen highlights a 4-8 season by passing Eagles to a 17-7 upset of the NFL Eastern Division Champion Cleveland Browns.

1958 — Buck Shaw signs as head coach replacing Hugh Devore. Eagles acquire quarterback Norm Van Brocklin in trade with Los Angeles. Team moves home games from Connie Mack Stadium to University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field and attendance almost doubles.

1959 — With Pete Retzlaff and Tommy McDonald his chief targets, Norm Van Brocklin passes Eagles to 7-5 record and second place tie with Cleveland.

1960 — QB Norm Van Brocklin and Chuck Bednarik, who plays 60 minutes at center and linebacker, pace the Eagles to their first Eastern Division title in 11 years. The Birds then win their third NFL championship with a come-from-behind 17-13 victory over Green Bay at Franklin Field. Van Brocklin, the league's MVP, and head coach Buck Shaw both announce their retirements at the end of the season.

1961 — Nick Skorich replaces Buck Shaw as head coach and Sonny Jurgensen takes over as the starting quarterback. Despite Jurgensen's record-setting season as a passer and a 10-4 record, the Eagles fail to repeat as division champions.

1962 — Injuries in unprecedented numbers hit Eagles as the team wins only three games and falls to last place.

1963 — RB Timmy Brown sets a then NFL record for total offense (2,436 yards; 841 rushing, 487 receiving, 11 passing, 945 kickoff returns, and 152 punt returns) in a season. With the club's 91 outstanding shares now held by 65 stockholders, club president Frank L. McNamee said it would be put up for sale with an asking price of 4,500,000. Jerry Wolman, a 36-year old builder and self-made millionaire from Washington outbid Philadelphia businessman Jack Wolgin and became the new owner. The sale price was $5,505,000.

1964 — Former Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins coach Joe Kuharich signs as head coach and begins a series of major trades to rebuild the club.

1966 — After extensive roster changes, the Eagles finish 9-5 for their first winning season in five years.

1967 — Quarterback Norm Snead and flanker Ben Hawkins set team passing and receiving records, respectively, but injuries to other key players contribute to a disappointing 6-7-1 record and a second place finish.

1969 — After Wolman's empire fell into serious financial trouble, a bankruptcy referee in U.S. District Court in Baltimore oversees the team's sale to Leonard Tose, a millionaire trucking executive. The price was a reported $16.1 million, at the time a record price for a professional sports team. Tose names former Eagles' receiving great Pete Retzlaff as general manager and Jerry Williams as head coach.

1971 — The Eagles leave Franklin Field for a new home at Veterans Stadium. After three consecutive crushing losses at the beginning of the season, assistant Ed Khayat replaces Jerry Williams (who had led the club to only a 3-10-1 mark in 1970) as head coach.

1972 — After a stormy 2-11-1 season, Tose accepts general manager Retzlaff's resignation and releases the entire coaching staff. A bright spot, however, is Harold Jackson who leads the NFL in receptions and receiving yards (62-1,048).

1973 — Under new coach Mike McCormick and new quarterback Roman Gabriel, the Eagles have an exciting offensive season but can muster only a 5-8-1 record. In his first year as a full-time receiver, Harold Carmichael becomes the second consecutive Eagle to lead the NFL in receptions (67).

1974 — Under newly appointed general manager Jim Murray, the Eagles trade with Cincinnati and acquire LB Bill Bergey. Bergey bolsters the defense and wins Pro Bowl honors along with TE Charle Young, who becomes the third consecutive Eagle to lead the league in pass receptions (63).

1976 — After a 4-10 season in 1975, Tose appoints 39-year old Dick Vermeil of UCLA as head coach but the Birds again earn a 4-10 mark. Bergey wins All-NFC and Pro Bowl recognition.

1977 — QB Ron Jaworski is obtained from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for the rights to TE Charle Young. Bill Bergey, keying the newly-installed 3-4 defense of coordinator Marion Campbell, wins all-pro and all-conference honors and is selected to play in his third Pro Bowl. The Birds show improvement on the field but earn only one more victory than the previous year.

1978 — The Eagles post a 9-7 record, their first winning season since 1966, and make the playoffs for the first time since 1960. They lose the NFC Wild Card playoff game in Atlanta, however, 14-13 as the Falcons score two 4th-quarter TDs and Eagles' Mike Michel misses a 34-yard FG try with 1:34 to play. Wilbert Montgomery, in his first starting season, rushes for 1,220 yards to become the first Eagle since Steve Van Buren to surpass 1,000 in a season. CB Herman Edwards provided the "Miracle of the Meadowlands" when he scooped up a fumbled handoff from Joe Pisarcik to Larry Csonka and raced 26 yards for the winning touchdown with 20 seconds left to play before a stunned Giants Stadium crowd of 70,318.

1979 — With an 11-5 regular season record — their best since 1961 — the Eagles tie Dallas for first place in the NFC East and go to the playoffs as a wild card team. After beating Chicago, 27-17, in the Wild Card Game, the Birds are upset at Tampa Bay, 24-17 in a divisional playoff round. Wilbert Montgomery sets a club record with 1,512 rushing yards, and Harold Carmichael sets a then NFL record on Nov. 4, catching a pass in his 106th consecutive game. Rookie barefoot kicker Tony Franklin boots the second longest FG in NFL history — 59 yards — in a 31-21 victory at Dallas. Dick Vermeil is voted NFL coach of the year.

1980 — The Eagles win 11 of their first 12 games and go on to a 12-4 mark and the NFC East championship. The Birds trounce Minnesota 31-16, in the divisional playoff round and then upend Dallas, 20-7 at Veterans Stadium, to win the NFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XV. The Oakland Raiders prevail in that game, however, 27-10. Ron Jaworski leads the NFC with a 90.9 passing rating while throwing for 3,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. He is named NFL player of the year by the Maxwell Football Club and NFC player of the year by UPI. Harold Carmichael's then-record NFL receiving streak is snapped at 127 games when he fails to catch a pass in the regular season finale at Dallas after sustaining a back injury in the first half.

1981 — After building a 6-0 record early in the season, the Birds struggle in their final eight games, post a 10-6 record and appear in the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year but are upset at home in the NFC Wild Card Game by the NY Giants, 27-21. The Birds' defense ranks first in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (4,447) and fewest points allowed (221). On offense, Harold Carmichael enjoys the third 1,000-yard receiving year of his career and Wilbert Montgomery rushes for 1,402 yards.

1982 — An NFL players' strike takes place after two games and stops play for eight weeks. When play resumes on November 21, the long layoff hurts the Eagles. After splitting their first two games of the season, the Birds come back from the strike to lose four in a row and miss the playoffs for the first time since 1977. A 24-20 Eagles' victory at Dallas on December 26 is the last victory in the Philadelphia career of head coach Dick Vermeil, who resigns shortly following the season after compiling a 55-51-0 overall record.

1983 — Marion Campbell replaces Dick Vermeil as head coach after six seasons as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. Owner and president Leonard Tose announces in January that his daughter, Susan Fletcher, the Eagles' vice president and legal counsel, would eventually succeed him as primary owner of the Eagles. After winning four of their first six games, the Eagles become mired in a seven-game losing streak and finish with a 5-11 record. The Birds' offense is highlighted by first-team all-pro and AFC-NFC Pro Bowl selection Mike Quick, who leads the league and sets club records with 1,409 yards receiving on 69 catches.

1984 — After a 1-4 start, the Eagles post a 5-5-1 record over their final 11 games. Philadelphia's swarming defense sets a then club record of 60 quarterback sacks and is the catalyst for the team's improved play. Wilbert Montgomery establishes the Eagles' career rushing record for yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465) surpassing the marks set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren from 1944-1951. Kicker Paul McFadden establishes an Eagles' season scoring record with 116 points (tops among rookies), surpassing Bobby Walston's 30-year mark of 114, and is named NFC rookie of the year. Ron Jaworski suffers a broken leg at St. Louis in week 13, snapping his streak of 116 consecutive starts (believed to be an all-time record for NFL quarterbacks). Mike Quick is selected to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl for the second straight year.

1985 — On March 12, Leonard Tose, the Eagles' owner since 1969, announces an agreement to sell the team to Norman Braman and Ed Leibowitz, highly successful automobile dealers from Florida for a reported $65 million. After obtaining the approval of the other NFL owners and fulfilling the terms of the transaction, Braman officially becomes the Eagles' new owner on April 29. That same day, Braman elevates Harry Gamble, general manager since February 4, to vice president-general manager overseeing day-to-day operations of the club. All-time Eagles' rushing leader Wilbert Montgomery does not report to training camp and is traded to Detroit for LB Garry Cobb in preseason. The Eagles again overcome a 1-4 start, but fall off the pace and finish 7-9. Head coach Marion Campbell is released on December 16, and Fred Bruney takes over as interim head coach for final game at Minnesota. Mike Quick, who catches 71 passes to break his own club season record, and Wes Hopkins represent Philadelphia in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

1986 — Buddy Ryan, defensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears' Super Bowl XX Champions, is named the 17th head coach in Eagles' history on January 29. On July 16, Norman Braman becomes the sole owner of the team, purchasing the remaining 35 percent from his brother-in-law Ed Leibowitz. Harry Gamble is promoted to president-chief operating officer. Ryan makes sweeping changes in the Eagles' roster, keeping young players and releasing several veterans. The youthful Birds struggle to a 5-10-1 record against the toughest schedule in the league. The Birds place two players on the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl roster: WR Mike Quick and DE Reggie White. White ties a Pro Bowl record with 4 sacks and is named MVP of the game.

1987 — In March, Ron Jaworski, who set nearly every club passing record from 1977-1986, is put on waivers after the club decides not to guarantee his contract. The Eagles split their first two games of the season before the NFL was beset by a players strike. After all games of Week 3 were cancelled, the NFL resumed play with replacement teams for the next three weeks. The Birds' replacement team goes 0-3 and sets the stage for a surge by the regular players when they return to work. Philadelphia's regulars proceed to win three straight after the strike and move into a tie for 2nd place in the NFC East. They go on to finish 7-8 overall (7-5 in non-strike games) and due to a tie-breaking system, rank 4th in the NFC East behind Dallas and St. Louis who also posted 7-8 marks. Offensively, WR Mike Quick earns his fifth consecutive trip to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl while QB Randall Cunningham (Pro Bowl 1st alternate) emerges as a rising talent. Cunningham threw 23 TD passes and became the first QB to lead his team in rushing (505 yards) since the Bears' Bobby Douglas did so in 1972. The defense was led by DE Reggie White, who was named the NFL's defensive player of the year. White's 21 sacks set an NFC record and fall one shy of the NFL mark.

1988 — The Eagles' 1988 highlight film was appropriately titled "Living on the Edge," as the Birds took a number of games down to the wire en route to a 10-6 record and the NFC Eastern division title. Under third-year head coach Buddy Ryan, the Eagles post the NFL's best mark (6-1) over the final seven weeks of the regular season. But their playoff fate is not sealed until moments after the conclusion of their 23-7 victory at Dallas in week 16. It is then that N.Y. Jets' QB Ken O'Brien throws a TD pass to Al Toon to defeat the Giants and ensure the division title for the Eagles. Philadelphia then travels to Chicago for an NFC divisional playoff game against the Bears and a place in NFL history. The game, which begins in sunny, 29 degree weather, would later be dubbed "The Fog Bowl," after a thick fog rolls off Lake Michigan late in the 2nd quarter. Due to the fog, visibility on the playing field was extremely difficult and the Bears prevail, 20-12. The shining season included the selection of QB Randall Cunningham, DE Reggie White and TE Keith Jackson as starters in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Cunningham, who sets a number of Eagles' single-season passing records and leads the club in rushing for the second straight season, earns Pro Bowl MVP honors. He also wins the Maxwell Football Club's Bert Bell Award as the NFL's top player. White leads the NFL in sacks for the second consecutive year and Jackson sets an Eagles' receiving record with 81 catches en route to earning rookie of the year honors from The Sporting News.

1989 — The Eagles used an aggressive, ball-hungry defense — which led the NFL in takeaways (56) and interceptions (30), and set a team record with 62 QB sacks — to improve their regular season record to 11-5. Philadelphia, however, finished second to the Giants in the NFC East (despite two victories in head-to-head competition) and faced the LA Rams in the Wild Card playoff. Although playing a post-season game at Veterans Stadium for the first time since 1981, the Birds fell 21-7. QB Randall Cunningham posted similar numbers to his superb '88 campaign despite missing receivers Mike Quick and Keith Jackson for most of the season due to injuries. A deeper loss came on December 9, when quarterback coach Doug Scovil passed away. The second alternate to the Pro Bowl, Cunningham started for the NFC squad when injuries kept the other QBs from participating. He was joined by Reggie White, Eric Allen (who led the NFC in interceptions with 8), and Jackson.

1990 — In February, Buddy Ryan hired Rich Kotite as offensive coordinator to improve the Eagles' sluggish attack. At season's end, the offense led the NFL in rushing (2,556) and time of possession (33:19) and the NFC in scoring (396) and TD passes (34). On the other side of the ball the defense led the NFL in stopping the run thereby making the Birds the first team to lead the league in both rushing categories since Chicago did so in 1985. A 10-6 record put Philadelphia in the playoffs once again, but the Eagles suffered their third opening round defeat in as many seasons. The 20-6 Wild Card Game loss to Washington signaled an end to the five-year Ryan era. On January 8, 1991, owner Norman Braman announced that Ryan would not be offered a new contract. On the same day, he elevated Kotite to the head coaching position. It was with Kotite as coordinator in '90 that Randall Cunningham flourished with an NFC-leading 30 TD passes, 942 rushing yards, and a selection to the Pro Bowl while rookie WRs Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett combined to make 17 TD receptions. TE Keith Jackson, DE Reggie White, and DT Jerome Brown also earned Pro Bowl berths but RB Keith Byars, who tied a team record with 81 receptions and also threw 4 TD passes, was overlooked.

1991 — On January 8th, team owner Norman Braman opted not to renew the contract of Buddy Ryan, the Eagles' head coach since 1986. On the same day, Braman promoted then-offensive coordinator Rich Kotite, making him the 18th head coach in club history. When the season began, the Eagles opened with a 3-1 mark, their best start since 1981, despite having lost quarterback Randall Cunningham for the year due to a knee injury suffered at Green Bay on opening day. But after coming on to lead the Eagles to their solid start, backup QB Jim McMahon was also injured in game 5. With McMahon sidelined, the Birds suffered through a four-game skid. By midseason, Philadelphia had used five quarterbacks in eight games and seen its record sink to 3-5. The Eagles regrouped, however, and surged into contention for a playoff spot with a six-game winning streak (the club's longest since the start of '81) that upped their record to 9-5. And while a loss at home to Dallas in game 15 ended Philadelphia's remarkable run toward the playoffs, the Birds finished the season with a come-from-behind, 24-22 victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Redskins. With a record of 10-6, the Eagles finished third in the NFC East behind Washington and Dallas and joined the 49ers as the only NFL clubs to post 10 or-more wins in each of the last four seasons. A catalyst during the stretch run was a defensive unit that finished the season ranked #1 in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, vs. the run, and vs. the pass. As such, the Birds became only the fifth club in NFL history and the first since 1975 to accomplish this rare triple. In addition, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in sacks and fumble recoveries and tied New Orleans for the league lead in takeaways. Five members of that defensive unit represented the Eagles in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl – DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons, DT Jerome Brown, and LB Seth Joyner were selected as starters while CB Eric Allen also made the NFC squad. The selection of White, Simmons, and Brown marked only the sixth time in NFL history that three defensive linemen from one team were elected to the Pro Bowl. The offense was led by WR Fred Barnett (62-948-4TDs receiving), RB Keith Byars (62 receptions and 383 rushing yards), and QBs Jim McMahon and Jeff Kemp. McMahon was 8-3 as a starter after taking over for Cunningham; Kemp came on in relief of an injured McMahon three times and twice led the Birds to comeback victories while also compiling a 1-1 mark as a starter in the final two games when McMahon was again injured.

1992 — The Eagles were dealt a huge blow before the season even began as all-pro defensive tackle Jerome Brown was killed in an automobile accident on June 25th in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The tragedy overshadowed the promise of the upcoming season which included the return of QB Randall Cunningham - out almost the entire '91 season with a knee injury - as well as the addition of RB Herschel Walker whom the Eagles acquired as a free agent just three days before Brown's death. A team that had gone through five different quarterbacks in the first eight games of '91 would begin the '92 season again facing adversity. The Birds, however, opened their second season under head coach Rich Kotite with 4 straight wins. Keys to that early success were Walker, who topped the 100-yard rushing mark in each of the first two games and Cunningham, the NFC's offensive player of the month for September. The offense struggled at midseason, however, and the defense suffered several key injuries, particularly to starting safeties Andre Waters (broken leg) and Wes Hopkins (knee). The Birds still finished second in the NFC East with an 11-5 regular season record and returned to the playoffs after a one-year absence, earning a Wild Card victory over the Saints before dropping a Divisional Playoff to the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys. The win over the Saints was the team's first postseason victory since 1981 and its first road playoff conquest since 1949. Offensively, Walker became only the fourth Eagle to top 1,000 rushing yards in a season and the first since Earnest Jackson in '85. While the defense slipped from its '91 number one ranking across the board, DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons and CB Eric Allen each earned Pro Bowl berths as did WR Fred Barnett. Off the field in '93, a September 24th ruling by U.S. District Judge David Doty paved the way for free agency in the NFL by finding the league's "Plan B" policy in violation of federal antitrust laws and provided the four plaintiffs in the suit with an opportunity to sign with another club. Among those four was Eagles TE Keith Jackson, who four days later inked a deal with the Miami Dolphins.

1993 — In January, lawyers for the NFL and the Players Association reached agreement on a Collective Bargaining Agreement, a seven-year deal that would institute a form of limited free agency to replace the "Plan B" system. The most prominent NFL player affected by the settlement was the Eagles' all-time sack leader Reggie White, who went on to sign with the Green Bay Packers on April 5th. On the field, the Eagles' injury-riddled, roller-coaster 1993 campaign produced an 8-8 record. After a flying start in which the Birds jumped out to a 4-0 record on the strength of three consecutive dramatic come-from-behind wins, season-ending injuries to QB Randall Cunningham, Pro Bowl WR Fred Barnett and others were followed by a six-game losing streak, Philadelphia's worst skid since 1983. Nonetheless, the Eagles bounced back behind backup QB Bubby Brister to win 4 of their final 6 contests, a stretch that kept them in the playoff hunt until the final week of the season. The Birds were represented at the Pro Bowl in Hawaii by CB Eric Allen and LB Seth Joyner.

1994 — A new chapter in Eagles history began on April 6th when Norman Braman, the Birds' owner since 1985, reached an agreement in principle to sell the franchise to Boston native and Hollywood-based movie producer Jeffrey Lurie. Once NFL owners voted to approve the sale on May 6th, Lurie officially took over the club on May 17. Despite losing the season opener to the Giants, the Birds bounced back to win 7 of their next 8 contests, including a 40-8 thumping of the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers. However, the Eagles went on to drop their last 7 games, finishing 7-9 and out of the playoffs for the second consecutive season. Two days after the season finale, Rich Kotite's 4-year reign as head coach ended when he was dismissed. Despite the dismal ending to a once promising campaign, several Eagles provided memorable performances. RB Herschel Walker etched his name into the NFL record books as the first player in the 75-year history of the league to record a 90-plus yard run, reception, and kickoff return in a single season. To appreciate the uniqueness of this feat, one need only note that just one other player - Hall-of-Famer Bobby Mitchell - had previously recorded that trifecta in a career. With back-to-back 100-yard rushing performances at SF and vs. Wash., rookie RB Charlie Garner became only the 7th back in NFL history to eclipse the century mark in his first two contests. DE William Fuller, a free agent acquisition from Houston, notched at least one sack in 7 straight games and subsequently broke the club record of 6 consecutive games shared by Reggie White and Clyde Simmons. Fuller and CB Eric Allen represented the Eagles in the Pro Bowl.

1995 — The biggest personnel move of the year came long before the season ever started. On February 2, owner Jeffrey Lurie named Ray Rhodes as the 19th head coach in team history. Eleven months and a playoff victory later, that decision resulted in numerous NFL coach of the year honors for Rhodes. In just his first season at the helm, the former San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator battled through major roster turnover, a slew of injuries to key personnel, an early season QB change, and a sluggish 1-3 start to put the Eagles back on the winning track. Following that 1-3 start, Rodney Peete took over at QB for Randall Cunningham and the Birds rode the legs of running backs Ricky Watters and Charlie Garner to 9 wins in their final 12 games. Philadelphia's defense also chipped in with 48 sacks (second best in the league). The result was a 10-6 record and a spot in the playoffs as the NFC's top Wild Card team. Watters, one of the NFL's most prominent free agent acquisitions of the year (he left the 49ers for the Eagles on 3/25/95), combined with Garner to give Philadelphia the league's fourth best rushing attack. Individually, Watters was sixth in the league in rushing with a career-high 1,273 yards and 11 TDs while the lightning quick Garner added 588 yards and 6 TDs. In games 14-15, the Eagles knocked off division rivals Dallas and Arizona to clinch the club's first playoff berth since 1992. In the postseason, the Eagles routed the favored Detroit Lions, 58-37, in a Wild Card game, putting their name firmly in the NFL's postseason record books as they mounted a 51-7 lead and coasted to victory. Philadelphia's season, ended, however, eight days later as they bowed out to the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys, 30-11, at Texas Stadium. At season's end, Watters, DE William Fuller (an NFC-high 13 sacks), and LB William Thomas (whose 7 INTs were the most by an NFL linebacker since 1983) represented the Eagles in the Pro Bowl. DT Andy Harmon and a pair of rookies, CB Bobby Taylor and punter Tom Hutton, also received numerous honors. Off the field, team owner Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, oversaw the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP). The charitable wing of the Eagles, EYP was formed in order to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children in the Philadelphia region through education and health partnerships.

1996 — The 1996 season marked the second consecutive year in which the Eagles compiled a 10-6 regular season record and earned a Wild Card playoff berth. As such, Ray Rhodes became the first coach to lead the Eagles into the playoffs in each of his first two seasons at the helm. The playoff dance was brief, however, as the Eagles fell to the host San Francisco 49ers, 14-0, in rain-drenched 3Com Park. For the third time in six seasons, the Eagles lost their starting QB to injury early on. Rodney Peete, who had led Philadelphia to 12 wins in his 17 starts as an Eagle (including a 3-1 mark to open the '96 campaign), ruptured a tendon in his right knee vs. Dallas on 9/30. Rhodes then turned to Ty Detmer, the former Green Bay Packer and Heisman Trophy winner, who had joined the Birds in the spring as a free agent. Detmer immediately led the Birds to four straight wins and went on to rank 4th among NFC passers while teaming with WR Irving Fryar and RB Ricky Watters to fuel the conference's #1 offense (351.7 yds/game). Fryar, one of the league's best free agent acquisitions in 1996, recorded career highs in TDs (11) and receptions (a team-record 88). Fryar also tied a Birds' single-game record with four TD catches vs. Miami on 10/20. Watters earned his fifth trip to the Pro Bowl - his second as an Eagle - with personal bests in rushing atts. (353), rushing yards (1,411), TDs (13), and total yards from scrimmage (1,855). He led the league in total yards from scrimmage, carries, and touches while also ranking 2nd in the NFC/4th in the NFL in rushing. Other offensive stars included WR Chris T. Jones (70-859-5TDs), rookie TE Jason Dunn (22.1 yds/catch avg.), and FB Kevin Turner, who grabbed 43 passes. Philadelphia's defense ranked 3rd in the NFC/5th in the NFL, allowing only 284.0 yds/game. These rankings were accomplished without the services of DT Andy Harmon (11 sacks in 1995), who was sidelined for all but two games due to a knee injury. LDE William Fuller again led the Birds with 13 sacks en route to his 3rd straight Pro Bowl. Fuller's 13 sacks led the NFC. Also earning a Pro Bowl berth was RLB William Thomas, who registered 3 INTs and 5.5 sacks. He was the leader of a young linebacking corps that included MLB James Willis, whose interception in the end zone in the final moments of game 9 at Dallas sealed a win. Willis' theft off QB Troy Aikman and subsequent lateral to CB Troy Vincent resulted in a 104-yard TD return, the longest in NFL history. Prior to the season, the Birds had once again been one of the NFL's most aggressive teams in terms of free agency. The signing of Troy Vincent from Miami, along with that of Watters from San Francisco the previous year, made Philadelphia the only team to land another club's "transition" free agent in 1995 and '96. In addition, the Eagles' lineup boasted a pair of 1996 first team All-Rookie picks - Dunn and FS Brian Dawkins - as well as RCB Bobby Taylor, who was similarly honored in 1995.

1997 — After securing a playoff berth in each of coach Ray Rhodes' first two years at the helm, the Birds entered '97 with high expectations. But when a 4-6 start clouded the club's shot at the post-season, Rhodes turned the offense over to second-year QB Bobby Hoying. Then, when a 2-0-1 record in Hoying's first three starts brought the Birds back into contention, Philadelphia's quarterback of the future began making a name for himself in the present. But in the end it was Hoying, another stellar season from 35-year-old WR Irving Fryar, and one of the NFC's best rushing attacks that surfaced as bright spots on a club that would finish with a 6-9-1 record. The Eagles, however, did record thrilling victories over the defending Super Bowl champion Packers, the Steelers (who went on to reach the AFC Championship Game), and the Dallas Cowboys, winners of Super Bowl XXX. Injuries plagued the club all year. RT Richard Cooper, WR Chris T. Jones, CB Bobby Taylor, LB Darrin Smith, G Ian Beckles, and WR/KR Antwuan Wyatt all missed well over half of the season due to injury. In all, 42 different players started, including three different quarterbacks. Ty Detmer opened the first six games and Rodney Peete started four before Rhodes turned to 1996 third round pick Bobby Hoying. Indeed the season was a disappointing one as the Eagles recorded their worst record since going 5-10-1 in 1986 and, for the first time since 1970, failed to win an away game, posting an 0-7-1 road mark. For Rhodes, a veteran of 17 seasons as an NFL coach, it was only the fourth time that one of his teams did not reach the playoffs. The Birds offense ranked 3rd/5th in the NFC/NFL in terms of yards gained (349.4/game), 5th/10th in rushing (121.4), and 2nd/6th in passing (227.9) but only 7th/19th in scoring (19.8). Hoying, who started the final six games, finished 5th in the NFC with an 83.8 QB rating. Fryar continued to rank among the game's best, posting 86 receptions for a career-high 1,316 yards, including a team-record six 100-yr. games. For his efforts, Fryar earned his second straight invitation to the Pro Bowl. The ground attack was led by RBs Ricky Watters and Charlie Garner and FB Kevin Turner. Watters again finished among the league leaders in rushing and total yards from scrimmage as he ran for 1,110 yards and 7 TDs and became the first Eagle to top the 1,000-yard rushing plateau in three consecutive campaigns. Garner ranked third in the NFC with a 4.7 yds/carry avg. (116-547) while Turner cleared the way and rang up 48 catches. Defensively, the Birds ranked 7th/13th in the NFC/NFL in yards allowed (308.3/game), 13th/25th vs. the run (125.6/game) and 5th/7th vs. the pass (182.7/game). The defense suffered a blow early on when Andy Harmon, a DT who had been nearing Pro Bowl status before suffering a knee injury in '96, was unable to regain his form and was waived. In game 6 a season-ending knee injury to CB Bobby Taylor cut down another blossoming star. RDT Rhett Hall led the club in sacks with 8. LDT Hollis Thomas and MLB James Willis tied for team lead with 82 tackles apiece. The defensive unit's most memorable performance came in a win vs. Green Bay when they held the Packers without a TD, snapping a string of 85 straight games (including the playoffs) in which the Pack had scored a touchdown.

EAGLES HONOR ROLL INDUCTEES

In 1987, the Philadelphia Eagles "Honor Roll," sponsored by Mellon PSFS, was created in order to pay tribute to outstanding members of the organization. Automatically included at the inception of the Honor Roll were the 11 members of the Hall of Fame who played all or part of their NFL careers with the Eagles. From 1987 through 1996, additional inductees were honored in each season.

CHUCK BEDNARIK

#60

Center/Linebacker
Pennsylvania
Years with Eagles: 1949-62

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1967
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

As long as there is football in Philadelphia, the name Chuck Bednarik will long be remembered. "Concrete Charley" played in 253 of a possible 256 games with the Eagles during his illustrious 14-year career. Elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, he played in eight Pro Bowl games (an Eagles record) and was named the most valuable player of the 1954 Pro Bowl. Although the Eagles won the league championship in 1949, Bednarik's rookie year, his star shined brightest in 1960 when he played every minute at both center and linebacker during the Birds 1960 NFL Championship victory over Green Bay. In addition to his Hall of Fame status (he was inducted in 1967 with former Eagles coach Earle "Greasy" Neale as his presenter), Bednarik was named to the Eagles' "All-Time Team," and was cited by the nation's press as "Lineman of the Decade" for the 1950s. Born May 1, 1925, in Bethlehem, PA, Bednarik was an All-America selection at the University of Pennsylvania in 1948 before joining the Eagles as their first selection in the 1949 NFL draft.

DE BENNEVILLE "BERT" BELL

Owner
Pennsylvania
Years with Eagles: 1933-40

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1963
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

The first owner of the Philadelphia Eagles, Bell proved to be a man of extraordinary vision. As owner of the Birds (1933-40), co-owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers (1941-46), and as NFL commissioner (1946-59), Bell was responsible for instituting the college draft and setting up visionary television policies, including the implementation of home-game blackouts. In 1933, he moved the Frankford Yellowjackets to Philadelphia and renamed them the Eagles, in honor of the symbol of President Franklin Roosevelt's National Recovery Act. In 1946, Bell moved the NFL office from Chicago to the Philadelphia suburb of Bala Cynwyd, PA where it remained until his death on October 11, 1959. Bell played and coached at the University of Pennsylvania where he led the Quakers to the Rose Bowl in 1916. A founder of the Maxwell Football Club, Bell was born February 25, 1895, in Philadelphia. He was elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously in 1963. A member of the inaugural H.O.F. class, Bell was represented by Steelers owner Art Rooney at the induction ceremony.

HONOR ROLL INDUCTEES

BILL BERGEY

#66

Middle Linebacker
Arkansas State
Years with Eagles: 1974-80

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1988

The 6-foot-4, 245-pound product of Arkansas State regularly set the defensive tempo of a game with his intimidating, hard-hitting tackles and his explosive quickness. After coming to the Eagles in a 1974 trade with Cincinnati (in exchange for Philadelphia's first round picks in '77 & '78 as well as a second round pick in '78), Bergey recorded nearly 1,200 tackles in seven seasons as an Eagle. He was a key factor in the Birds' rise to the 1980 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV. His play also earned him Eagles' MVP status three times and trips to the Pro Bowl on four occasions. Bergey was born February 9, 1945 in South Dakota, NY.

BILL BRADLEY

#28

Free Safety
Texas
Years with Eagles: 1969-76

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1993

One of the most versatile players in Eagles' history, Bill Bradley played eight years (1969-76) with the Birds as a defensive back, punter, and kick returner. As of today, over 20 years after the end of his Eagles career, Bradley remains tied for the team's all-time lead in career interceptions (34) and still ranks first on the Birds' all-time interception yardage list (536). As an Eagle, Bradley earned three trips to the Pro Bowl (following the 1972-74 seasons) and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in interceptions in consecutive seasons (1971 & 1972). It was in that 1971 campaign that Bradley set an Eagles' single-season record for most INTs and most INT return yards (11-248). Originally the Birds' third round draft choice out of the University of Texas in 1969, Bradley also handled the majority of the Birds' punting duties for six of his eight years with the club, averaging 39.0 yards per punt.

TOM BROOKSHIER

#40

Defensive Back
Colorado
Years with Eagles: 1953, 1956-61

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1989

An inspirational player who could turn a game around with one big play, Tom Brookshier spent seven seasons with the Eagles and collected 20 interceptions along the way. Originally a tenth-round pick from the University of Colorado, Brookshier made an immediate impact with 8 interceptions in his rookie season of 1953. Then, after a two-year stint in the Air Force, the defensive back returned to the Eagles and twice earned all-pro honors - first in 1959, and again in 1960 as a member of Philadelphia's world championship team. Upon retiring as a player, Brookshier entered the broadcasting field and went on to be teamed with Pat Summerall on CBS's telecasts of NFL games including the 1980 Super Bowl.

JEROME BROWN

#99

Defensive Tackle
Miami (FL)
Years with Eagles: 1987-91

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1996

A two-time Pro Bowl selection and a member of one of the most dominant defensive lines in NFL history, Jerome Brown's life was cut short at the age of 27. Brown was killed in a tragic automobile accident on June 25, 1992, in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The Eagles' first round draft pick out of the University of Miami in 1987, he quickly became a fan favorite not only because of his outstanding ability but because of the passionate leadership and competitive fire he displayed. Despite playing only four years in the NFL, Brown will long be remembered as a key figure on the Birds' legendary 1991 defense - a unit that led the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, against the run, and vs. the pass. He capped the 1991 season by joining fellow linemates Reggie White and Clyde Simmons as starters in the Pro Bowl. Born February 4, 1965 in Brooksville, he went on to attend that town's Hernando High.

#22

Running Back
Ball State
Years with Eagles: 1960-67

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1990

One of the most electrifying players in Eagles' history, Brown holds the club record for longest kickoff return with his 105-yarder vs. Cleveland in 1961. Brown also set a then-NFL record for all-purpose yardage in a season with 2,428 yards in 1963. Today, he still shares the NFL record for kickoff returns for touchdowns in a single game with two vs. Dallas in 1966 (90 and 93 yards). Originally a 27th round draft pick of Green Bay in 1959, Brown spent time on the Packers taxi squad that year and was then signed by the Eagles as a free agent just after the start of the 1960 season. Brown finished his Eagles career in 1967 as the third leading rusher in club history in terms of both yards (3,703) and TDs (29) on 805 carries.

#17

Wide Receiver
Southern
Years with Eagles: 1971-83

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

The 6-foot, 8-inch Carmichael was not only one of the tallest receivers ever to play the game, he was one of the best. The Birds' seventh round pick out of Southern University in 1971, Carmichael played 13 seasons with the Eagles before finishing his career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1984. Upon retirement, he ranked sixth on the NFL's all-time reception list with 590 catches, including 589 as an Eagle, the most in team history. Today he also remains the Birds' career receiving leader in terms of yards (8,978) and touchdowns (79). During his tenure with Philadelphia, Carmichael led the Birds in receptions eight times. His outstanding play earned him trips to the Pro Bowl following the '74, '79, '80, and '81 seasons. Moreover, he was a key figure on the Eagles 1980 club that defeated Dallas in the NFC Championship Game and earned a berth in Super Bowl XV vs. the Raiders. Carmichael was born on Sept. 22, 1949 in Jacksonville, FL, where he attended William Raines High. On April 28, 1998, Harold was named the Eagles' Director of Player and Community Relations.

JIM GALLAGHER

Executive Temple
Years with Eagles: 1949-1995

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1995

He never put on a uniform, he never played a down. But many would say that "Jimmy Gal," an Eagles executive from 1949-95, was a first round pick in his own right. In that remarkable 46-year span, Gallagher worked with 17 head coaches and for 12 owners, GMs, and team presidents. During that time, Gallagher saw the Eagles capture two NFL titles and one NFL crown, and watched the Birds play home games in four different stadiums. A native of Philadelphia, a graduate of Northeast Catholic High School and an Army veteran of the Korean War, Gallagher joined the Eagles in 1949 and worked nearly every phase of the operation until being named personnel director in 1957. Gallagher went on to serve stints as director of public relations and associate director of sales and marketing before being named the club's director of alumni relations/traveling secretary in 1990. It was in that capacity that Jimmy Gal served until retiring on August 1, 1995.

BILL HEWITT

#56

End
Michigan
Years with Eagles: 1936-39, 1943

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1971
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Considered by many to be the best "two-way" end the league ever produced, Hewitt was the first player to be named All-NFL with two different teams - the Bears (1933, '34, '36) and Eagles (1937). A Michigan Wolverine and a member of the 1933 NFL Champion Chicago Bears before he joined the Eagles, the fast, elusive Hewitt revolutionized the end position. Nicknamed "Stinky," Hewitt is known for pitching a lateral to Bill Carr for the touchdown that won the 1933 championship game for the Bears. He also was credited with inventing many trick plays. Hewitt, who played without a helmet until a rule change forced him to wear headgear, was born October 8, 1909, in Bay City, Michigan. He died in an automobile accident on January 14, 1947, at the age of 37. Twenty four years after his death, Hewitt was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He was represented by his daughter Mary Ellen Cocozza at the induction ceremony and was formally presented for induction by Upton Bell, then the GM of the New England Patriots.

RON JAWORSKI

Quarterback
Youngstown State
Years with Eagles: 1977-86

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1992

Few players have had as great an impact on their teams as Ron Jaworski had on the Eagles of the late 1970s and early 1980s. After coming to the Birds in a 1977 trade with the Los Angeles Rams (in exchange for the rights to TE Charles Young), "Jaws" went on to enjoy a stellar 10-year career in Philadelphia. With the Eagles he set seven club passing records, including career marks for completions (2,088), touchdowns (175), and yards (26,963). After leading the Eagles to the NFC title in 1980 and a berth in Super Bowl XV vs. the Raiders, the Youngstown State product earned a Pro Bowl selection and was named the NFL Player of the Year by UPI and the Maxwell Football Club. Known throughout his career as one of the NFL's most durable quarterbacks, Jaworski earned the respect of his peers by starting 116 consecutive regular season games. His outstanding career, coupled with his involvement in numerous charitable and civic events, undoubtedly made him one of the most popular Eagles of all time. Jaworski was born March 23, 1951 in the Buffalo suburb of Lackawanna, NY, and attended Lackawanna High.

SONNY JURGENSEN

Quarterback
Duke
Years with Eagles: 1957-63

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1983
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Despite spending the last 10 years of his career with the Redskins, Christian Adolph (Sonny) Jurgensen is remembered not only as one of the finest quarterbacks ever to wear an Eagles uniform, but as one of the best passers in NFL history. A fourth round draft pick of the Eagles in 1957, Jurgensen - a future Hall of Famer himself - was a backup to another Hall of Fame quarterback, Norm Van Brocklin, on the Birds' 1960 NFL Championship team. The following year the rifle-armed red-head took over as the Eagles starting signal caller and threw 32 TD passes, a single-season mark which still stands as a club record. In that stellar 1961 season he completed 235 of 436 passes for 3,723 yards. Jurgensen went on to finish his NFL career in 1975 with 32,224 passing yards. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's class of 1983, he was formally presented for induction by Edward Bennett Williams, then the President of the Washington Redskins.

OLLIE MATSON

#33

Halfback
San Francisco
Years with Eagles: 1964-66

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1972
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

In his career with Chicago, Los Angeles, Detroit, and Philadelphia, Matson compiled some very impressive numbers - 12,844 combined net yards and 5,173 yards rushing. He was selected to participate in five Pro Bowls and, in fact, earned MVP honors for his effort in the 1956 Pro Bowl. Matson was traded to the Rams by the Chicago Cardinals for nine players in 1959. The speedy halfback was also a medal winner in track at the 1952 Olympics. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's class of 1972, Matson was formally presented as an inductee by Joe Kuharich, his former coach with the Eagles as well as with the Cardinals and the University of San Francisco.

TOMMY McDONALD

#25

Wide Receiver
Oklahoma
Years with Eagles: 1957-63

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1998
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1988

A game-breaking receiver from the University of Oklahoma, the 5-foot, 9-inch, 170-pound McDonald dazzled NFL fans with his acrobatic receptions for 13 seasons. During his seven-year stint with the Eagles, McDonald led or shared the team lead in receptions from 1959-62. In Philadelphia's 1960 NFL championship season he averaged one touchdown every third time he caught the ball, registering 13 TDs among his 64 receptions. In fact, McDonald capped that season by catching 3 passes, including one for a 35-yd TD in the Championship Game victory over Green Bay. He led the league in TD receptions in 1958 (9, tie) and in 1961 (13) when he also paced the NFL with 1,144 receiving yards. Born July 26, 1934, in Roy, NM, McDonald later starred for Bud Wilkinson's national champions at Oklahoma despite having lost half of his right thumb in a freak motorcycle accident in high school. As a senior with the Sooners, he won the Maxwell Award as the nation's top collegian and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting behind Paul Hornung and Johnny Majors. He then became a third round selection of the Birds in the 1957 draft and went on to be named to the Pro Bowl six times (five times as a starter). After his final season with the Eagles, McDonald finished his NFL career, with the Cowboys (1964), Rams (1965-66), Falcons (1967) and Browns (1968). On August 1, 1998, McDonald was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

HONOR ROLL INDUCTEES

WILBERT MONTGOMERY

#31

Running Back
Abilene Christian
Years with Eagles: 1977-84

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Wilbert Montgomery joined the Eagles as a quiet, shy, sixth round pick out of Abilene Christian in 1977. Eight years later, he finished his Philadelphia career as the Birds' all-time rushing leader in terms of yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465), surpassing Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren in the process. After playing for Detroit in 1985 (he was traded to the Lions that preseason), Montgomery retired as the 16th leading rusher in NFL history with 6,789 yards. Despite his smallish 5-foot-10, 195-pound frame, Montgomery won the hearts of Philadelphia fans with his dogged determination. His 194-yard effort in the 1980 NFC Championship Game victory over Dallas, including a 42-yard touchdown on the Birds' first offensive play, will never be forgotten. Montgomery scored 58 career TDs as an Eagle (45 of which came on the ground) including 14 combined TDs rushing and receiving during the 1979 season. He also tallied 6 playoff touchdowns, including 3 in the 1980 post-season when he averaged 104 rushing yards per game in three performances (including the Super Bowl against Oakland). Montgomery played in the Pro Bowl following the 1978 and 1979 seasons.

EARL "GREASY" NEALE

Head Coach
West Virginia Wesleyan
Years with Eagles: 1941-50

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1969
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

After coaching extensively on the collegiate level at Marietta, Washington and Jefferson (1922 Rose Bowl team), Virginia, and West Virginia, Neale broke into the NFL in 1941 and quickly turned the Eagles into contenders. He went on to lead the Birds to three straight Eastern Division crowns and back-to-back NFL championships in 1948 and 1949. Neale was, in particular, recognized as a master of the T formation. From 1918 to 1922, just prior to beginning his coaching career, Neale was a scrappy outfielder with the Cincinnati Reds and the Philadelphia Phillies. He was born in Parkersburg, WV, on November 2, 1891. Two years after Neale served as presenter when former Eagle great Chuck Bednarik was inducted into the Hall of Fame, Bednarik returned the favor, presenting Neale to the assemblage at Canton, OH, upon the latter's induction into the Hall in 1969.

PETE PIHOS

End
Indiana
Years with Eagles: 1947-55

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1970
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

An integral member of the Eagles' 1948 and 1949 championship teams, Piros enjoyed a career that included six trips to the Pro Bowl and three straight seasons leading the NFL in receptions. The All-America selection from the University of Indiana may best be remembered for his game-winning catch in the 1949 NFL championship game vs. the Rams. Piros came to the Eagles in 1947 and was a starter on offense for eight of his nine years with the team. He played defense in 1952 but returned to the offensive unit a year later. During his Eagles career, Piros caught 373 passes, a figure that still ranks third on the Eagles' all-time list (his 61 TD catches also remain tied for third best in team history). He led the league in receptions and receiving yards in 1953 (63-1,049) and again in 1955 (62-864). In between, he tied for the league lead in catches with 60 in 1954. After the advent of the Pro Bowl in 1951, he made it six times in as many seasons.

MIKE QUICK

#82

Wide Receiver
North Carolina State
Years with Eagles: 1982-90

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1995

One of the most graceful and athletic wide receivers ever to play the game, Mike Quick electrified Eagles fans for nine years. During that time, the former first round pick from North Carolina State distinguished himself as one of the NFL's premier pass catchers. A fixture among the league leaders during his career, Quick also became a regular selection to the Pro Bowl. Five consecutive times (following the 1983-87 seasons), the Hamlet, NC, native was voted to the Pro Bowl by his peers. At the conclusion of his brilliant career, Quick had etched his name into the Eagles record books, ranking among the club's all-time career and single-season receiving leaders in terms of catches, yardage, and TDs.

PETE RETZLAFF

#44

End
South Dakota State
Years with Eagles: 1956-66

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1989

Acquired off waivers at the start of the 1956 season from Detroit for $100, the 6-foot-1, 210-pound Retzlaff went on to earn all-pro honors five times as an Eagle. At the time of his retirement, Retzlaff was the Eagles' all-time leader in receptions (452) and receiving yardage (7,412). Today, over 30 years later, those figures still stand as the second highest totals in club history. A 22nd round draft pick of the Lions in 1953, Retzlaff also scored 47 touchdowns in his career and was selected to the Pro Bowl five times. When Philadelphia acquired his services, coach Buck Shaw converted the fullback into one of the league's all-time best tight ends. Nicknamed "the Baron," Retzlaff went on to receive both the Washington Touchdown Club's Pro Football Player of the Year Award and the Maxwell Club's Bert Bell Award in 1965 when he was 66-1,190-10TDs receiving. Instrumental in founding the NFL Player's Association, Retzlaff later served as the Birds' general manager from 1969-72.

JIM RINGO

#54

Center
Syracuse
Years with Eagles: 1964-67

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1981
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Ringo began his career as the Packers' seventh round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953. Despite being small for an offensive lineman, his quickness and determination enabled Ringo to earn all-pro honors eight times and play in 10 Pro Bowls. He also played in three NFL championship games. Ringo, who ignored numerous injuries to start in a then NFL-record 182 straight games from 1954-67, played on Green Bay's 1961 and 1962 World Championship teams. After 11 years with the Packers, Ringo spent his final four seasons as a player with the Eagles. Following his playing career, Ringo moved into the coaching ranks and became head coach of the Buffalo Bills from 1976-77. He was born November 21, 1931, in Orange, N.J., and inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981 with Willard "Whiz" Rinehart, his former coach at Phillipsburg (NJ) High, serving as his presenter.

HONOR ROLL INDUCTEES

JERRY SISEMORE

#76

Tackle

Texas

Years with Eagles: 1973-84

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1991

A first round draft pick of the Eagles in 1973 (the 3rd player selected overall) this University of Texas product became one of the cornerstones of an offensive line that helped lead the Eagles to the 1980 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV. Sisemore ranks fifth on the Eagles' all-time career list in both number of seasons (12) and games played (156). During his illustrious career, Sisemore started 127 consecutive games and was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 1979 and 1981 seasons. Overall, he teamed with fellow tackle Stan Walters, QB Ron Jaworski, RB Wilbert Montgomery and WR Harold Carmichael (all members of the Eagles Honor Roll) to power an offense that helped Philadelphia reach the playoffs five straight times from 1978-82.

NORM VAN BROCKLIN

#11

Quarterback

Oregon

Years with Eagles: 1958-60

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1971

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

A 1971 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Van Brocklin was a member of one of the Hall's most distinguished classes - a group that included Jim Brown, Vince Lombardi, Andy Robustelli, and Y.A. Tittle. Acquired in a 1958 trade with the LA Rams that many recall as the biggest deal in Eagles history, Van Brocklin went on to quarterback the Birds for three years. The fiery signal caller helped turn a last place Eagles club into one that eventually captured the NFL championship in 1960. As such, "The Dutchman" teamed with future Hall-of-Famer Chuck Bednarik to pace the Eagles to their third NFL championship with a 17-13 victory over Vince Lombardi's Green Bay Packers at Franklin Field. This storybook ending would garner Van Brocklin the league's MVP award and provide a fitting end to his playing career as both he and head coach Buck Shaw announced their retirements at the end of the season. In addition to ranking with the league's all-time great quarterbacks, "Dutch" was an accomplished punter, twice leading the league in punting average. An All-America selection at the University of Oregon, he went on to participate in 10 Pro Bowls. Van Brocklin threw for 23,611 yards and 173 TDs in an NFL career that spanned 12 seasons. He then went on to be the head coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1961-66) and Atlanta Falcons (1968-73).

#15

Halfback

Louisiana State

Years with Eagles: 1944-51

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1965

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

The Birds' first round draft choice (the fifth player selected overall) out of Louisiana State in 1944, Van Buren signed his first contract, in the amount of $4,000, with an Eagles team that had never finished above fourth place. They finished second in Van Buren's rookie season, were runners-up two more years and then won three straight division titles. In 1948 and '49, the Birds won consecutive league championships and Van Buren cemented his place in history as one of the most talented backs ever to play the game. Van Buren, nicknamed "Wham-Bam" by his teammates for his quick and punishing running style, twice surpassed the 1,000-yard mark while capturing the NFL rushing title on four occasions. In the 1948 title game against the Chicago Cardinals, he scored the game's only touchdown in a blinding snow storm. A year later, he waded through mud and torrential rains in the Los Angeles Coliseum to rush for 196 yards while helping the Eagles defeat the Rams and capture the title once again. His 205 yards rushing vs. Pittsburgh earlier that same season (1949) still stands as a club record. Similarly, his 5,860 career rushing yards and 77 touchdowns both rank second in Eagles history. A five-time all-pro, Van Buren was inducted into the Pro Football's Hall of Fame in 1965 with fellow Hall member Clark Hinkle, a former Packers running back, serving as his presenter. In 1987, Van Buren was named to the Eagles Honor Roll. Seven years later in 1994, he was also selected to the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team. Van Buren was born December 28, 1920, in Tela, Spanish Honduras.

DICK VERMEIL

Head Coach
San Jose State
Years with Eagles: 1976-82

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1994

Dick Vermeil, the Eagles head coach from 1976-82, will long be remembered as a workaholic and perfectionist ... but he will be remembered most as a winner. A success at every level of coaching, from his first high school head coaching job in 1960, to a stint at UCLA in 1974-75 and, of course, with the Eagles, Vermeil attacked his profession with a degree of passion rarely seen. A native of Calistoga, CA, in the Napa Valley, Vermeil became a hero in Philadelphia where he coached the Eagles into the playoffs five consecutive times from 1978-82, including a trip to Super Bowl XV as NFC Champions in January of 1981. Vermeil's Eagles earned that trip to the Super Bowl after capturing the NFC East division title with a 12-4 regular season record and after defeating their arch rival, the Dallas Cowboys, in the NFC title game at Veterans Stadium. After one more season at the Birds' helm, Vermeil resigned, moving into the broadcasting booth before returning to the NFL in 1997 as head coach of the St. Louis Rams.

STAN WALTERS

#75

Tackle
Syracuse
Years with Eagles: 1975-83

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1991

Originally a ninth round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in 1972, Walters joined the Eagles via trade in 1975. The Syracuse University product went on to play in 122 consecutive regular and post-season games for Philadelphia. Walters provided solid play at left tackle throughout his career, anchoring the team's offensive line (along with fellow Honor Roll member Jerry Sisemore), especially during the successful seasons of the late 1970s and early 1980s. A key member of the Birds' 1980 NFC championship squad that participated in Super Bowl XV, Walters was honored by his peers following the '78 and '79 seasons when he was selected to the Pro Bowl. After his playing career, Walters became a color commentator on radio broadcasts of Eagles games until 1997.

ALEX WOJCIECHOWICZ

#53

Center
Fordham
Years with Eagles: 1946-50

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1968
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

A two-time All-America selection at Fordham where he was the center on the famed 'Seven Blocks of Granite' line, Wojciechowicz was the Detroit Lions' top draft pick in 1938. One of football's original "iron men" for eight years with the Lions, Wojciechowicz joined the Eagles in 1946 as a defensive specialist and helped the Birds capture back-to-back NFL championships in '48 and '49. Known for his exceptionally wide stance as a center, "Wojie" also was an outstanding pass defenser who piflered 16 passes during his pro career. Born August 12, 1915, in South River, NJ, Wojciechowicz organized the National Football League Alumni Association. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's class of 1968, "Wojie" was presented for induction by Earle "Greasy" Neale, the Eagles head coach during his five seasons with Philadelphia.

In 1997, the NFL began announcing paid attendance figures. Prior to that, attendance figures were actual.

EAGLES ALL-TIME RECORD

The Eagles and Steelers were combined in 1943 and played under the name Steagles. Records of combined teams are not recognized by the National Football League in Series Records vs. other NFL clubs, but are included in both clubs' overall records of wins and losses.

EAGLES' CHAMPIONSHIP GAME REVIEW

1947 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chicago 28, Eagles 21

December 28, 1947 at Comiskey Park

A frozen field in Comiskey Park did not prevent an offensive game as the Chicago Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 in their first NFL championship playoff. The Cardinals' Elmer Angsman set a record by rushing for 159 yards in 10 carriers, scoring twice on 70-yard runs. Philadelphia's Tommy Thompson set a record for pass completions (27-44-297-1TD) and returned a punt 75 yards for another TD. The Cardinals' Charlie Trippi also scored 2 TDs on a 44-yard run from scrimmage and a 75-yard punt return. Steve Van Buren, the NFL's leading ground gainer with 945 yards during the season, gained only 26 yards on 18 carries due to the slippery conditions.

The Cardinals, who had started the game wearing basketball shoes, had a 7-0 lead after Trippi's 44 yard TD run with 8:38 left in the first quarter. The Eagles themselves changed to sneakers after being penalized for illegal equipment, but trailed 14-0 before scoring on Thompson's pass to William (Pat) McHugh, who caught a 36-yard pass on Chicago's 17 and completed a 53-yard play.

Philadelphia never got closer than a touchdown as the Cardinals held leads of 21-7 and 28-14 in the second half. The Birds did lead 357-336 in total offense, partly because Paul Christman of the Cardinals completed only 3 of 14 passes for 54 yards as the Eagles' eight-man defensive line succeeded in pressuring Christman into hurried passes.

1948 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Eagles 7, Chicago 0

December 19, 1948 at Shibe Park

After many years of waiting, the Philadelphia Eagles finally won the National Football League championship. Playing in a driving snowstorm at Shibe Park, Coach Greasy Neale's team triumphed over the champion Chicago Cardinals 7-0.

A protective tarpaulin was not removed from the playing field in Shibe Park until 30 minutes before the kickoff but snow blanketed the entire field by game time.

Of the 36,309 persons who bought tickets and assured a sellout, a total of 28,664 braved the storm with the temperature below the freezing mark to watch the title game, which began a half hour later than scheduled because the snow made removal of the tarpaulin a difficult operation. The sidelines were marked by ropes tied to stakes and conditions were so adverse that NFL commissioner Bert Bell decreed that while the 10-yard first-down chain would be used, there would be no measuring; referee Ron Gibbs would be the final judge of all first downs.

The Eagles started the game's only touchdown drive near the conclusion of the third quarter when the Cardinals' Elmer Angsman fumbled a handoff from Ray Malouf that Eagles' lineman, Frank (Bucko) Kilroy, recovered on the Cards' 17. Three plays into the fourth qtr, Steve Van Buren scored on a five-yard run and Cliff Patton kicked the PAT.

Van Buren had pounded out 98 yards in 26 carries. Bosh Pritchard rushed for 67 yards and Thompson ran mainly up the middle for 50 yards. The rugged weather conditions made it almost impossible to complete passes. Thompson was 2 out of 12 for 7 yards while Malouf threw 3 of 8 for 35 yards. Kicking was just as difficult; Patton attempted 3 field goals but made none while Pat Harder of the Cardinals bobbed his only attempt.

1949 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Eagles 14, Los Angeles 0

Dec. 18, 1949 at LA Memorial Coliseum

The Philadelphia Eagles, in the NFL title game for the third consecutive year, defeated the Los Angeles Rams 14-0 as halfback Steve Van Buren set records with 31 carries and 196 yards gained. Van Buren achieved the record after a storm, that began 24 hours before kickoff, dropped almost two inches of rain on the muddy Los Angeles Coliseum field. A crowd of more than 60,000, which would have set a playoff record, was expected before the storm but only 22,245 attended the game.

With all-pro Van Buren carrying the ball, the Eagles were able to control possession for 70 plays on 274 rushing yards. The Rams rushed for only 21 yards and did not advance the ball further than the Eagles' 26-yard line. The Birds scored their first TD in the second quarter on a 31-yard pass from quarterback Tommy Thompson to Pete Piros.

The Eagles' other score came in the third quarter as defensive end Leo Skladany blocked Bob Waterfield's punt from the 5-yard line. The snap of the ball was high and Waterfield had no chance to get the kick away. Skladany pounced on the bouncing ball on the 2-yard line and scored.

The victory marked the Eagles' second straight shutout in the NFL title game, climaxing the rise that began when Earle (Greasy) Neale was hired as coach in 1941.

1960 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Eagles 17, Green Bay 13

December 26, 1960 at Franklin Field

The Philadelphia Eagles overcame leads of 6-0 and 13-10 by the Green Bay Packers to score a 17-13 victory for their first NFL championship in 11 years.

Bill Quinlan intercepted Norm Van Brocklin's pass on the first play of the game and Eagles' rookie Ted Dean fumbled on the Birds' second possession. Five plays later the Packers' Paul Hornung kicked a 20-yard field goal. Another Hornung field goal increased Green Bay's lead to 6-0 in the second quarter before Philadelphia got on the scoreboard with a two-play, 57-yard drive. Van Brocklin passed 22 yards to Tommy McDonald, then teamed with McDonald on a 35-yard TD pass.

A Bobby Walston field goal for Philadelphia made it 10-6 at the half, but Green Bay took a 13-10 lead in the first two minutes of the fourth quarter. Bart Starr's 7-yard pass to Max McGee marked the Packers' only touchdown. On the ensuing kickoff, Dean returned the ball 58 yards to the Packers' 39. Dean then completed the drive with a 5-yard TD run. Chuck Bednarik endured 58 minutes of the contest — playing center on offense and linebacker on defense.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME REVIEWS

1980 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Eagles 20, Dallas 7

January 11, 1980 at Veterans Stadium

With only two healthy wide receivers and a passing game that was hampered by frigid temperatures and blustery winds, the Eagles rode a tremendous defensive effort and Wilbert Montgomery's 194-yard rushing performance to the NFC title. The Birds never trailed after Montgomery's 42-yard scoring burst early in the first period, although Dallas managed a 7-7 tie at halftime after their only long drive of the day in the middle of the second period. The Eagles continued to dominate after intermission as fullback Leroy Harris (10 carries, 60 yards) complemented Montgomery's effort. Dallas managed only 202 yards of total offense and 11 first downs to the Eagles 340 yards and 19 first downs.

SUPER BOWL XV

Oakland 27, Eagles 10

Jan. 25, 1981 at New Orleans Superdome

The Eagles' first Super Bowl appearance was a disappointing one as they fell behind early and could never play the type of football that had made them champions of the National Football Conference. Behind quarterback Jim Plunkett, the game's MVP, the Raiders jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first period. The first score, a two-yard pass from Plunkett to Cliff Branch, was set up by an Oakland interception and return to the Eagles' 30-yard line with less than two minutes elapsed in the opening period. Plunkett followed late in the period with an 80-yard scoring pass to running back Kenny King. The Eagles trailed by 14-3 at halftime and by 24-3 after three periods before Keith Kreple scored the only Philadelphia touchdown on an 8-yard pass reception from Ron Jaworski. A first period apparent touchdown toss of 40 yards from Jaworski to Rodney Parker was nullified by an illegal motion penalty against the Eagles. That score, if it had stood, would have made the score 7-7 at the time and might have gotten the Eagles untracked.

EAGLES ON FOREIGN SOIL

During their history, the Eagles have played four preseason games outside of the United States, compiling a 1-3 record along the way. The Eagles' three most recent ventures abroad were as participants in the NFL's American Bowl series, a series that has included games in London, Berlin, and Tokyo. In 1989, Philadelphia opened its preseason with a victory over Cleveland in the fourth annual American Bowl in London, England. The Birds returned to London's Wembley Stadium two years later for the sixth American Bowl in Great Britain and fell to the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills in the pre-season opener for both clubs. The results of the Eagles' games on foreign soil are as follows:

EAGLES TELEVISION NETWORK

EAGLES TELEVISION NETWORK

On February 12, 1997, the Philadelphia Eagles and WB17 announced a three-year, comprehensive local broadcast agreement. As such, WB17 will serve as the flagship station of the newly formed Eagles Television Network (ETN). The agreement provides for more Eagles local programming than any other similar arrangement in team history. WB17 is Philadelphia's sports leader, and also serves as the sports home of the Philadelphia Phillies and Flyers.

As part of this arrangement, the Eagles Television Network will extend into the Harrisburg-York-Lancaster area (the nation's 45th largest market) on FOX 43, as well as into Scranton-Wilkes-Barre (the nation's 47th largest market) on FOX 38.

"We are excited to expand the Eagles programming lineup by joining forces with a station known for bringing hometown sports to Philadelphia's fans," said Eagles owner Jeffrey Lurie at the time. "Our fans are continually asking for more opportunities to access greater amounts of up-to-date information on the team, and this arrangement with WB17 certainly helps meet that demand."

ETN will air the following programs:

Eagles Preseason Games: The Eagles Television Network will broadcast the entire Eagles pre-season schedule in 1998. Each game will be re-aired after the live broadcast on the ETN affiliate stations as well as Comcast Sportsnet.

Eagles Scrimmage: For the second straight season, the Eagles will televise their annual scrimmage live from the Birds' Training Camp at Lehigh University. This year's scrimmage vs. the Buffalo Bills will take place on Saturday, August 1. Eagles fans across the tri-state area will thus have an opportunity to experience the first taste of football heading into the 1998 season. Exclusive ETN access will allow viewers to check out the Birds in preparation for the upcoming season like never before.

The AUH Ray Rhodes Show: Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes steps into prime time for a 30-minute show that will air every Saturday at 10:30 p.m. throughout the football season. Rhodes will offer his unique insights on the Birds' upcoming opponent as well as on other topical issues related to the Eagles and the NFL.

Modell's Sunday Wrap: This half-hour show will air on Sunday evenings at 10:30 PM and will provide Eagles fans with the definitive source for Eagles highlights, interviews and reaction concerning that day's game. Other highlights include exclusive locker room footage and an exclusive one-on-one interview with head coach Ray Rhodes after each game.

Inside the Eagles: This weekly program gives viewers an inside look at the Eagles' players. Both on and off-the-field segments highlight the personalities and excitement that surround the team as ETN's cameras capture exclusive footage. Eagles Digest editor Dave Spadaro and Hall of Fame writer Ray Didinger will provide in-depth reports and weekly updates on the team.

Cross Rhodes: This half-hour program, which airs Monday evenings on Comcast Sportsnet, is Philadelphia's first chance to catch Coach Rhodes' press conference and all it entails. Hear the coach answer questions from the press and recap the previous game's top issues.

IMPORTANT NFL DATES 1998-99

July 15 Signing period ends at 4 PM (ET) for Unrestricted Free Agents to whom June 1 tender was made by Old Club, Transition Players, and Franchise Players who are eligible to receive Offer Sheets. After this date and through 4 PM (ET) on November 10, Old Club has exclusive negotiating rights to these players.

August 7 If a Drafted Rookie has not signed with his club by this date, he may not be traded to any other club in 1998.

August 25 Roster cutdown to maximum of 60 players on Active List by 4 PM (ET).

August 30 Roster cutdown to maximum of 53 players on Active/Inactive List by 4 PM (ET). Clubs may dress minimum of 42 and maximum of 45 players and Third Quarterback for each regular season and postseason game.

August 31 After 4 PM (ET) clubs may establish a Practice Squad of five players by signing free agents who do not have an accrued season of free agency credit, unless that season was achieved by spending an entire regular season on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

September 4 Clubs are required to identify their 49-player Active List by 7 PM (ET) on this Friday and thereafter on each Friday before a regular season Sunday game. No later than one hour and 30 minutes prior to kickoff, clubs must identify their 45-player Active List and Third Quarterback, if any.

September 22 Priority on multiple waiver claims is now based on current season's standings.

October 13 All trading ends at 4 PM (ET).

October 14 Players with at least four previous pension-credited seasons are subject to the waiver system for the remainder of the regular season and postseason.

November 2 Deadline for 1998 for an increase in a player's Salary to be counted as Salary for the current year. Any increase in a player's 1998 Salary negotiated after this date will be treated as a Signing Bonus.

November 10 Deadline for clubs to sign by 4 PM (ET) their unsigned Franchise and Transition Players. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in NFL in 1998.

November 10 Deadline for clubs to sign by 4 PM (ET) their Unrestricted and Restricted Free Agents to whom June 1 tender was made. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in NFL in 1998.

November 10 Deadline for clubs to sign Drafted players by 4 PM (ET). If such players remain unsigned, they are prohibited from playing in NFL in 1998.

November 28 Deadline for reinstatement of players in Reserve List categories of Retired, Did Not Report and Exclusive Rights, and of players who were placed on Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season.

December 25 Deadline for waiver requests in 1998, except for "special waiver requests" which have a 10-day claiming period, with termination or assignment delayed until after the Super Bowl.

December 29 Clubs may begin signing free agent players for the 1999 season.

January 2-3 Wild Card Playoff Games.

January 9-10 Divisional Playoff Games.

January 17 AFC and NFC Championship Games.

January 31 Super Bowl XXXIII, Miami, Florida.

February 7 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, Honolulu, Hawaii.

February 11 Deadline for clubs to designate Franchise and Transition Players.

February 11 Expiration date of all player contracts due to expire in 1998.

February 12 Free Agency period begins.

February 18-22 Combine Timing and Testing, RCA Dome, Indianapolis, Ind.

March 14-18 NFL Annual Meeting, Arizona Biltmore, Phoenix, Arizona.

April 17-18 Annual Player Selection Meeting, New York, N.Y.

PERSONNEL GUIDE

WAIVERS: The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by one club to other NFL clubs. During this procedure, a club may make a claim to obtain the player or "waive" its right to do so—thus the term "waiver". Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based upon the inverse of won-loss standings. The claiming period is normally ten days during the offseason and 24 hours from July 7 through December 25. In some circumstances, another 24 hours is added on to allow the original club to rescind its action (known as waiver recall) and/or the claiming club to do the same (known as a withdrawal of a claim). If a player passes through waivers from July 7 through December 25 they are no-recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from February 8 through October 14, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit are not subject to the waiver system.

ACTIVE LIST: The Active List is a status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract, including option, who are eligible for preseason, regular season, and postseason games. Clubs are allowed to open training camp with 80 players but thereafter must meet a series of mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted to dress a minimum of 42 and a maximum of 45 players and a third quarterback for each regular season game and postseason game during the 1997 season. In addition, each club will have an Inactive List of 8 players. For Active List maximums and dates for 1997, see ROSTER LIMITS below.

RESERVE LIST: The Reserve List is the principle status for players who, for reason of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Those players in the category of Reserve/Injured that have been placed on the list prior to the final 53-man roster may not return to the active list that season and are not permitted to practice. Any player placed on the Injured Reserve List after the 53-man roster has been set also will also not be eligible to play for the remainder of the season.

ROSTER LIMITS: No more than 80 players can be on the active roster from February 11–August 24. Rosters must be cut to 60 active players by 4:00 p.m. on August 25 (Tuesday after 3rd preseason weekend). Rosters must be cut to 53 active players by 4:00 p.m. on August 30. Clubs will be permitted to dress 45 players for each regular season game (plus a third quarterback, if desired). Each team must designate a four man inactive squad by Friday at 7:00 p.m. Additionally, the club will then designate 4 more players to their inactive list for that game no later than one hour and 30 minutes prior to kickoff.

PRACTICE SQUADS: After 4:00 PM ET on August 31, each club may establish a Practice Squad of no more than five players by signing free agents who do not have a season of free agency credit. This squad includes only rookies and/or first-year players (those whose NFL experience is limited to previous training camp or less than three active games).

TRADES: Unrestricted trading is allowed in 1998 between clubs through October 13 (Tuesday following the sixth regular season weekend), after which trading of the player contract/rights will end until mid-February, 1999.

Media headquarters at Training Camp: McClintic-Marshall Hall, Lehigh Univ., Bethlehem, PA 18015

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS/CREDENTIAL PICK-UP: News media representatives who have not been issued season press credentials should request single-game credentials in advance by writing or calling the Eagles' public relations department, 3501 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19148-5201 (Phone: 215-463-2500 ... FAX: 215-339-6745). Written requests, either mailed or faxed should be on company letterhead. Credentials reserved in advance can be picked up at the Press Gate/Security Entrance below Gate B off Pattison Ave. (not the Will Call Window) three hours before the scheduled kickoff. Media members who regularly cover the visiting team should arrange to acquire their credentials through that team's PR department.

PRESS BOXES: The Eagles maintain three press boxes, designated A, B, and C, on the fourth level of Veterans Stadium. Admission to the press area is strictly limited to those individuals holding credentials issued by the Eagles' public relations department. No other media identification cards will be honored. All news media should enter the stadium through the press gate (Pattison Ave. side of the Stadium). Those with credentials for the press box should take the elevator to the fourth level.

TELEPHONES: Game day telephone lines at an assigned seat can be ordered by calling Bell Atlantic at 800-700-8297.

TELEVISION AND RADIO: Network television and visiting radio facilities are located on the 4th level between press boxes A and B. Visiting radio credentials will be issued through the visiting team's PR representative. Television announcers may do stand-ups on the field in pregame, halftime, during the last three minutes of play, and post game. Television "announcers" and producers are not allowed on the sidelines except during these aforementioned periods.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline credentials for field photographers are issued by the Eagles' public relations department only. Space limitations make it impossible to accredit free lance photographers who are not on specific assignment by a recognized sports or news publication. Photographers should enter the press gate (B) and take the elevator to the first (field) level. Space on the fourth level photo deck is extremely limited and available only on a reserved basis. All field photographers are reminded that they must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms after a game is controlled by each team. There is absolutely no admission to the locker room before or during a game. The Eagles' head coach and quarterback will meet with the media in an interview room across the hall from the Eagles' locker room. During the regular season the locker room is normally open to the media on Monday and Friday for 45 minutes after practice and on Wednesday and Thursday for 30 minutes before and after practice. This schedule is subject to change, however.

PRESS CLUB: Admittance to the Press Club before, during, and after the game is limited to working media and Eagles' staff holding appropriate credentials.

DIRECTIONS FROM AIRPORT TO VET STADIUM: Take I-95 north for approximately 6 miles to Broad Street exit. Go straight on Broad for two lights. The stadium is located at the intersection of Broad and Pattison Ave. NOTE: Eagles' practice fields are located in the north parking lot of the stadium. The entrance to the stadium's VIP parking lot is off of Broad Street.
